THE MODEL WIDOW.—Wouldn't wear her veil up on ANY ACCOUNT. Thinks her complexion fairer than ever, in contrast with her sables. Sends back her new dress, because the fold of crape on the skirt "isn't deep mourning enough." Refuses, most steadfastly, to look in the direction of a "dress coat" for——one week! Wonders if that handsome Tompkins who passes her window every day, is insane enough to think she will ever marry again! Is fond of drawing off her glove, and resting her little white hand on her bonnet, thinking it might be suggestive of an early application for same.—Concludes to give up the loneliness of housekeeping, and try boarding at a hotel. Accepts Tompkins' invitation to attend the children's concert, just to please little Tommy! Tommy is delighted, and thinks Tompkins a very kind gentleman, to give him so much candy and so many bonbons. His mamma begins to admit certain little alleviations of her sorrow, in the shape of protracted conversations, walks, rides, calls, &c.

She cries a little when Tommy asks if she has not forgot to plant the flowers in a certain cemetery. Tompkins comes in and thinks her lovelier than ever, smiling through her tears. Tommy is sent out through the garden, to make pretty dirt pies, to the utter demolition of new frock and trousers, and returns very unexpectedly, to find his mamma's cheek very rosy, and to be tossed up in the air by Tompkins, who declares himself his new papa!

☞ The Panama Herald of a late date, gives an interesting account of the Pearl fisheries in Panama Bay. About fifteen hundred persons are engaged in the business, and the value of the pearls obtained varies from $80,000 to $150,000 per annum, seldom less than one hundred thousand dollars. The best divers remain under water from fifty-eight to sixty-two seconds, and generally bring up from twelve to fifteen pearl shells. The price of pearl varies according to their purity, shape and weight, say from ten to five thousand dollars per ounce. From five hundred to fifteen hundred are very frequently paid in Panama for single pearls not weighing more than three-sixteenths of an ounce.

EXPOSURE TO THE SUN.—Several deaths have recently occurred from exposure to the sun; and workmen, during the greatest heat of the day, are compelled to suspend their labor. A correspondent of the New York Advertiser says that, in Pensacola, Fa., where the officers and men of one of our naval ships were very much exposed to a tropical sun, they adopted a very simple mode of protection, by wearing high-crowned hats, in the inside of which they placed a quantity of raw wet cotton, which completely warded off the intense heat. At this season, when we hear daily of deaths caused by coup de soleil, would it not be well to recomend our omnibus drivers, and all mechanics and laborers, so much exposed, to try the experiment? —Ledger.

SEIZURE OF FISHING VESSELS.—It is said that the commander of the U. S. steamer Mississippi, which sailed from Brooklyn, on Wednesday, for the fishing grounds, has orders to permit no seizures of our vessels to be made in the present stage of proceedings—unless they take place within three miles of the coast. The British interpretation of the treaty, as regards the bays, will not, it is further said, be permitted to be enforced, until the matter has been diplomatically adjusted.

A CHALLENGE TO KENTUCKY.—It will be seen, by our letter from St. Johnsbury, that Vermont sends a challenge to old Kentucky, as she did in 1850, to beat her, if she can, in the piling up of a majority in November, for the hero of a hundred battles. We feel authorized in the name of old Kentucky, to accept the challenge. And now, look to your laurels, old Vermont.—Louisville Journal.

REVOLUTIONARY RELICS.—The Ohio Elyrian Courier says the identical gun used by Ethan Allen, during his services in the Revolutionary war, is now in possession of N. H. Underhill, of that village. Also, the gun used by Gen. Wayne, and with which he made himself so notorious in picking Indians from the tops of trees is now in a gun-shop in that village to be repaired.

☞ George W. Crawford, Secretary of War under Gen. Taylor, is the only member of that cabinet who goes for Pierce and King. Crawford is the man who was mixed up with the Galphin claim and retired from office with his $90,000 fee. We wish the Locofocos joy of their new ally. We presume they will talk no more about "Galphanism," as the Galphanite has gone into the ranks of their party.

REAPPEARANCE OF THE SEA SERPENT.—It appears the sea serpent has turned up again, having lately been seen off Halifax, N. S., doubtless on his way to look after the interests of our fisherman. The Halifax Colonist gives the following account of the visit of his snakeship:

"The monstrous 'critter' was seen by Mr. Geo. Osborne, of Cow Bay, on Saturday, as he is willing to testify on oath. It was quite near to his boat, and is thus described by Mr. Osborne: 'Its head was exactly the shape of a serpent, and being above water, appeared to be about five feet in length, by about seven in circumference; the body, which was principally under water, could not have been less than 60 or 70 feet in length."

