SEIZURE OF AN AMERICAN VESSEL BY THE DUTCH.-A Batavia letter, of Feb. 27. says the Boston Advertiser, states that a few days previous, an American schooner called the Elist, was brought into Batavia Roads by a war steamer from Pa-lembang. The owner and all on board were made prisoners on a charge of high treason, for endeavering to induce the Sultan of Jambie, or Diambia, to revolt lowing tribute to the deceased:-His against the Dutoh. The recent disaffec- high judicial character was distinguished tion at Palembang, and its neighborhood has greatly alarmed the Netherlands Government, which is well aware that the natives have no affection for its rule. According to the Dutch version of this treasonable affair, it would appear that the Flirt arrived at Palembang, and that the owner Mr. Gisson, stated that he was on a pleasure cruise, as a man of fortune. After a short time during which the utmost cordiality and hospitality existed between Ginson and the officials at the station, the suspicions of the authorities were excited, and a strict watch kept over the vessel's movements.
