MOMENTS OF MELODY.—I remember once strolling along the margin of a stream in one of those low sheltered valleys on Salisbury plain, where the monks of former ages had planted chapels and built hermits' cells. There was a little parish church near, but tall elms, and quivering alders hid it from the sight, when all on a sudden, I was startled by the sound of the full organ pealing on the ear, accompanied by rustic voices and the willing choir of village maids and children. It rose, indeed, "like an exhalation of rich distilled perfumes." The dews from a thousand pastures were gathered in its softness; the silence of a thousand years spoke in it. It came upon the heart like the calm beauty of death; fancy caught the sound, and faith mounted on it to the skies. It filled the valley like a mist, and still poured out its endless chant, and still it swells upon the ear, and wraps me in a golden trance drowning the noisy tumult of the world.

Going as Freight.

An Irishman whose funds were rather low, had footed it all the way to Wheeling, and was still desirous to get as far as Portsmouth; thence to proceed to a point not far distant from the latter place, where work was to be obtained. Having worn his toes through his boots, and the heels of an old pair of shoes quite low, he gave up the idea of using 'shank's mares' any longer. There were plenty of steamboats puffing and blowing at the landing, and Pat became quite fascinated at the idea of such an easy mode of conveyance. 'Captain,' said he, stepping on board a beautiful craft—'Captain, an' what'll you charge to take me to Portsmouth?' 'Seven dollars in the cabin.' 'Sivin dollars! arrah! sivin dollars! why Captain dear, I hav'nt the half of that sum.' 'Oh, never mind that Pat, I'll take you as a deck passenger for three dollars, if you'll work half your passage, that is, help wood the boat.' Pat mused some minutes on this proposition, and then put in another question: 'And Captain, what'll ye take a hundred and sixty pounds of freight for?' 'I'll charge you but seventy-five cents for that.' 'Then Captain, you see I'm the boy that weighs that—so you can enter me as freight, and I'll stow away snug somewhere below stairs.' A proposition so novel pleased the Captain highly, and calling one of the hands, he gave directions to have Pat stowed carefully away in the hold—and ordered the clerk to enter in the freight list, 'One Irishmen, weighing one hundred and sixty pounds!' Pat kept snug till he reached Portsmouth, a distance of 356 miles—having shown himself but twice, and then for only a few minutes at a time, during the whole passage. There he paid his freight of seventy-five cents, honorably, and was next seen with his bundle tramping it along the tow-path of the canal for his desired destination.

A Sea Bull.

An Irishman who served our board a man-of-war in the capacity of a waister, was selected by one of the officers to haul in a tow-line of considerable length, which was towing over the taft-rail. After rowsing in forty or fifty fathoms, which had put his patience severely to the proof, as well as every muscle of his arms, he muttered to himself,—'Sure, it's as long as to-day and to-morrow! It's a good week's work for any five in the ship! Bad luck to the arms or leg it'll leave me at last! What! more of it yet! Och, murder! the sea's mighty deep, to be sure!' After continuing in a similar strain, and conceiving that there was little probability of the completion of his labor, he suddenly stopped short, and addressing the officer of the watch, exclaimed, 'Bad manners to me, sir, if I don't think somebody's cut off the other end of it.'

The Dandy.

"The dandy," says Rev. H. W. Beecher, "is the sum total of coats, hats, vests, boots, &c. He is the creature of the tailor. His destiny is bound up in broadcloth and fine linen; and his worth can be estimated only by the yard, cloth measure. We are puzzled to tell whether he is a female gentleman, or a male lady; for he combines the weaknesses and foibles of both sexes, but knows nothing of the good qualities of either. He is a human poodle, dandled at home in the lap of effeminacy, but the sport and butt of every sensible dog, when he ventures into the street.

On pleasant days he exhibits himself on the fashionable promenades, to the admiration, as he supposes, of every fair lady who is so fortunate as to cross his path. The hardest labor his hands perform, is to tote a dainty cane about in his daily walks. The only "head work" to which he can stoop, is to curl and coax a reluctant moustache, or bathe his glossy locks and ringlets in "odors sweet."—He is inconsolable over a soiled boot, and would be driven to distraction if compelled to appear in tumbled linen.

Original sin, with him, consists in not being born with a full suit of the latest Parisian mode; and the clearest proof of depravity, as well as vulgarity, is in wearing last year's clothes; and when at last he goes down to that most undandified and undignified place, the house of the dead, a proper epitaph would be:—"Here lies all of him that could die; the rest has gone—to the old clothes dealers."