☞ A curious case is related by the Troy Budget of a girl in that city, losing her speech for a whole week! Being disobedient, and refusing to answer her mother, when spoken to, she found—after sitting dumpishly in the corner for about an hour, brooding over her bad conduct—that she was unable to utter or articulate a word! Her friends did not take particular notice of her for a couple of days, supposing she was keeping up her pet. Finally she wrote down that she could not speak, when her friends became alarmed, and consulted several physicians. After a week had passed, she awoke one morning, and found herself again in speaking order.

☞ We understand that at all future meetings of the Democracy of Louisville, each Democrat is to appear with the Pierce badge—that is to say, with a stick of candy in his mouth, in honor of "the most illustrious act" in the career of his candidate.—Louisville Journal.

MILK OF ROSES.—Milk of roses is made thus: Put two ounces of rosewater, a teaspoonful of almonds, and twelve drops of oil of tartar, into a bottle and shake the whole till well mixed.

NARROW ESCAPE—CURIOUS INCIDENT.—On Tuesday last, a gentleman was parting with a friend, on the track in the east side of the Market street depot. He did not notice an approaching train till it was within a few feet of him, when he made a convulsive spring upon the cow-catcher, and clung there till the train was stopped, being carried a considerable distance. He was found to be completely paralyzed, except in his hands, with which he tenaciously held fast, so that he was with difficulty released.—Newark Adv.

ECONOMY.—A "cheap plow" at five dollars, costing in one season three dollars in repairs, and three more in lost time to teamsman, and by retarding crops, is a dearer plow than one at ten dollars requiring no repairs.

A cow bought for ten dollars whose milk but just pays her keeping, affords less profit than one at thirty dollars, giving double the value of milk afforded by the former.

RED ANTS.—Scatter a few elder leaves on the shelves of cupboards and in closets, and their odor will destroy and keep away the red ants, which are sometimes so troublesome.

LOUIS PAPINEAU, who was exiled as the leading spirit in the Canadian rebellion, in 1837, has just been elected to the Provincial Parliament. A despatch from Montreal declares that the vote in favor was two to one over the government candidate.

DR. HOOFLAND'S German Bitters, prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson, are justly reckoned amongst our most valuable medicines. In cases of dyspepsia, it acts like magic, strengthening the tone of the stomach, stimulating the digestive powers, and giving ruddy health to the cheek and brightness to the eye. There are thousands in this community who can testify to their virtues, and thousands will hereafter add their testimony.

ANOTHER SCIENTIFIC WONDER—IMPORTANT TO DYSPEPTICS.—Dr. J. S. Houghton's Pepsin, the true Digestive Fluid or Gastric Juice, prepared from Rennet or the fourth stomach of the Ox, after directions of Baron Liebig, the great physiological Chemist, by J. S. Houghton, M. D. Philadelphia. This is truly a wonderful remedy for Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Jaundice, Liver Complaint, Constipation and Debility, curing after Nature's own agent, the Castric Juice. Pamphlets, containing Scientific evidence of its value, furnished by agents gratis.—See notice among the medical advertisements.

Mechanics, Manufacturers and Inventors.

THE Eighth Volume of the Scientific American commences on the 18th of September.—It is principally devoted to the diffusion of useful practical knowledge, and is eminently calculated to advance the great interests of industry—Mechanical, Manufacturing, and Agricultural—the genius and master-spirit of the nation.

It is unrivalled as a journal of Arts and Sciences, and maintains a high character at home and abroad.

The Publishers pledge themselves that the future Volumes shall at least equal, if not surpass their predecessors. Among the subjects chiefly brought forward and discussed in its columns, are, Civil Engineering, Architecture, Railroads, Bridges, Agricultural Implements, Manufactures of Metals, Fibrous and Textile substances, Machinery for the purpose, Chemical Processes, Distilling, Coloring, &c. Steam and Gas Engines, Boilers and Furnaces, Mathematical, Philosophical and Optical Instruments, Cars, Carriages, Water-wheels, Wind and Grinding Mills' Powers, Planing Machines, Tools for Lumber, Brick Machines, Farming, Fire Arms, Electricity, Telegraphs, Surgical Instruments, &c., besides Claims of all the Patents, Reviews, Notices of New Invention, American and Foreign. The work is in form for binding, contains several hundred Engravings, over four hundred pages of printed matter, and a copious Index. Nearly all the valuable Patents which issue weekly from the Patent Office are illustrated with Engravings in its columns, thus making the paper a perfect Mechanical Encyclopedia for future as well as present reference.

Valuable Premiums are offered for the Largest List of Subscribers to this Volume. It is published weekly, by MUNN & CO. at their patent agency office, 128 Fulton-street, New York.

Terms.—1 copy, one year, $2,00—1 copy, 6 months, $1,00—always in advance. 5 copies for six months, $4,00—10 copies for six months, $8,00—10 copies for twelve months, $15,00—15 copies for twelve months, $22,00—20 copies for twelve months, $28,00.
