SEDITIOUS POULTRY.—Ferdinand IX, of Naples, has caused all the chickens and turkies fattening for christmas, which have tri-colored feathers, to be seized and slaughtered!

FANNY FERN.—This vivacous, witty and satirical writer is said to be a sister of N. P. Willis.

CHILDHOOD.—"Don't touch that dog, he'll bite you."

"Why will he bite me?"

"Because he don't know you."

"Oh! if that's all, I'll tell him I'm Henry."

☞ George the First, and his successor, George the Second, could never learn to speak English; and neither of them ever felt himself at home in England. They were always going over to Hanover, where they found themselves lords and masters, while in England, though they had been raised so much higher, their dignity never sat easy upon them. George the Second laid great stress on the minutest trifles, insisting on wearing his shirts in the order in which they were numbered, and flying into a violent passion if they brought him the wrong number.—"Why am I to wear No. 16, when I have not had No. 15? Why am I to do nothing that I like? Am I king of England or am I not? That is what I want to know." And then he would fall to kicking his hat about the room, to vent his anger, and ratting any of the ministers that came in, in his outlandish jargon:—Once he was going to kick the Duke of Argyll, who laid his hand upon his sword, and withdrew in high dudgeon. Meeting Sir Robert Walpole on the staircase, he complained of what had happened to which the other replid, "Oh! that's nothing to he treated me so a hundred times.

THE STUFF FOR TROWSERS.—Sam Slick, in his Traits of American Humor relates the following story:—"When I lived in Maine," said Uncle Ezra, "I helped to break up a new piece of ground. We got the wood off in winter, and early in the spring begun on't. It was so consarned rocky that we had to get forty yoke of oxen to one plow, we did faith; and I held that plow most a week. I thought I should die. It e'en a most killed me, I vow. Why one day I was hold'n and the plow hit a stump which measured just nine feet and a half through its hard and sound white oak. The plow split it, and was going strait through it, when I happened to think it might snap together again, so I threw my feet out, and had no sooner done this than it snapped together, taking a smart hold of the seat of the pantaloons. Of course I was tight, but I held on to the handles; and, though the teamsters did all they could, that team of eighty oxen could not tear my pantaloons, nor cause me to let go my grip. At last, though, after letting the cattle breathe, they gave another strong pull altogether, and the old stump came out about the quickest, It had monstrous long roots, too, let me tell you. My wife made the cloth for them pantaloons, and I haven't worn any other kind since."

"THE WEAKER BRETHREN!"—A Democratic paper, published in Tazewell county, Va., gives forth in the following note of woe. The Whig cause is gaining ground in all that fine region of the State.

Unless the Democrats turn out in full force on the day of election, and unless they use every effort to keep up the weaker brethren to the sticking point, we should not yet be surprised to have to chronicle the success of Gen. Scott and the failure of Pierce. To the Democrats, then, we would say: To the mark, gentlemen, and stand up to the rack, fodder or no fodder. We have not so much fodder, perhaps, as you think.—South-Western Advocate.

Locofoco Villification:—The malignant assaults now being made upon Gen. Scott, by the Locofocos, are like those made in 1841 by them upon the lamented Clay, when they published such stuff as the following: "If you should go to Ashland any Sunday you would find him at the card table, the money up, and the brandy bottle handy."

We have never assailed General Pierce's personal habits, but we should like to know what makes the person of Frank Pierce so much more sacred in our neighbor's eyes in 1852 than that of Mr. Clay was in 1844.

☞ The Democratic papers are very much in the habit of calling Gen. Scott "a humbug." We would thank some of them to inform us when and where it was that he proved himself a humbug. Was it at Queenstown? Or at Lundy's Lane? Or at Vera Cruz? Or at Cerro Gordo? Or at Churubusco? Or at Chapultepec? Or at the South Carolina nullificat on? Or in the north eastern boundary negotiation? Or in the removal of the Cherokees?

A humbug is defined to be an impostor or deceiver. Whom did Gen. Scott ever deceive, except his country's enemies that thought they would conquer him?

General Scott's political enemies are now humbugged. But it isn't he that humbugs them. They humbug themselves and each other.—Louisville Jour.

