Dr. HOOFLAND's German Bitters, prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson, are justly reckoned amongst our most valuable medicines. In cases of dyspepsia, it acts like magic, strengthening the tone of the stomach, stimulating the digestive powers, and giving ruddy health to the cheek and brightness to the eye. There are thousands in this community who can testify to their virtues, and thousands will hereafter add their testimony.

SEWING MACHINE,

This machine will do the work of twelve journeymen Tailors per day, will sew all kinds of seams, do it stronger than hand sewing, every stitch being precisely the same length, all kinds of curved work, seam stiching, quilting, and in fact all the work of the Tailor except cutting and pressing off. Other Sewing Machines have been invented and are in use, which can compete with it in no respect. With this machine we propose to do work as durably, and at lower prices than any other establishment. In all the social virtues ... adorn the human character. Some of them still linger among you, honored and respected; but most of them have gone to their final rest, leaving worthy descendants to fill their places and tread in their footsteps. A GOOD article of Western Flour, Strictly Codfish, Mackerel in ... and extinction Fish, for sale by ... celebrated eastern ... are too extraordinary to escape our notice. I have already adverted to the past, and present condition of Palestine, where barbarian rule, for centuries, has driven "the plough-share of ruin," over its beautiful surface. This enchanting spot where the advent of our Saviour took place, and to which the christian clings with the fondest remembrances, has relapsed into a state of unmitigated barbarism. And the sacred places trod and consecrated by Christ, are invaded by the scoffing infidel! agriculture, its former source of wealth and power, is reduced to the lowest stage of casual attention. The soil has lost none of its ancient virtues, but its careful cultivators have disappeared, amidst the convulsions which have successively overwhelmed it.

Fire! Fire! ... storm. What ... the subscribers ... inhabitants ... crowded, and overwhelmed ... eastern world? It was agriculture. And I might sum up, and demonstrate, with singular mathematical precision, the exact influence, which the cultivation of the soil has exerted, upon every civilized nation, since the first march of time began. I dismiss with regret a subject which has so much occupied my thoughts, and stimulated my quiet investigation.—Nothing is so well calculated to establish us, in the way of well-doing, as a glimpse at the enlightened history of the past, where we find multitudes of men, governed by the same impulses, and cherishing the same hopes and aspirations, pursuing the path of industry, which is spread out to us. The dark ages—that black curtain of night, which, after the period adverted to, overspread, and overwhelmed every vestige of ancient civilization, submerged in its universal wreck, the hopes of agriculture. So dense was the cloud, and so destructive were its contents, that
