Illiteracy in England.

The following statement of the extraordinary degree of ignorance prevailing in England is made in Dickens' "Household Words." It is observed that it might well challenge belief were it not flounded on official and authentic sources:

"It has been calculated that there are in England and Wales 6,000,000 persons who can neither read nor write—that is to say, about one-third of the population, including of course infants; but of all the children between five and fourteen, more than one-half attend no place of public instruction. These statements—compiled by Mr. Kay from official and other authentic sources, for his work on the social condition and education of the poor in England and Europe—would be hard to believe if we had not to encounter in our every-day life degrees of illiteracy which would be startling if we were not thoroughly used to it. Wherever we turn, ignorance, not always allied to poverty, stares us in the face. If we look in the Gazette, at the list of partnerships dissolved, not a month passes but some unhappy man, rolling perhaps in wealth, but wallowing in ignorance, is put to the experimentum crucis of his mark.' The number of petty jurors, in rural districts especially, who can only sign with a cross is enormous. It is not unusual to see parish documents of great legal importance defaced with the same humiliating symbol by persons whose office not only shows them to be 'men of mark,' but men of substance. We have printed already specimens of the partial ignorance which passes under the pen of the post office authorities, and we may venture to assert that such specimens of penmanship and orthography are not to be matched in any other country in Europe. A housewife in humble life need only turn to the file of her husband's bills to discover hieroglyphics which render them so many arithmetical puzzles. In short, the practical evidence of the low ebb to which the plainest rudiments of education in this country has fallen are too common to bear repetition. We cannot pass through the streets, we cannot enter a place of public assembly, or ramble in the fields, without the gloomy shadow of ignorance sweeping over us. The rural population is indeed in a worse plight than the other classes."

☞ The Pittston Gazette suggests the nomination by the Whigs, of Hon. William Jessup, for the vacant seat on the Supreme Bench, caused by the death of Judge Gibson. We supported Judge Jessup for that station through one campaign; and we would have been happy, indeed, if our efforts had proved successful—but it was otherwise. However, we should be glad to see him again before the people, in that capacity—but we would rather see him a candidate independent of party. No better man, or abler judge, can be found within the limits of our State.—Scranton Herald.

Hon. Henry M. Fuller.—The Butler Whig in noticing the name of this gentlemen as spoken of for Governor says, Mr. Fuller is a gentlemen of eminent ability and unrivalled eloquence, and on the stump would prove more than a match for any candidate our opponents could present. Although quite a young man, he has served with distinction in the Legislature of this State and the Congress of the United States, having been elected in districts which gave immense majorities to the opposition. We think the party cannot do better than to nominate Mr. Fuller.

The Medical Society

Of Susquehanna county will meet in New Milford on Wednesday the first day of June next, at ten o'clock A. M. All the regular practitioners of medicine are cordially invited to attend.

G. Z. DIMOCK, Secy.

"I Digest!" such is the true meaning of the word "Pepsin," or of the two Greek words from which it is derived. This is the significant and appropriate title of the true Digestive fluid or Gastric Juice, prepared by Dr. J. S. Houghton of Philadelphia, from the fourth stomach of the Ox, for the cure of Indigestion and Dyspepsia. It is nature's own remedy for an unhealthy stomach. No art of man can equal its curative powers. It renders Good Eating perfectly consistent with health. See the figure of the ox in another part of this paper.

Deaths.

In Windsor, (formerly Oquaga,) Broome county, N. Y., on Saturday morning, February 19th, 1853, Mr. William H. Myers, of inflamation of the lungs, aged 39 years and 15 days.

Also, in the same place, on Sunday morning, April 17th, of paralysis, Lucy Myers, consort of the late William Myers, and daughter of Colonel John Franklin, deceased, aged 66 years and one month.

In Dix, Chemung county, N. Y., on the 8th instant, aged 21 years, Mrs. Loranda C., wife of Mr. Lyman C. Hill, and daughter of Enock and Abigail Wood, formerly of Bridgewater, this county. She was married about two years since, and was beloved not only by her husband and immediate relatives, but by all of her acquaintances. They mourn her early decease deeply, and yet feel assured that their loss is her unspeakable gain. She died a highly esteemed member of the Baptist church. She rests with Christ. Blessed rest!—"Why should we mourn?" Com.

In Nichols, Tioga county, N. Y., on the 10th ult. Mr. Reuben M. Stebbins, aged 23 years. He was formerly a resident of this place, and a consistent member of the Baptist church. He died of Consumption, in the peace and resignation of the Christian faith.

"Dear brother, thou art gone to rest:
Thine is an early tomb,
But Jesus summoned thee away,
Thy Savior called thee home.
Brother, thou art gone to rest,
And this shall be our prayer,
That when we reach our journey's end
Thy glory we may share." Com.

New Drug and Grocery Store.

