Montrose, Nov. 11, 1852.

Fall & Winter Arrangements for 1852—3.

Union Hall Wholesale & Retail

Clothing Warehouse,

Corner of Fulton and Nassau streets, New York.

(Established A. D. 1850.)

THIS immense establishment, which occupies three large six story buildings, contains six leading distinct departments, sub-divided into various minor branches, each having its separate corps of salesmen. These departments are distributed over six floors, and the system upon which they are conducted insures prompt and satisfactory attention to the wants and wishes of every purchaser. The stock of Ready Made Clothing is the most comprehensive, varied, and fashionable in the United States, and the apparel made to measure cannot be surpassed in style, workmanship or material, by any house in New York; while as regards cheapness, in every department, comparison is invited, and competition defied.

Organization of the Establishment.

The entire system of the concern is under the general superintendance of Mr. J. Souder, whose long experience and thorough knowledge of the various branches qualify him admirably for the situation of manager. The first floors are devoted wholly to the Retail business, and are stocked with an unsurpassed assortment of Fashionable & seasonable clothing for gentlemen and boys. S. H. Noe, Director of the cutt's department. The boy's department comprises a complete assortment of the most tasteful and elegantly cut suits for boys ever offered in this city—W. K. Taylor, superintendant. The second floor is the Custom Department, where all styles of fashionable and serviceable goods are kept, and gentlemen's and boy's Clothing made to measure by the best artists.—None but Cutters of the very first class are employed. Managers—James T. Barry and William Helog. The third and fourth floors are appropriated to the wholesale branch. Buyers will here have an opportunity of selecting from a stock, the extent and variety, the beauty and cheapness of which must be seen to be appreciated. This department is under the direction of A. Phillips, with several assistants. The fifth and sixth floors form the manufacturing portion of the establishment—superintendent, J. C. Parr. Purchaser of Trimmings, Fancy Goods, &c. T. Scoles.—P. L. Rogers purchaser of Cloths, Cassimeres, Vestings, &c.

☞ No advertisement can convey an adequate idea of the vast business done at Union Hall; of its extensive stock; its order and regularity, and the cheap prices which laid the foundation of its popularity, and continue to sustain and increase it. The Proprietor, under whose own eye the whole system works so satisfactorily, respectfully invites buyers and the public generally, to come and see for themselves.

P. L. ROGERS, Proprietor.
J. SOUDER, Superintendent.
