...isher, lately discovered by Layard amid the Ruins of Nineveh.

CHAPTER VIII.

1. And it came to pass in the fourth year, that the Locos met together in council, even in the city of Baltimore.

2. They came up in great numbers, and the sound of their coming was as the roaring of many waters.

3. And there came together men of every tongue and speech. Hunkers and Barnburners, Free-Soilers, Abolitionists, Interventionists, Unionists, Secessionists and Tariffites, and with them also Rynders, the Hittite, and Mike Walsh, the Subterranean, who dwelleth in the slime pits of Sodom.

4. And they communed one with another, saying, let there be no division amongst us, but what soul soever languisheth after the loaves, let him be seated in our midst, and dwell in the tents of abundance.

5. And let us choose ourselves a captain and a leader, who shall lead us into high places, even those which abound with veins of silver, and fine gold.

6. And into a land flowing with milk and honey, where we may lie down in fatness, and possess our souls in gladness.

7. And that saying pleased them greatly, and they wagged their heads every man of them, and sat down.

8. Then there arose an ancient man, who opened his mouth and said, let it be proclaimed this day whom ye will serve, and unto whom shall the gathering of the people be.

9. And there went forth a voice, as the voice of hundreds, saying, Is there not Lewis of Michigan, a great man and wise, who moreover hath been a man of war from his youth up!

10. Let us cleave therefore unto him, and he shall rend the prey from the mighty, and give the spoil unto us for an inheritance, and a possession forever.

11. But others cried Nay, what portion have we in Lewis Cass! for his sword is broken and the sceptre is departed from Michigan.

12. But there is a young man, even Douglass, who is very beautiful, so there is none like him in all the earth, and the hearts of the people yearn unto him.

13. For he sitteth near the market place, and sayeth unto each man, "Would that I were a ruler in Israel, even for thy sake; for my affection goeth abroad, even unto the love of strange flesh."

14. So his mouth is filled with promises and his hand holdeth not back the wine cup; for one, two, yea three drinks and four, giveth he to every man, for he is a man of progress and stayeth not in all his courses.

15. Then there sprang forth in their midst, a man of the West, a man of fierce countenance, having his loins girt about with buckskin, and whose meat was bears and wild varmints.

16. And he cried aloud, Who is he that speaketh of the wine cup, whose soul panteth for strong drink? Let him muster under the banner of the Chief Butler of Kentucky, and wine shall he have, yea wine in flagons, and strong drink in barrels.

17. Lo, even now at the sound of his name my spirit thirsteth greatly, let us therefore adjourn for a season.

18. Then spake there a man from Maine, saying, not so my brother, but let us do all things soberly, and drink only the running brook.

19. But the man of the West cried out, is thy servent a dog that he should do this thing? So he turned and went away in a rage.

20. And the people followed after the man of the West.

CHAPTER IX.

1. And in the process of time the men returned, and sat again in council, even in the great Sanhedrim, in Baltimore.

2. And their eyes were red, but not with weeping, and they were filled, but not with the spirit of wisdom.

3. And the contention waxed great amongst them, and they strove together many days.

4. Then there arose certain men of Virginia, who said, Let us gather ourselves unto Buchanan, the Tarriffite, for he is a Hunker

5. His name is published in many lands, the sound thereof hath reached unto our seas, and none can say that we are set forth of strange men.

6. But others cried nay, for he was raised in the tents of wickedness, and hath blasphemed against us in the language of Ashdod, saying that he would let out the blood of the Democracy, even with a lancet.

7. But the men of Virginia clove unto him, and a certain wise man among them said, Why do ye murmur! And wherefore make ye known our reproach unto our adversaries!

8. As for the saying let the memory thereof rot and let the blackness of darkness cover it forever.

9. Wot ye not, that as the strong man, even Samson, found honey, yea, the precious honey comb, in the body of the dead lion; so also my soul smelleth the savor of sweet doctrine; yea, snuffeth the oder of pure Democracy, in the defunct carcass of Federalism.

10. But others said that these men be drunken with new wine; let us rather cleave unto Marcy who dispenseth spoils, and giveth much raiment unto those who follow after.

11. Then replied unto them the men of Virginia. As for this Marcy we have no inheritance in him; let him remain, like Asher, by the sea shore, and dwell in his breeches.

12. But we will gather ourselves unto a great and wise man, even Dickenson, and him only will we follow:

13. For he hath trod in high places, and been seen afar off of all men; for his goings forth have been stately as the steppings of the he-goat of Syria, that browseth upon Mount Gideon.