THE LAST DOG STORY.—The Providence Advertiser is responsible for the following:—"A day or two since a pointer dog was trotting along one of our principal streets, when he chanced to espy a leather case upon the sidewalk. The sagacious animal picked up the article, and straightway started off at a brisk pace, apparently in pursuit of its owner. About this time Dr. McKnight, one of the most skilful homœpathic physicians in the city, happened to be seated in his carriage, directly in front of the What Cheer building. Suddenly, the aforesaid dog unceremoniously jumped into the carriage, and deposited his prize at the doctor's feet.—On examination, it was discovered that the case contained a variety of homœpathic medicines. What renders the affair above related somewhat mysterious, is the fact that the dog who is the hero of the tale, was a perfect stranger to Dr. McKnight.

THE EMPIRE STATE.—A citizen of Western New York writes from the city of New York on Monday in the following cheering terms:

"I have been in this city during the past week, and mingled with the Whigs here a good deal, and have also met quite a number from the interior and western portions of the State, and they all unite in saying that Scott will carry the state by from ten to twenty thousand. The party is thoroughly organized, and is moving with perfect and entire harmony to certain success on both the State and National tickets.

Fever and dull pain in the Head, Deficiency of Perspiration, Yellowness of the Skin and Eyes, Pain in the side, Back, Chest, Limbs, &c., sudden flushes of heat, burning in the flesh, constant imaginings of evil, and great depression of spirits, can be effectually cured by

CELEBRATED GERMAN BITTERS, PREPARED BY
Dr. C. M. Jackson,
At the German Medicine Store, 120 Arch Street Philadelphia.

Their power over the above diseases is not excelled, if equalled, by any other preparation in the United States, as the cures attest, in many cases after skilful physicians had failed.

These Bitters are worthy the attention of invalids. Possessing great virtues in the rectification of disease of the liver and lesser glands, exercising the most searching powers in weakness and affections of the digestive organs, they are without safe certain and pleasant.

Read and be convinced.

From the Boston Bee.

The editor said, Dec. 22nd

Dr. Hoofland's Celebrated German Bitters for the cure of Liver Complaint, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Chronic or Nervous Debility, is deservedly one of the most popular medicines of the day. These Bitters have been used by thousands, and a friend at our elbow says he has himself received an effectual and permanent cure of Liver Complaint from the use of this remedy. We are convinced that in the use of these Bitters, the patient constantly gains strength and vigor—a fact worthy of great consideration. They are pleasant in taste and smell, and can be used by persons with the most delicate stomachs with safety, under any circumstances. We are speaking from experience and to the afflicted we advise their use.

"Scott's Weekly," one of the best Literary papers published, said, Aug. 25—

"Dr. Hoofland's German Bitters, manufactured by Dr. Jackson are now recommended by some of the most prominent members of the faculty as an article of much efficacy in cases of female weakness. As such is the case, we would advise all mothers to obtain a bottle, and thus save themselves much sickness. Persons of debilitated constitutions will find these Bitters advantageous to their health, as we know from experience the salutary effect they have upon weak systems."

More Evidence.

The Hon. C. D. Hineline, Mayor of the City of Camden, N. J. says:

"HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS.—We have seen many flattering notices of this medicine, and the source from which they came induced us to make inquiry respecting its merits. From inquiry we were persuaded to use it, and must say found it specific in its action upon diseases of the liver and digestive organs, and the powerful influence it exerts upon nervous prostration is really surprising. It calms and strengthens the nerves, bringing them into a state of repose, making sleep refreshing.

If this medicine was more generally used, we are satisfied there would be less sickness, as from the stomach, liver, and nervous system the great majority of real and imaginary diseases emanate. Have them in a healthy condition, and you can bid defiance to epidemics generally. This extraordinary medicine we would advise our friends who are at all indisposed, to give a fair trial—it will recommend itself. It should, in fact, be in every family. No other medicine can produce such evidences of merit.

Evidence upon evidence has been received (like the foregoing) from all sections of the Union, the last three years, and the strongest testimony in its favor is, that there is more of it used in the practice of the regular physicians of Philadelphia, than all other nostrums combined, a fact that can easily be established, and fully proving that a scientific preparation will meet with their quiet approval when presented even in this form.

That this medicine will cure Liver Complaint and Dyspepsia, no one can doubt after using it as directed. It acts specifically upon the stomach and liver, it is preferable to calomel in all bilious diseases—the effect is immediate. They can be administered to females of infant with safety and visible benefit at any time.

Look well to the marks of the genuine.

They have the written signature of C. M. JACKSON upon the wrapper, and his name blown in the bottle, without which they are spurious.

To Dairymen & Farmers.

VALUABLE PROPERTY FOR SALE!

A FARM of 200 acres, situate in Bridgewater township, Susquehanna county, and state of Pennsylvania, 150 acres of which are under good improvement.