☞ 'Where did you come from?' said Smith to a beggar of the Isle of Wight.

'From the Devil!'

'What's going on in his country?'

'Much the same as here.'

'What's that?'

'The rich taken in and the poor kept out.'

NAVAL POWERS.—Mr. Bell in his speech in the Senate gives the following facts in regard to the comparative strength of navies:

He said that Great Britain could put afloat a fleet of 676 war vessels of all classes, 150 of which were propelled by steam, with an aggregate compliment of 18,000 guns. The French navy consisted of 365 effective war vessels, with an aggregate of 8,000 guns. Russia had a fleet of 175 war vessels, with an aggregate of 6,000 guns. The United States had a navy of 67 effective vessels of all classes—5 propelled by steam—2,250 guns.

SONG.

TUNE—DANDY JIM.

The trumpet sounds with loud alarms,
The Whigs and Locos fly to arms,
Their Generals martial up each train
The presidential prize to gain.

CHORUS.

For Scott for Scott the Whigs do cry,
For Pierce, the Locos make reply,
While rolling thunders far away
Proclaim for our old Chippeway.

Let Loco Focos vote for Frank
Their voting will turn out a blank,
The honored prize they cannot draw
For it is reserved for Chippeway.

CHORUS.

Old Chippeway's a first rate horse
To run upon the Union course,
A hasty bowl of soup he'll take
And carry off the highest stake.

He'll beat your Pierce in any weather
Though you have dubbed him fuss and feather,
With every bowl of soup he takes
You'll see the Locos get the shakes.

CHORUS.

You think to fire upon his rear
And thus you hope the track to clear,
But you will find it but a draw,
The White House is for Chippeway.

DR. HOOFLAND'S
CELEBRATED GERMAN BITTERS, PREPARED BY
Dr. C. M. Jackson,
At the German Medicine Store, 120 Arch Street, Philadelphia.

Their power over the above diseases is not excelled, if equalled, by any other preparation in the United States, as the cures attest, in many cases after skilful physicians had failed.

These Bitters are worthy the attention of invalids. Possessing great virtues in the rectification of disease of the Liver and lesser glands, exercising the most searching powers in weakness and affections of the digestive organs, they are without safe certain and pleasant.

Read and be convinced.

From the Boston Bee.

The editor said, Dec. 22nd:

Dr. Hoofland's Celebrated German Bitters for the cure of Liver Complaint, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Chronic or Nervous Debility, is deservedly one of the most popular medicines of the day. These Bitters have been used by thousands, and a friend at our elbow says he has himself received an effectual and permanent cure of Liver Complaint from the use of this remedy. We are convinced that, in the use of these Bitters, the patient constantly gains strength and vigor—a fact worthy of great consideration. They are pleasant in taste and smell, and can be used by persons with the most delicate stomachs with safety under any circumstances. We are speaking from experience, and to the afflicted we advise their use.

"SCOTT'S WEEKLY," one of the best Literary papers published, said, Aug. 25—

"Dr. Hoofland's German Bitters, manufactured by Dr. Jackson are now recommended by some of the most prominent members of the faculty as an article of much efficacy in cases of female weakness. As such is the case, we would advise all mothers to obtain a bottle, and thus save themselves much sickness. Persons of debilitated constitutions will find these Bitters advantageous to their health, as we know from experience the salutary effect they have upon weak systems."

More Evidence.

The Hon. C. D. Hineline, Mayor of the City of Camden, N. J. says:

"HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS.—We have seen many flattering notices of this medicine, and the source from which they came induced us to make inquiry respecting its merits. From inquiry we were persuaded to use it, and must say found it specific in its action upon diseases of the liver and digestive organs, and the powerful influence it exerts upon nervous prostration is really surprising. It calms and strengthens the nerves, bringing them into a state of repose, making sleep refreshing.

If this medicine was more generally used we are satisfied there would be less sickness, as from the stomach, liver, and nervous system the great majority of real and imaginary diseases emanate. Have them in a healthy condition, and you can bid defiance to epidemics generally. This extraordinary medicine we would advise our friends who are at at all indisposed, to give a fair trial—it will recommend itself. It should, in fact, be in every family. No other medicine can produce such evidences of merit.