14. Then Dickenson bowed himself unto the ground and cried unto them saying, oh ye, live forever!—now be it for this time. I pray you have me excused, since I serve Lewis of Michigan, and him only do I serve.

15. And again spake unto these men of Virginia, saying, Lo, these many days have we striven together in vain contention. There be giants in the land, but ye will none of them.

16. Let us therefore, search out some small man, whose ways are unknown, so that the mouths of the gainsayers shall be stopped.

17. Let us, therefore, assemble ourselves unto Pierce, for he is the smallest among a thousand, and altogether puny.

18. For there is a path which the eagle knoweth not, and the wild goat hath not trod, and therein Pierce, the son of New

19. And it shall come to pass, that as Zoar was saved from the ruin of Sodom, because it was the least of the cities of the plain, so shall it happen, that when the wrath of the people shall rain down tempests upon the great ones of our party, and the lightnings shall run along the ground, that it shall spare even Pierce, because he is a little one.

20. Then stood up among them Rynders, the Hitite, who was captain among certain men of Belial, and said, Lewis I know, and Douglass I know, but who is he?

21. Then answered unto him a man of New Hampshire, saying, He is like Ephraim, a pleasant child, for he speaketh but few words and writeth no letters, but he spelleth wonderfully.

22. In his right hand he holdeth the loaves and with his left he dispenseth the fishes, even places, and he is cunning to catch gudgeons.

23. Moreover, brethren, he hath been known to give alms, even one cent money current with the merchant, unto a boy that was a stranger unto him.

24. Then exclaimed Rynders the Hittite, the like thereof was never heard of in Israel, and as my soul liveth, unless I see with my own eyes, and feel with these fingers, that cent, even that red cent, I will not believe, though one rose from the dead.

25. But the others were a weary and hungred for the loaves and the fishes, so they hearkened to the men of Virginia, and gathered themselves unto Pierce of New Hampshire.

26. And as for the rest of the doings of the Locos in Baltimore, are they not written in the book of the Apocrypha?

27. And it came to pass, when Cass and Douglass heard that Pierce had been chosen captain of the Host, that they lifted up their voices and wept; and the Whigs of the house of Fillmore heard them.

28. And they rent their garments and scattered ashes on their heads, and went up to the capitol crying, Oh, Pierce my friend, my friend Pierce, would to God I had been chosen instead of thee!

☞ PURIFY WATER.—Nine ounces of pure, fresh lime, says the Scientific American, dissolved in 40 gallons of water, will purify 560 gallons of hard water; the precipitate is chalk. It takes 16 hours for water to settle, and all the impurities to settle to the bottom of the vessel which contains the water. This is a very useful fact in chemistry, and is not very extensively known.

CELEBRATED GERMAN BITTERS, PREPARED BY
Dr. C. M. Jackson,
At the German Medicine Store, 120 Arch Street, Philadelphia.

Their power over the above diseases is not excelled, if equalled, by any other preparation in the United States, as the cures attest, in many cases after skillful physicians had failed.

These Bitters are worthy the attention of invalids. Possessing great virtues in the rectification of disease of the Liver and lesser glands, exercising the most searching powers in weakness and affections of the digestive organs, they are withal, safe certain and pleasant.

Read and be convinced.

From the Boston Bee.

The editor said, Dec. 22nd:

Dr. Hoofland's Celebrated German Bitters for the cure of Liver Complaint, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Chronic or Nervous Debility, is deservedly one of the most popular medicines of the day. These Bitters have been used by thousands, and a friend at our elbow says he has himself received an effectual and permanent cure of Liver Complaint from the use of these Bitters, the patient constantly gains strength and vigor—a fact worthy of great consideration. They are pleasant in taste and smell, and can be used by persons with the most delicate stomachs with safety, under any circumstances. We are speaking from experience and to the afflicted we advise their use.

"SCOTT'S WEEKLY," one of the best Literary papers published, said, Aug. 25—

"Dr. Hoofland's German Bitters, manufactured by Dr. Jackson are now recommended by some of the most prominent members of the faculty as an article of much efficacy in cases of female weakness. As such is the case, we would advise all mothers to obtain a bottle, and thus save themselves much sickness. Persons of debilitated constitutions will find these Bitters advantageous to their health, as we know from experience the salutary effect they have upon weak systems."

More Evidence.

The Hon. C. D. Hineline, Mayor of the City of Camden, N. J. says:

"HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS.—We have seen many flattering notices of this medicine, and the source from which they came induced us to make inquiry respecting its merits. From inquiry we were persuaded to use it, and must say found it specific in its action upon diseases of the liver and digestive organs, and the powerful influence it exerts upon nervous prostration is really surprising. It calms and strengthens the nerves, bringing them into a state of repose, making sleep refreshing.

