

ductor was a middle-aged, harsh-looking man.

had no posts regularly fitted for the purpose; and they could suggest no better means for whom Lee had never seen before. securing them, than to place them under a ruard in a thickly settled part of the country, where the inhabitants were most decidedly he should undertake his dangerous enterprise, hostile to the English. The town of Lancas he should require of them to swear upon the ter, in Pennsylvania, was one of those select- Scriptures, not to make the least attempt to of them till they had resumed their place in | of the jug, and expressed their sentiments on the British army. Many and various were | the subject rather by action than words. In the British army. Many and various were the subject rather by action than words. In he, "that we are hop-ored with the company the conjectures as to the means of their es- this, they were joined by Lee, who by this of Captain Lee, of the rebel army. The rasrape; the officers inquired and investigated time had begun to contemplate the danger of cal once punished ine, and I never mistook in vain; the country was explored to pur-his enterprise in a new and unpleasant point my man when I had a debt of that k pose; the soldiers shook their heads, and told of view. If he were to be compelled to ac-pay. Now I shall have my revenge." of fortune tellers, pedlers, and such characters | company his party to New-York, his disguise F. The others hastened to express their diswould at once be detected, and it was certain who had been seen at intervals; and sundry. of the more credulous could think of nothing | that he would be hanged as a spy. He had but supernatural agency; but whether man or spirit was the conspirator, the mystery was unbroken. When this became known to Washington, he sent General Hazen to take this responsible charge. This energetic officer, after ex-] hausting all resources, resorted to stratagem. He was convinced that, as the nearest British post was more than a hundred miles distant. the prisoners must be aided by Americans, man can well bear to be driven to an emerbut where the suspicion should fall, he could gency, in which he must violate an oath, how- hand, upon, which the conductor, drawing a not exen conjecture, the reproach of Toryever reluctantly it was taken. He felt that ismi being almost unknown in that region .---there was no retreating, when there came a Having been trained to meet exigencies of heavy shock, as if something falling against this kind, in a distinguished career as colonel the sides of the house; their practised ear at his disguise was discovered, he would that once detected the alarm gun; and their conin the British army, his plan was formed at mee and he communicated it to an officer of ductor, throwing down the old Bible, which is soldier put his hand upon his kuife with an he had held all the while impatiently in his omisous spowl upon his conductor, but see his colors well; and thus of Goethe-'He successful execution. This was Captain Lee, hand, directed the party to follow him in close ing that he had to do with some one who was has a tolerable style, and he commits no fault whose courage and ability fully justified the order, and immediately quitted the house, selection. taking with him his dark lantern.

The secret plan concerted between them They went on with great despatch, but was this. It was to be given out that Lee not without difficulty. Sometimes their footwas absent on furlough or command. He, ing would give way on some sandy bank or meantime, was to assume the dress of a Brit- | slippery field ; and when their pathled through | ish prisoner, and, having provided himself the woods, the wet boughs dashed heavily in the manner of their conductor showed that with information and a story of ins capture, their faces, Lee felt he might have deserted there was more danger than before ; in fact, was to be thrown into the barracks, where he his precious companions while they were in he explained to the party, that they were might gain the confidence of the soldiers, and this hurry and alarm; but he felt, that, as now not far from the Delaware, and hoped join them in a plan of secape. How well, yet, he had made no discoveries ; and how- to reach it hefore midnight. They occasion-Captain Lee sustained his part may be infered and placed himself among the prisoners, carry it through. On he went, therefore, for ing on in the country. Thus warned, they day without the least suspicion. The person liculars was the Intendent of the prisoners, or gave a low whistle, which was answered waters even in the darkest night. They movto see him often in the discharge of his duty, ward in the darkness, who whispered to their rious emotions in their breasts; Lee was hophe never penetrated the disguise. Well it guide, and then led the way up to a building, ing for an opportunity to escape from an enwas for Lee that his disguise was so complete. which seemed by the shadowy outline, to be terprise which was growing too serious, and Had his associates suspected his purpose to a large stone barn. They entered it, and the principal objects of which were already

