Adjournment of the Logislature.

The Legislature, after a protracted and unprofitable session of four months, adjourned sine die on Tuesday last, and the members have departed for their homes. We bid them all an affectionate farewell. and hope they will succeed in rendering a satisfactory account of their stewardship to their respective constituencies .-When we say that the session was unprofitable—unprofitable to the peoplewe say just what we know to be true; and what the records will show. Threefourths at least of the entire session was devoted to the consideration of private business, for the especial pecuniary benefit of the members themselves, and the "borers" who thronged the Halls during the whole winter, and who managed, by some means, to control the entire legislation of the session. The principal object of the Locofocos in the Legislature-ncting under the suggestion's and recommendations of a Locofoco governor-seems to have been to squander the Public funds upon party favorites, swell the State Debt. impair the character, and credit of the Commonwealth, and burden the people with increased taxation. gro through the neck, cutting the juggular vein, and killing him instantly. This happened about 4 o'clock in the afternoon. At 5 o'clock the body of the negro was still lying at the place where he was killed, a horrid spectacle, no inquest having been held upon it. The negro's wife and child were its only attendants. Ridgely immediately after he killed the negro fled across the Susquehana towards Baltimore. Lyne and several others were near the negro at the time he was murdered but hid behind a pile of lumber. None of the parties have been arrested.

ANOTHER VERSION .- We have received from a gentleman who was in Columbia at the time of the murder, the following version of the affair, which he says is known to be correct;

He states that the negro had not been arrested by either Snyder or Ridgely—that he was engaged piling boards in a narrow place between piles of lumber, on two sides, and a fence at one end of the space. Suyder and Ridgely entered at the other end and commanded the negro to surrender or they would shoot him.—
The negro then sprang for the sence and was in the act of getting over when Ridgely shot him through the head.— They were both within two yards of the negro when he was shot but had not put their hands upon him.

After the deed was done Ridgely was represented as from Harrisburg, and stated he was a United States officer, and if arrested he would have those who arrestod him taken for false imprisonment .-This had the effect to intimidate the officers there until Ridgely escaped over the bridge and made his way to Maryland.

WEETERN EDUCATION - The board of Education, of which Governor Slade, of Vermont, is agent, has thus far sent 250 female teachers to the West. They are women of thorough education, and approved Christian character. Before entering upon their work, they go through a course of preparatory study at Hartford, Conn. Five were sent to Oregon in March, 1851, and one to New Mexico. England, where experiments have proved last autumn. #### French designs upon Rome.

In the foreign advices lately we have several times spoken of Prince Canino Bonaparte at Civita Vechia, and more latterly his return to Paris has been re-corded, with the statement that the Pope refused him permission to enter Rome, though the Prince claimed only to desire to see his family there, and attend to some private business. The correspondent of the New York Times, however, writing from Turin, April 14th puts a food but never stop it. The higher its refused him permission to enter Rome, though the Prince claimed only to desire more serious aspect on the visit of the Prince as follows:

A few days past a Signor Calandrelli, a high officer of the Sardinian Government, residing in Turin, read, at the end of a letter apparently addressed to himself from Paris, the signature of one of the sons of Prince Canino, with whom he never had any acquaintance. ### Shooting a Fugitive Slave.

BALTIMORE, April 30 The fugitive slave, shot at Columbia, (Pa.,) belonged to Mr. Stansbury, of this city. Mr. Ridgely, the officer who comare the effects of Locofoco policy and Lo-mitted the act, alleges that he shot the stave in self defence.

invented and patented in 1841 by Aiken & Felthousand. This machine will do the work of twelve journeymen Tailors per day, will sew all kinds of seams, do it stronger than hand sewing, every stilch being precisely the sams length, all kinds of curved work, seam sticking, quilting, and in fact all the work of the Tailor except cutting and pressing off. Other Sewing Machines have been invented and are in tise, which can compete with it in no respect. With this machine we propose to do work as durably, and at lower prices than any other eastablishment. Tailors wishing to purchase the right for the upper edge of a sand-bar, upon which the above machine can do so by calling on the subscriber.
