"I Digest" such is the true meaning of the word "Pepsin," or of the two Greek words from which it is derived. This is the significant and appropriate title of the true Digestive fluid or Gastric Juice, prepared by Dr. S. Hoofland of Philadelphia, from the fourth stomach of the Ox, for the cure of Indigestion and Dyspepsia. It is nature's own natural fluid to unhealthy stomachs. No art of man can equal its curative powers. It renders Good Eating perfectly consistent with health. See the figure of the Ox in another part of this paper.

LAST IN MARKET!

December 8, 1853.

BENTLEY & READ

HAVE the pleasure of announcing to their customers, and the public in general, that they are now opening a desirable stock of which, added to their present supply, renders their assortment full and complete; and they are now ready to sell at a very SMALL ADVANCE from city prices. We consider it entirely unnecessary to enumerate every article, satisfied, as we are, that if an opportunity is afforded, we can give convincing proofs, that our stock, in point of VARIETY, QUANTITY, QUALITY OF PRICE, is fully equal to any other stock of goods in this vicinity.

Winter Goods.

WANTED,

Wheat, Rye, Oats, Corn, Buckwheat, Flannel, Woolen Socks, Tallow, Lard, Dried Apples, &c. in exchange for Goods at the LOWEST CASH PRICES, and CASH not refused. BENTLEY & READ.

The Waverly Magazine.

A NEW VOLUME of this popular weekly paper will commence on the first of January next. This sheet has now taken rank with the first publications of the day. It is edited with great ability by John Ross Dix, Esq.—an author of much ability—and printed on beautiful white paper, and is issued weekly at the low rate of $2 a year in advance. It contains more than double the reading of common blowing papers; and the postage is only 26 cents in advance, paid at the office of delivery.

It is very important that all those who intend to take the next volume should send in their orders early in December, so as to secure the complete set. A volume is completed in six months' for only $1. If you try one volume which costs only $1, you will no doubt wish to continue.

The New Year, 1854.

ON the first of January next, "GLEASON'S PICTORIAL" will commence its Sixth Volume, and will appear vastly improved in all respects, with a superb new heading, new type and dress throughout, and will be printed upon the finest paper. As the proprietor of the Pictorial has purchased the entire good will of Barnum's New York "Illustrated News," and has merged that journal in the "Pictorial," the public will reap the advantage of this concentration of the strength of the two papers upon one, both in the artistic and literary departments. The same brilliant host of contributors and artists will be engaged on Gleason's Pictorial as heretofore, and a large addition is made to the corps, both in talent and number. The most liberal arrangements have been completed, and such as will enable the proprietor to produce by far the finest illustrated journal yet published, and much superior to the present issue of the paper. The columns of the "Pictorial" will constantly be beautified by all that can please and instruct in art and nature, and its literary department will fully sustain the high reputation it has so long enjoyed.

The pages of "Gleason's Pictorial" will contain views of every populous city in the known world, of all buildings of note in the eastern and western hemisphere, of all the principal ships and steamers of the navy and merchant service, with fine and accurate portraits of every noted character in the world, both male and female. Sketches of beautiful scenery, taken from life, will also be given, with numerous specimens from the animal kingdom, the birds of the air, and the fish of the sea, and will present in its mechanical execution an elegant specimen of art. It will contain fifteen hundred and sixty four square inches, giving a great amount of reading matter and illustrations, and forming a mammoth weekly paper of sixteen octavo pages.

PROSPECTUS FOR 1854.

The Saturday Evening Post,

Unrivalled Library of Talent.

THE Proprietor of the Post, in again coming before the public, would return thanks for the generous patronage which has placed the Star in advance of any other literary weekly in America. And as the past animates to renewed efforts, the plans and arrangements for 1854 have been made with a degree of liberality probably unequaled in the history of American newspaper literature. They have engaged as contributors for the ensuing year the following brilliant array of talent and genius:

Mrs. Southworth, Emerson Bennett, Mrs. Denison, Grace Greenwood and, Fanny Fern.

In the first paper of January next, we design commencing an original Novelet, written expressly for our columns, entitled The Bride of the Wilderness, by Emerson Bennett, author of "Viola," "Clara Moreland," "The Forged Will," etc. This Nouvelet, by the author of "Clara Moreland," we design following by another called The Step Mother, by Mrs. Mary A. Denison, author of "Home Pictures," "Gertrude Russel," etc. We have also the promise of a number of Sketches by Grace Greenwood, whose brilliant and versatile pen will be almost exclusively employed upon the Post and her own "Little Pilgrim." Mrs. Southworth, whose fascinating works are now being republished in England, also will maintain her old pleasant connection with the Post. The next story from her, gifted pen will be entitled, Miriam, the Avenger, or the Fatal Vow, by Emma D. E. N. Southworth, author of "The Curse of Clifton," "The Lost Heiress," "The Deserted Wife," etc. And last—not least—we are authorized to announce a series of articles from one who has rapidly risen very high in popular favor. They are entitled a New Series of Sketches, by Fanny Fern, author of "Fern Leaves," etc. We expect to commence the Sketches by Fanny Fern—as well as the series by Grace Greenwood—in the early numbers of the coming year.

Engravings, Foreign Correspondence, Agricultural Articles, the News, Congressional Reports, the Markets, etc., also shall be regularly given.

Poetry and Pictures.

"Lives of great men oft remind us
We can make our lives sublime,
And, departing, leave behind us
Some forlorn and way worn brother,
Seeing, can go and get some more just like them!"

The above was sent us by a friend, and, being right to the point, we give our readers the benefit of it, hoping that they will heed the wise suggestion and "go and get some more just like 'em."

Our stock of canes, lockets, keys, pins, &c., is varied and complete, and we are anxious to set them all with "natural" pictures, and get the PAY for so doing.

Our motto is, "good work and fair prices."
