☞ The other day a lady fell off the Brooklyn boat into the East river. An Irishman sprang over and rescued her. When she was safe on deck again, her husband, who had been a calm spectator of the scene, thanked the brave fellow a shilling. Upon some of the bystanders expressing indignation, Pat said as he pocketed the coin—

"Arrah don't blame the gintleman, he knows best; maybe if I hadn't saved her, he'd have given me a dollar."

☞ An Irishman, who was near exhausted, being about to fight a duel, insisted that he should stand in spaces, nearer his antagonist than the other did to him, and they were so fire at the same time.

☞ Dr. A. D. Gillespie of Auburn, mentions a student who devoted himself so closely to the study of the Oriental languages, as entirely to forget his own!

☞ A Temperance Journal, with peculiar recommendations, is about to be established in Circleville, Ohio. The editor in his prospectus, says:—Our terms are two dollars a year.—Gentlemen who pay in advance will receive a first rate obituary notice in case of death.

SWEET POTATOE WAFFLES.—Two table-spoonful of mashed potato, one of butter, one of sugar, one pint of milk, four table-spoonful of wheat flour. Mix these ingredients well together, and bake in a waffle-iron.

ANOTHER SCIENTIFIC WONDER—IMPORTANT TO DYSPEPTICS.—Dr. J. S. Houghton's Pepsin the True Digestive Fluid or Gastric Juice, prepared from Rennet or the fourth stomach of the Ox, after directions of Baron Liebig, the great physiological Chemist, by J. S. Houghton, M.D., Philadelphia. This is truly a wonderful remedy for Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Jaundice, Liver Complaint, Constipation and Debility, curing after Nature' own agent, the Gastric Juice. Pamphlets containing Scientific evidence of its value, furnished by agents gratis.—See notice among the medical advertisements.

For sale by ABEL TURRELL, Druggist &c. Montrose, Pa.

☞ The best evidence that can be adduced in favor of the efficaciousness of Hoofland's German Bitters, prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson is the unprecedented demand for them from all parts of the Union; and although there may be many compounds prepared and represented as being worthy of a liberal patronage, yet we feel constrained to remark, that the vast number of testimonials with which the worthy doctor has been honored, by persons of the highest character and respectability, who found it necessary to have recourse to his preparation, is testimony sufficiently conclusive, that a more effectual remedy for the almost immediate relief of those afflicted with that direful malady, dyspepsia, has never been discovered.

Marriages.

In McClure Settlement, Nov. 8, 1852, by Rev. R. S. Rose, Dr. E. N. Smith, of Lanesboro, Susquehanna co., Pa., and Miss. Frances C. Sheldan, daughter of Calvin Sheldan, of McClure Settlement, Broome Co. N. Y.

Deaths.

In St. Louis on the morning of the 16th ult. of Cholera, ELLEN B. wife of James M. Ward, aged 28 years, formerly of New Milford, Susquehanna county, Penn'a.

The above announcement will sink deep into the hearts of the distant relatives and friends of the deceased. Mrs. W. in company with her husband, who is connected with the Pacific Railroad in this State, bid adieu to her home, relatives and friends only a few days since; then she was in the enjoyment of health, and buoyant in spirits. When almost in sight of our city, she was attacked with that fatal disease which has carried off so many of our citizens during the past three years, and sunk beneath the iron grasp of death. To the relatives of the deceased it may be some consolation to know that every attention which could be shown her was kindly bestowed by ladies of this city and those on the boat, and she was attended by our most skillful physicians; but their kindness and skill was of no avail—death had marked her for his own, and gently she sank to sleep, to wake no no more on earth. She left a child, which is too young to know its loss or a mother's love, and a kind and devoted husband, who deeply mourns her death.

Dearest sister, thou hast left us—
How thy loss we deeply feel;
But 'tis God that hath bereft us—
He can all our sorrows heal."

[St. Louis Republican.

Montrose, Nov. 11, 1852.

Fall & Winter Arrangements for 1852—3.
Union Hall, Wholesale & Retail
Clothing Warehouse,

Corner of Fulton and Nassau streets, New York.
(Established A. D. 1850.)

THIS immense establishment, which occupies three large six story buildings, contains six leading distinct departments, sub-divided into various minor branches, each having its separate corps of salesmen. These departments are distributed over six floors, and the system upon which they are conducted ensures prompt and satisfactory attention to the wants and wishes of every purchaser. The stock of Ready Made Clothing is the most comprehensive, varied, and fashionable in the United States, and the apparel made to measure cannot be surpassed in style, workmanship or material, by any house in New York, while as regards cheapness, in every department, comparison is invited, and competition defied.

Organization of the Establishment.

The entire system of the concern is under the general superintendance of Mr. J. Souder, whose long experience and thorough knowledge of the various branches qualify him admirably for the situation of manager. The first floors are devoted wholly to the Retail business, and are stocked with an unsurpassed assortment of Fashionable & seasonable clothing for gentlemen and boys. S. H. Noe, Director of the gent's department. The boy's department comprises a complete assortment of the most tasteful and elegantly cut suits for boys ever offered in this city.—W. K. Taylor, superintendant. The second floor is the Custom Department, where all styles of fashionable and serviceable goods are kept, and gentlemen's and boy's clothing made to measure by the best artists.—None but Cutters of the very first class are employed. Managers—James T. Barry and William Helon. The third and fourth floors are appropriated to the wholesale branch. Buyers will here have an opportunity of selecting from a stock, the extent and variety, the beauty and cheapness of which must be seen to be appreciated. This department is under the direction of A. Phillips, with several assistants. The fifth and sixth floors form the manufacturing portion of the establishment—superintendent, J. C. Parr. Purchaser of Trimmings, Fancy Goods, &c. T. Scoles.—P. L. Rogers purchaser of Cloths, Cassimeres, Vestings, &c.

☞ No advertisement can convey an adequate idea of the vast business done at Union Hall; of its extensive stock; its order and regularity, and the cheap prices which laid the foundation of its popularity, and continue to sustain and increase it. The Proprietor, under whose own eye the whole system works so satisfactorily, respectfully invites buyers and the public generally, to come and see for themselves.

P. L. ROGERS, Proprietor.
J. SOUDER, Superintendent.

Best Furnace in the World.

We have more than twenty-five hundred references, many of whom are professional gentlemen, whose scientific attainments in such matters are well known. To attain this desirable object, the inventor of the Furnace first abandoned the manufacture of the common cast iron air furnaces seven years ago, under the settled conviction that red-producing, as unhealthy, combustion of the air, odor, unfit to be inhaled by human beings, besides the constant cracking and burning out of the pots, which permits the poisonous gases to escape and mingle with the air, and then the annoyance and expense of repairs, new pots &c. He now has the satisfaction of knowing that his efforts to secure a HEALTHY, ECONOMICAL AND DURABLE APPARATUS, for warming and ventilating buildings, has been entirely successful. That it possess the following advantages, many of which are peculiar to itself, economical plan for burning anthracite, bituminous coals or wood, all equally well—flues, easily cleaned out—great durability of furnace, not liable to repairs for a life time—perfect safety against setting buildings on fire in which they are located; may be set in low cellars.