DOCTOR E. PATRICK

Would respectfully inform his numerous old and well-tried friends both in and out of the Profession, and the public in general that he has just embarked in the above named business, and has now on hand, and is still receiving a full and well chosen assortment of every thing in the line of Drugs, Medicines, Groceries, Dyes, Paints, &c. &c., all of which he will sell for Cash or Barter upon the Cheapest and most advantageous terms to the purchaser. In reference to his Drugs and Medicines, he would simply state, that they were selected by himself from the establishment of P. Shiffelin Haines & Co. one of the most reliable in the City of New York—and for purity and excellence he believes were never excelled, if equaled by any stock ever before brought into Susquehanna County. His Stock of Groceries is full and well bought, and consequently can be sold cheap. He has also a few Choice Liquors for medicinal purposes, which he can afford as low as a more inferior article has generally been bought for. Please call before purchasing elsewhere, at the old stand of Pitts & Warner, in the building formerly known as the "Farmers Store," opposite the "Democrat office."

World's Fair PREMIUM SAFES.

MORE PROOF OF THEIR SUPERIORITY.

LATE FIRE IN JERSEY CITY.

MR. SILAS C. HERRING—Sir: It gives us great pleasure to state that a Safe of your make was the means of preserving our books and valuable papers, together with a lot of Silver Spoons, Forks, &c., from destruction by the fire that occurred in our store on the night of the 27th ult. at No. 45 Montgomery st. The fire commenced near the Safe, which, owing to its situation on a wall, did not fall into the cellar, but was exposed to the full heat of the fire from its commencement, and when taken from the ruins had all the brass plates and knobs completely melted off.

Yours, R. H. Earle & Co.

Jersey City, Feb. 3, 1853.

Great Fire in Strawberry st.—Letter from Lewis & Co.

Philadelphia, March 29, 1852.

Mr. John Farrell—Sir: It affords me much satisfaction to inform you that the "Herring Salamander Safe," which we purchased of you a short time since, preserved our books and papers in good condition, during the severe ordeal through which they passed at the disastrous conflagration that took place at our warehouse on the morning of the 28th instant, when the safe was exposed to the most intense heat for some hours, and when taken from the flames was red hot on several sides. We make this statement by way of bearing testimony to the worth of these valuable Fire Proofs.

Very respectfully, Lewis & Co.

The proprietor of the genuine "Herring Salamander Safes" challenges the whole world, in the sum of one thousand dollars, to produce their equal. Awarded the PRIZE MEDAL at the World's Fair, London, and the Gold Medal by the American Institute. Over 8000 of these Safes have been sold and are now in use, and more than 100 have passed triumphantly through accidental fires.

Second-hand Safes and "Salamanders" of other makers, having been taken in part for "Herrings," for sale at cheap rates. JOHN FARREL.

34 Walnut street, Philadelphia.

☞ Marbleized Iron Mantles, Table Tops, &c. from the works of the celebrated "Salamander Marble Company," on hand in great variety. 8m3

Proclamation.

HEAR YE! HEAR YE!!

WHEREAS C. D. Lathrop & S. A. Woodruff have formed a co-partnership, under the name and firm of C. D. Lathrop & Co., as dealers in and whereas it is desirable that the same should be made known to the public, for the public good as well as our own;—

STOVES, TIN WARE, &C.;

Notice is therefore hereby given to the good people of Montrose and the region round about, that we may still be found laboring at our vocation, at the old stand on Main Street, where we shall be happy to see our friends, and to supply their wants to the best of our ability. C. D. LATHROP.

A WORD TO EVERYBODY.

Attend! ye dwellers 'neath the sun!
Behold the wonders Art hath done!
We talk by lightning, ride by steam,
And paint by Sol's eternal beam!

BUT without stopping to enumerate the many benefits derived from the "wire" and "track," we would call your attention to the advantage of procuring one or more of those beautiful which are taken at the Odd Fellow's Hall, by the aid of "heaven's own sunlight" and W. B. Deans, the Artist.

Dagurreotype Portraits,

He has just returned from the City, not like the Doctor, with his "head full of knowledge," but with a new and interesting supply of plates and cases, gold and plated lockets, pins, keys, &c.

Among his latest styles of cases are the Madame Suntag, Turtle Shell, and Ladies' Own—the most splendid and attractive patterns ever offered to the public. Come and see! Admission free.

Montrose, Dec. 7th, 1852. W. B. Deans.

LOOK AT THIS.

(If a party concerned.)

THE unsettled accounts, notes &c., of the late firm of S. H. Sayre & Co. are now in the hands of Benj. Sayre for settlement. Necessity compels him to ask immediate attention to them, as well as those of his own. If not very soon settled, they will be put into the hands of some one for legal prosecution.

Jan. 25th, 1853. BENJ. SAYRE.

Timothy and Clover Seed.

WARRANTED the large kind of Clover, and the Timothy good and clean, for sale at Montrose Depot, by J. B. SALISBURY.