The farm is well designed for a dairy, and is capable of feeding 40 cows during summer and winter, and every part of it is well watered. The buildings and land are in good condition, and the fences which are of stone and rails, are also good.—There are two large barns upon the premises, besides a granary and convenient sheds for cattle.—Three orchards principally of grafted fruit and other fruit trees.

Said farm has a very pleasant and desirable location about two miles from Montrose, the County seat of Susquehanna county, and about nine miles from the Leggett's Gap Railroad, to which there is a Plank Road in process of completion, and is very convenient to meetings, schools and mechanics.

Also, another valuable farm adjoining the above containing 200 acres, of which 150 are under a high state of cultivation. Upon it there is a large frame dwelling house with outbuildings to correspond and a large orchard. It is well watered and fenced and admirably adapted to dairy purposes.

Said property will be sold on reasonable terms and a portion of the purchase money may remain on bond and mortgage to suit the purchaser.

Application may be made personally or by letter to Hon. Wm. Jessup or R. J. Niven at Montrose, in said county, and any further particulars that may be required will be given. 27tf

Another Scientific Wonder!

GREAT CURE FOR DYSPEPSIA!

DR. J. S. HOUGHTON'S

THE TRUE

DIGESTIVE FLUID,

OR, GASTRIC JUICE.

Prepared from RENNET, or the fourth STOMACH OF THE OX, after directions of BARON LIEBIG, the great Physiological Chemist, by J. S. HOUGHTON, M. D. Philadelphia, Pa.

This a truly wonderful remedy for INDIGESTION, DYSPEPSIA, JAUNDICE, LIVER COMPLAINT, CONSTIPATION, and DEBILITY, Curing after Nature's own method, by Nature's own Agent, the Gastric Juice.

☞ Half a teaspoonful of Pepsin, infused in water, will digest or dissolve Five pounds of Roast Beef in about two hours, out of the stomach.

Pepsin is the chief element, or Great Digesting Principle of the Gastric Juice—the Solvent of the Food, the Purifying, Preserving, and Stimulating agent of the Stomach and Intestines. It is extracted from the Digestive Stomach of the Ox, thus forming an artificial digestive fluid, precisely like the natural Gastric Juice in its Chemical powers, and furnishing a complete and perfect substitute for it. By the aid of this preparation, the pains and evils of Indigestion and Dyspepsia are removed, just as they would be by a healthy Stomach. It is doing wonders for Dyspeptics, curing case of Debility, Emaciation, Nervous Decline, and Dyspeptic Consumption, supposed to be on the verge to the grave. The Scientific Evidence upon which t is based, is in the highest degree curious, and remarkable.

Scientific Evidence.

BARON LIEBIG in his celebrated work on Animal Chemistry, says: "An Artificial Digestive Fluid, analogous to the Gastric Juice, may be readily prepared from the mucous membrane of the stomach of the Calf, in which various articles of food, as meat and eggs, will be softened, changed and digested, just in the same manner as they would be in the human stomach."

☞ Call on the agent and get a descriptive Circular, gratis, giving a large amount of scientific evidence similar to the above, together with reports of remarkable cures, from all parts of the United States.

As a Dyspepsia Curer

Dr. Houghton's Pepsin has produced the most marvellous effects, in curing cases of Debility, Emaciation, Nervous Decline, and Dyspeptic Consumption. It is impossible to give the details of cases in the limits of this advertisement, but authenticated certificates have been given of more than two hundred remarkable cures in Philadelphia, New York and Boston alone. These were nearly all desperate cases, and the cures were not only rapid and wonderful, but permanent.

It is a great Nervous Antidote, and particularly useful for tendency to bilious disorder, liver complaint, fever and ague, and the evil effects of quinine, mercury, and other drugs upon the Digestive Organs, after a long sickness. Also for excess in eating, and the too free use of ardent spirits. It also reconciles Health with Intemperance.

Dr. Houghton's Pepsin is prepared in powder and fluid form—and in prescription vials for the use of physicians.

Private Circulars for the use of Physicians may be obtained of Dr. Houghton or his agents, describing the whole process of preparation, and giving the authorities upon which the claims of this new remedy are based. As it is not a secret remedy, no objection can be raised against its use by physicians in respectable standing and regular practice. Price, ONE DOLLAR per bottle.

☞ OBSERVE THIS.—Every bottle of the genuine Pepsin bears the written signature of J. S. HOUGHTON, M. D., sole proprietor, Philadelphia, Pa. Copy-right and trade-mark secured.