If this medicine was more generally used, we are satisfied there would be less sickness, as from the stomach, liver, and nervous system, the great majority of real and imagmary diseases emanate. Have them in a healthy condition, and you can bid defiance to epidemics generally. This extraordinary medicine we would advise our friends who are at at all indisposed, to give a fair trial—it will recommend itself. It should, in fact, be in every family. No other medicine can produce such evidences of merit.

Evidence upon evidence has been received (like the foregoing) from all sections of the Union, the last three years, and the strongest testimony in its favor is, that there is more of it used in the practice of the regular physicians of Philadelphia, than all other nostrums combined, a fact that can easily be established, and fully proving that a scientific preparation will meet with their quiet approval when presented even in this form.

That this medicine will cure Liver Complaint and Dyspepsia, no one can doubt after using it as directed. It acts specifically upon the stomach and liver; it is preferable to calomel in all bilious diseases—the effect is immediate. They can be administered to female or infant with safety and reliable benefit at any time.

Look well to the marks of the genuine.

They have the written signature of C. M. JACKSON upon the wrapper, and his name blown in the bottle, without which they are spurious.

Another Scientific Wonder!

GREAT CURE FOR DYSPEPSIA!

DR. J. S. HOUGHTON'S

THE TRUE

DIGESTIVE FLUID,

OR, GASTRIC JUICE.

Prepared from RENNET, or the fourth STOMACH OF THE OX, after directions of BARON LIEBIG, the great Physiological Chemist, by J. S. HOUGHTON, M. D. Philadelphia, Pa.

This a truly wonderful remedy for INDIGESTION, DYSPEPSIA, JAUNDICE, LIVER COMPLAINT, CONSTIPATION, and DEBILITY, Curing after Nature's own method, by Nature's own Agent, the Gastric Juice.

☞ Half a teaspoonful of Pepsin, infused in water, will digest or dissolve Five pounds of Roast Beef in about two hours, out of the stomach.

Pepsin is the chief element, or Great Digesting Principle of the Gastric Juice—the Solvent of the Food, the Purifying, Preserving, and Stimulating agent of the Stomach and Intestines. It is extracted from the Digestive Stomach of the Ox, thus forming an artificial digestive fluid, precisely like the natural Gastric Juice in its Chemical powers, and furnishing a complete and perfect substitute for it. By the aid of this preparation, the pains and evils of Indigestion and Dyspepsia are removed, just as they would be by a healthy Stomach. It is doing wonders for Dyspeptics, curing case sof Debility, Emaciation, Nervous Decline, and Dyspeptic Consumption, supposed to be on the verge of the grave. The Scientific Evidence upon which it is based, is in the highest degree curious and remarkable.

Scientific Evidence.

BARON LIEBIG in his celebrated work on Animal Chemistry, says: "An Artificial Digestive Fluid, analogous to the Gastric Juice, may be readily prepared from the mucous membrane of the stomach of the Calf, in which various articles of food, as meat and eggs, will be softened, changed and digested, just in the same manner as they would be in the human stomach."

☞ Call on the agent and get a descriptive Circular, gratis, giving a large amount of scientific evidence similar to the above, together with reports of remarkable cures, from all parts of the United States.

As a Dyspepsia Curer

Dr. Houghton's Pepsin has produced the most marvellous effects, in curing cases of Debility, Emaciation, Nervous Decline, and Dyspeptic Consumption. It is impossible to give the details of cases in the limits of this advertisement, but authenticated certificates have been given of more than two hundred remarkable cures, in Philadelphia, New York and Boston alone These were nearly all desperate cases, and the cures were not only rapid and wonderful, but permanent.

It is a great Nervous Antidote, and particularly useful for tendency to bilious disorder, liver complaint, fever and ague, and the evil effects of quinine, mercury, and other drugs upon the Digestive Organs, after a long sickness. Also for excess in eating, and the too free use of ardent spirits. It also reconciles Health with Intemperance.

Dr. Houghton's Pepsin is prepared in powder and fluid form—and in prescription vials for the use of physicians.

Private Circulars for the use of Physicians may be obtained of Dr. Houghton or his agents, describing the whole process of preparation, and giving the authorities upon which the claims of this new remedy are based. As it is not a secret remedy, no objection can be raised against its use by physicians in respectable standing and regular practice Price, ONE DOLLAR per bottle.
