SHOULD WILLIAM HOPKINS BE ELECTED CANAL COMMISSIONER.—Wm. Hopkins was in the Legislature in 1840, when the question of compelling the Banks immediately to resume specie payments came up for decision. It was the leading question of the session, and Mr. Hopkins made a speech upon it. From that speech, delivered February 1, 1840, we quote the following paragraph:

"I receded in voting on the resolution relative to the resumption of specie payments. I believed the final passage of that resolution would produce a scene of RUIN and DISASTER from the centre to the circumference of the Commonwealth. But I HAD NOT THE NERVE to array myself against the Democracy of the House, and I GAVE UP MY OPINIONS OF THE MEASURE, AND VOTED FOR IT!"

Such a man is Wm. Hopkins—a man who "HAD NOT THE NERVE" to vote against his party, although he believed the course of his party was tending to produce a scene of "ruin and disaster from the centre to the circumference of the Commonwealth!" Should a man who can not resist party ties, even if he believes his party's measures are injurious to the people, be placed in the responsible office of Canal Commissioner of the State? Men of Pennsylvania, is that the man to do this, who himself admitted his "want of nerve" to do his duty in a most important crisis in the history of our State!

A PREDICAMENT.—On Saturday one of our citizens was on a visit to Canada, and about the time the storm on that evening was coming on, started in a carriage to return to the American side. When about midway of the "suspension bridge" over Niagara Falls, the storm struck them with appalling fury. The wind blew a perfect tornado, while the air was densely filled with hail and rain; and so potent was the wind, that the bridge swayed to and fro ten or a dozen feet making one giddy with its vibrations. So appalling was the commotion, that the horses stopped, and finally fell upon their sides on the bridge, while the driver, in the extremity of his terror, seemed incapable of making the least effort to move from the perilous spot. The inmates of the carriage could with difficulty keep their seats, and for a short time expected nothing else, than to be precipitated into the surging waters below. A situation like this is too appalling for description, and we must leave it to the imagination to picture, what the sensations of those in the carriage were, during this frightful commotion of the warring elements.—Rochester American.

OUTRAGEOUS CRUELTY—QUICK RETRIBUTION.—Sometime last week one of the slaves of Matthew Raynor, who resides in the vicinity of Raleigh, in this county, ran away. He apprehended him in this city, and took him home. The next day he commenced his cruel and fiend-like punishment, and after inflicting upon him hundreds of lashes, concluded by cutting off both the negro's ears close to his head. The shocking facts spread through the neighborhood, and news was some way conveyed to Raynor that a warrant had been issued for his apprehension. Upon hearing this he immediately left the county and arrived at the residence of Mr. Beard, in Tipton County, where he died the next day, and was buried at his residence on Sunday.—Memphis (Tenn.) Enquirer.

"LET THEM FIRE."—The Hon. Edward Stanly, in noticing the allegations of the Loco-Focos, that Mr. Clay was opposed to General Scott's election, related the following incident in his speech at New York last week: At the time the nomination of Gen. Scott, was announced, Mr. Clay was very ill, and it was feared the firing of the guns might have a bad effect upon him. It was therefore suggested that the firing should cease, but the aged and down-stricken Patriot said: "No, let them fire away—they have good cause for it."

☞ In the battle of the Resaca de la Palma, in a hand-to-hand skirmish, a soldier in our army, a quaint Irishman, pierced with his bayonet, and immediately after fired the contents of his musket.

'What was that for?' said the officer in command of the squad, in a tone signifying his disapproval of the act.

'Oh!' said the soldier, much puzzled for an answer, 'what was it for?—why, to make a hole to get my bayonet out to be sure.'

HIGH PRICE OF HAY.—The shortness of the Hay crop has led to unparalleled prices for this season of the year. In many places in this State & in New England, Hay is selling at $20 per ton. In Syracuse the price ranges between $12 and $14. This is more than it ever brought here before in the summer, and is more than it will bring next Spring. It becomes the farmers to save every article of their coarse fodder. Cattle may be purchased very low, in the dry districts, and will fetch liberal prices next year.—Syracuse Jour.

THE eastern man is always noted for his shrewdness; of course he begins early to attain this; how young he takes his lessons we cannot say, but we mus mention one or two instances. A boy about eight years old went into a shop here to buy a penknife; he selected one. "How much?" "Twelve cents," said the shopman. "Well," said the boy laying down a shilling piece, "there is twelve and a half cents. I'll take the knife, and you may give me the half cent in fish-hooks" The storekeeper accordingly gave the boy the knife and one fish-hook for the half cent, with the remark, "that he would do."

☞ Keep it before the People, That Pierce and King are the choice of England for President and Vice President of the United States. That the British Press and People take a lively interest in the result of the Election. The REASON for their preference for Peirce over Scott is that the former is in favor of the BRITISH, and the latter of an AMERICAN Tariff!

STILL THEY COME.—Governor Robert Lucas, formerly of Ohio, and for many years of Iowa, has come out for Scott and Graham.—No one in Ohio will dispute Lucas's Democracy. And there are hundreds of Democrats in Iowa who have come out in the same way.—Cincinnati Gazette.

A QUEER ENDORSEMENT.—The Wilkes-Barre Farmer, one of the Locofoco organs of the Luzerne Democracy, rejoices over the nomination of Mr. Hopkins for Canal Commissioner, because, as he states, it is better than it expected from the antecedents of the body who nominated him!"

☞ Gen. Houston, at Winchester, assailed Gen. Scott for the armistice after the battle of Churubusco. Gen. Pierce was one of the Commissioners who made that armistice—and entirely approved it. In a private letter, speaking of it, he said: 'The army was wisely and humanely restrained.'

ANOTHER SCIENTIFIC WONDER—IMPORTANT TO DYSPEPTICS.—Dr. J. S. Houghton's Pepsin, the true Digestive Fluid or Gastric Juice, prepared from Rennet or the fourth stomach of the Ox, after directions of Baron Liebig, the great physiological Chemist, by J. S. Houghton, M. D. Philadelphia. This is truly a wonderful remedy for Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Jaundice, Liver Complaint, Constipation and Debility, curing after Nature's own agent, the Gastric Juice. Pamphlets, containing Scientific evidence of its value, furnished by agents gratis.—See notice among the medical advertisements.

For sale by ABEL TURRELL, Druggist &c. Montrose, Pa.

DR. HOOFLAND'S German Bitters, prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson, are justly reckoned amongst our most valuable medicines. In cases of dyspepsia, it acts like magic, strengthening the tone of the stomach, stimulating the digestive powers, and giving ruddy health to the cheek and brightness to the eye. There are thousands in this community who can testify to their virtues, and thousands will hereafter add their testimony.

Deaths.

At Auburn, Susquehanna county, Pa. on Thursday Sept. 9, 1852, NATHAN OSBORN, aged 52 years.

His death was occasioned by having been thrown from his wagon about two months since, the wheels passing over his body and crushing him in a frightful manner. His death will be severely felt by his afflicted family, as well as the neighborhood in which he lived; and the Masonic Fraternity, Lodge No. 263, at Skinner's Eddy, of which he was an efficient officer and worthy member, mourn his untimely end, and deeply sympathize with his bereaved family and friends, admonishing all to mark well his ways, and copy his many virtues, that in due time they may become members of that "Grand Lodge above where the Supreme Architect of the Universe presides."