Evidence upon evidence has been received (like the foregoing) from all sections of the Union, the last three years, and the strongest testimony in its favor is, that there is more of it used in the practice of the regular physicians of Philadelphia, than all other nostrums combined, a fact that can easily be established and fully proving that a scientific preparation will meet with their quiet approval when presented even in this form.

That this medicine will cure Liver Complaint and Dyspepsia, no one can doubt after using it as directed. It acts specifically upon the stomach and liver; it is preferable to calomel in all bilious diseases—the effect is immediate. They can be administered to female or infant with safety and reliable benefit at any time.

Look well to the marks of the genuine.

They have the written signature of C. M. JACKSON upon the wrapper, and his name blown in the bottle, without which they are spurious.

Another Scientific Wonder!
GREAT CURE FOR DYSPEPSIA!
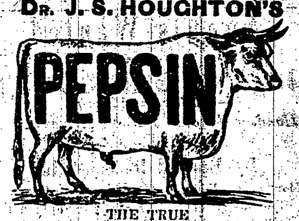
DR. J. S. HOUGHTON'S



THE TRUE
DIGESTIVE FLUID, OR, GASTRIC JUICE.

Prepared from RENNET, or the fourth STOMACH OF THE OX, after directions of BARON LIEBIG, the great Physiological Chemist, by J. S. HOUGHTON, M. D. Philadelphia, Pa.

This a truly wonderful remedy for INDIGESTION, DYSPEPSIA, JAUNDICE, LIVER COMPLAINT, CONSTIPATION, and DEBILITY, Curing after Nature's own method, by Nature's own Agent, the Gastric Juice.

☞ Half a teaspoonful of Pepsin, infused in water, will digest or dissolve, Five pounds of Roast Beef in about two hours, out of the stomach.

Pepsin is the chief element, or Great Digesting Principle of the Gastric Juice—the Solvent of the Food, the Purifying, Preserving, and Stimulating agent of the Stomach and Intestines. It is extracted from the Digestive Stomach of the Ox, thus forming an artificial digestive fluid, precisely like the natural Gastric Juice in its Chemical powers, and furnishing a complete and perfect substitute for it. By the aid of this preparation, the pains and evils of Indigestion and Dyspepsia are removed, just as they would be by a healthy Stomach. It is doing wonders for Dyspeptics, curing case sof Debility, Emaciation, Nervous Decline, and Dyspeptic Consumption, supposed to be on the verge to the grave. The Scientific Evidence upon which t is based, is in the highest degree curious and remarkable.

Scientific Evidence.

BARON LIEBIG in his celebratod work on Animal Chemistry, says: "An Artificial Digestive Fluid, analogous to the Gastric Juice, may be readily prepared from the mucous membrane of the stomach of the Calf, in which various articles of food, as meat and eggs, will be softened, changed and digested, just in the same manner as they would be in the human stomach."

☞ Call on the agent and get a descriptive Circular, gratis, giving a large amount of scientific evidence similar to the above, together with reports of remarkable cures, from all parts of the United States.

As a Dyspepsia Curer.

Dr. Houghton's Pepsin has produced the most marvellous effects, in curing cases of Debility, Emaciation, Nervous Decline, and Dyspeptic Consumption. It is impossible to give the details of cas s in the limits of this advertisement, but authenticated certificates have been given of more than two hundred remarkable cures, in Philadelphia, New York and Boston alone. These were nearly all desperate cases, and the cures were not only rapid and wonderful, but permanent.

It is a great Nervous Antidote, and particularly useful for tendency to bilious disorder, liver complaint, fever and ague, and the evil effects of quinine, mercury, and other drugs upon the Digestive Organs, after a long sickness. Also for excess in eating, and the too free use of ardent spirits. It also reconciles Health with Intemperance.

Dr. Houghton's Pepsin is prepared in powder and fluid form—and in prescription vials for the use of physicians.

Private Circulars for the use of Physicians may be obtained of Dr. Houghton or his agents, describing the whole process of preparation, and giving the authorities upon which the claims of this new remedy are based. As it is not a secret remedy, no objection can be raised against its use by physicians in respectable standing and regular practice Price, ONE DOLLAR per bottle.

☞ OBSERVE THIS.—Every bottle of the genuine Pepsin bears the written signature of J. S. HOUGHTON, M. D., sole proprietor, Philadelphia, Pa. Copy-right and Trade mark secured.

☞ Sold by all Druggists and Dealers in Medicines. ABEL TURRELL, Druggist, &c.
