Poetry and Pictures.

"Lives of great men oft remind us
We can make our lives sublime,
And, departing, leave behind us
Pictures which will last some time!

"Pictures which perhaps another,
Sailing o'er life's stormy main,
Some forlorn and wayworn brother,
Seeing, can go and get some more just like them!"

The above was sent us by a friend, and, being right to the point, we give our readers the benefit of it, hoping that they will heed the wise suggestion and "go and get some more just like 'em."

Our stock of cases, lockets, keys, pins, &c., is varied and complete, and we are anxious to set them all with "natural" pictures, and get the pay for so doing.

Our motto is, "good work and fair prices."

TO MY PATRONS.

AS my business frequently calls me to other places for several weeks at a time, for the benefit of those of my friends who live out of town particularly, who have often called and found me gone, I shall in future so arrange it as to be here without fail through each term of Court, at which time it will be my pleasure to attend to all business of my profession.

Many thanks, my friends, for past favors.
