TELEGRAPHIC.

BALTIMORE, May 31, 10 P. M.

Our city is perfectly thronged, and great excitement prevails. The Buchananites are working hard, determined on success. They are now holding a caucus with the Virginia delegates, and will stick to him to the last.

Gen. Butler has written a letter declining in favor of Gen. Cass. It is tho't that the friends of Cass will unite on Butler should they be compelled to desert their favorite.

Lookers on generally think that Douglas or Butler will be nominated. An excited and long session is anticipated. The impression still is that Cass must go to the wall, and Buchanan also.

The friends of Gen. Houston are urging his claims with great energy.

The New York delegation are mum. It is said they are divided between Douglass and Cass.

☞A project is broached in the Southern (La.) Sentinel, which proposes that on the day of the Presidential election in the several States, at every poll throughout the United States, a box should be placed, having inscribed upon it "Washington Monument Box," and underneath, "One dime to the memory of Washington." With the funds thus collected it proposes to complete the monument.

A CALIFORNIA CURIOSITY.—The San Francisco papers mention an animal of different species from any before seen in California, and which was taken in a trap at Nevada. It is, called the California Cat, though evidently not one of the feline family. It is described as being very beautiful, and bearing a resemblance to the marten, differing from it however, in color being a dark gray, encircled with bright brown rings, similar to the raccoon. The fur is very soft and beautiful. Its body is about the size of the grey squirrel, but about fifteen inches long and its tail sixteen or seventeen inches long.

WONDERFUL DISCOVERY.—The Fairmont True Virginian says:—We are informed by Col. Haymond and others, that a portion of a regularly McAdamized road has been discovered on the opposite side of the river from this place. We have not seen it ourselves, but learn that it extends pretty much along the bank of the river. Its width is about sixteen feet and the track well graded. The bed of stone seems to be about two inches thick, and made precisely after the plan of our McAdamized roads, the stone being broken to about the same size as that used for our roads. The discovery was made by the washing away of a hill side which partially covered the road. When, and by what race of people this road was made, is unknown at the present day, but it gives evidence of the existence of a population here at some former age of the world, as far advanced in civilization, or at least in the art of road making as ourselves. There was found in the bed of the road the stump of a chestnut tree, which was ascertained to be 150 years old at the least, and how much older our informant could not tell as the stump was hollow.

GENERAL CASS AND THE SPIRITS.—Our Baltimore correspondent, the other day recorded the particulars of a solemn interview between Democratic seers, anxious for knowledge, and certain highly favored professors of Spiritual Rapping. On that occasion the spirits unequivocally pronounced General Cass the favored candidate both of the Baltimore Convention and the people.

By a singular coincidence the General's friends in Kentucky resorted to similar sources of inspiration for knowledge and comfort, but, unhappily, with a diametrically opposite result. The Louisville Journal chronicles the fact:

"There has been some dispute among the newspapers as to whether General Cass is politically dead or not. We are able to announce authoritively that he is. At a late visit to the Spirit Rappers we thought of General Cass, and enquired whether the spirit or ghost of the person in our mind was present. The response came "Yes." We asked him what he died of; and he informed us that he died of Old Fogyism. We inquired if he was happy; and he said that the "noise and confusion" was so great that he could not answer."

Dead in Kentucky, but alive at Baltimore. That, according to the spirits is the enigma in reserve for the Senator from Michigan.

The experiences of Macbeth suggests the danger of relying implicitly on witches or spirits of any kind grey or white.—The General we suspect is too shrewd a calculator to place much reliance on intercourse with weird sisters or their rapping descendants.—Republic.

INSANE ASYLUM.—We visited this noble building a few days ago, and by the politeness of the gentlemanly steward, Mr. Slaymaker, were allowed to go thro' it with his attendance. We learned from him that there is between sixty and seventy patients under treatment, of which number near twenty are females.

Among the number of inmates we found a lawyer who a few years ago was at the head of the bar of one of the most distinguished counties of the State, and in the judicial district of the highest court was surpassed by any gentlemen of the profession, for legal learning, eloquence, personal accomplishments, and elegant manners. He is still a gentleman though in an insane asylum, and his conversation is interesting and impressive; reminding us with melancholy emotion, of some twelve or fourteen years ago, when the judicial forum of last resort was illustrated by his steady and ample flow of rich and convincing eloquence.

Alas! "we know what we are, but know not what we may become." In this case the greatest evil of the day—intemperance—has done a fatal work in undermining a stupendous intellect.—Pa. Telegraph.

EPISCOPAL DELEGATION.—The Rev. Bishops De Lancey, of Western New York, and McCoskry, of Michigan, will take passage for Liverpool in the steamer Atlantic on Saturday, in order to take part, as the representatives of the Protestant Episcopal Church of the United States, in the coming jubilee of the Society for the Propagation of the Gospel in Foreign Parts, to be held in Westminster Abbey. The trial of Bishop Doane, which, it was supposed, would detain them, has been postponed.

LOCOFOCO CONSISTENCY.—The 108th section of the Appropriation Bill provides:

"That the cancellation of the notes issued under the act of fourth May, one thousand eight hundred and forty-one, and renewed under the act of tenth of April, one thousand eight hundred and forty-nine, be, and the same is hereby postponed for another period of three years from the passage of this act."

"In 1848," as is well said by the Lancaster Whig, "the Locofocos appeared very indignant when a similar provision was adopted. In 1851, they have themselves declared against the cancellation of the much abused Relief Notes. Let it be remembered when they are heard denouncing a 'paper currency,' that when they had the power they actually refused to provide for their destruction! Gov. Bigler was last fall among the foremost in denouncing the Notes. Now he signs a bill which postpones their cancellation for three years. Who is so stupid or so foolish as to rely upon Locofoco pledges or the sincerity of Locofoco professions?"

CURIOUS ARMOUR.—Two Mexicans were recently arrested at Brownsville, (Texas) suspected of being highway robbers and murderers. Among their effects were found two curiously constructed coats of armour, made not of steel but of cowhide and wool, and supposed to be used by them while engaged in marauding purposes. The Rio Bravo thus describes these articles:

These armours are made in the shape of corsets, composed of an outer and inner coat of cowhide, filled with wool, about an inch and a quarter in thickness and neatly and elaborately stitched thro' with cow-hide thongs. They are in two parts, and tie closely back and front with leather strings. When worn they form a complete panoply for the body, and are impervious to a pistol shot, if not to a rifle.