For many days he remained in this situation, making no discoveries whatever. He of intelligence between the prisoners, and an old woman, who was allowed to bring fruit for sale within the enclosure. She was known to be deaf and half-witted, and was therefore no object of suspicion. It was known that her son had been disgraced and punished in betray them, his history would have been em-braced in the proverb, "dead men tell no they could feel that the hay was all around accident might have happened to the boat on them, except on the side of the wall. Short- which they depended for crossing the stream. ly after, some provisions were brought to them with the same silence, and it was signithought he perceived, at different times, signs fied to them that they were to remain con- ductor stood still for a moment in dismay; cealed through the whole of the coming but, recollecting himself he said it was pos-Through the crevice in the wall Lee could the stream, and, forgetting every thing else, discover, as the day came on, that the barn he directed the larger soldier to accompany was attached to a small farm-house. He was him, and, giving a pistol to the other, he whisso near the house that he could overhear the period, "If the rebel officer attempts to bethe American army, but she had never be conversation which was carried on about the tray us, shoot him; if not, you will not, for drowned indiwidooals them's what I want from the old world continues with augmenteven more intense than that of making a lovsmall, mean-looking house, and solicited shel--I'm water logged. Bring us one of the lar- ing force. We learn from the books of the gest kind of smallers- a tumbler full of bran. Commissioners: of emigration, that the toter. He had yet several leagues to traverse er jealous or a rival envious. Sometimes, before reaching Vienna, and his strength indeed, crying becomes an evil, (a "crying confirm his suspicions. Her dwelling was surly replics, as if unwilling to be taken off knew him, and now doubts were changed to dy and water, without no water in it. I've tal number of aliens who arrived at this port would not enable him to continue any long-evil," of course,) like any other amusement er on the road. about a mile distant, in a wild retreat, where from his labor; but the other inmates of the certainty at once. Dark as it was, it seemno notion of being diddled out of the sweets from the 1st of January last to the 24th inst. she shared her miserable quarters with a dog house were eager in their questions, and, from ed as if fire flashed from his eye, now that he They received him with hospitality; he doubt, may be "run into the ground," which of my interesting sitivation-I want the good. was 87,922, being an increase of 18,883 over and cat, the former of which mounted guard the answers, Lee gathered that the means by felt that revenge was in his power. Lee was partook of their supper, and then was instal-is certainly "carrying the thing too far."— is certainly "carrying the thing too far."— When the table was cleared, the father of eyes, whether black or blue are not often with hot toddy, and then go away. over her mansion, while the latter encourage which he and his companions had escaped as brave as any officer in the army, but he ed superstitious fears which were equally ef- were as mysterious as ever. was unarmed, and though he was strong, his when all was quiet, they adversary was still more powerful. While the family arose and opened an old clavecin. Spoiled by weeping. As water always finds ual in keeping visiters away. One dark, stormy night in autumn, he was The next night, when all was quiet, they in the march, and explained to Lee is stord even in their conspir-terms and an even in their conspir-is charms. It was one of those tempests, path of the depating year. His companies of the stord profile south and related which is peciliar of the charces in favor of his secance. Let her critical the is one tempest. Set to outh out the which is peciliar of the charces in favor of his secance. He object from the interaction of the charces in favor of his secance. He object from the interaction of the charces in favor of his secance. He object from the interaction which the chances in favor of his secance. He of the charces in favor of his secance. The daily be sended that they were deeply in-the the chances in favor of his secance. The charces in favor of his secance. The daily the charces in favor of his secance. The daily the charces in favor of his secance. The daily the charces in favor of his secance. The daily the charces in favor of his secance. The daily the charces in favor of his secance. The daily provided fill the charces in favor of his secance. The daily the charces in favor of his secance. The daily provided fill the charces in favor of his secance. The daily provided fill the charces in favor of his secance. The daily provided fill the daily provided fill the work his freedulition of the start the daily provided fill the heavy series the daily provided fill the work was a solidions in the interfave the work the difference which the work the difference which the work which heavy terms that in the interfave the work the wore the work the work the wore the work the work the work the shept soundly, but the wind, which shook the served from the direction of the stars that other was upon his guard, and aimed with souls were in the instruments. The two wobuilding to its foundation and threw heavy ^{splashes of rain against the window, conspir-^{ed} with the state of his mind, to keep him is o-often that he could not conjecture at what been his last, ^d with the state of his mind, to keep him is o-often that he could not conjecture at what been his last, ^d with the state of his mind, to keep him is o-often that he could not conjecture at what been his last, ^d with the state of his mind, to keep him is o-often that he could not conjecture at what been his last, ^d with the state of his mind, to keep him is o-often that he could not conjecture at what been his last, ^d with the state of his mind, to keep him is o-often that he could not conjecture at what been his last, ^d with the state of his mind, to keep him is o-often that he could not conjecture at what been his last, ^d with the state of his mind, to keep him is o-often that he could not conjecture at what been his last, ^d with the state of his mind, to keep him is o-often that he could not conjecture at what been his last, ^d with the state of his mind, to keep him is o-often that he could not conjecture at what been his last, ^d with the state of his mind, to keep him is o-often that he could not conjecture at what been his last, ^d with the state of his mind, to keep him is o-often that he could not conjecture at what been his last, ^d with the state of his mind, to keep him is o-often that he could not conjecture at what been his last, ^d with the state of his mind, to keep him is o-often that he could not conjecture at what been his last, ^d with the state of his mind, to keep him is o-often that he could not conjecture at what been his last, ^d with the state of his mind, to keep him is o-often that he could not conjecture at what been his last, ^d with the state of his mind, to keep him is observed that the con-} Irish immigration greatly preponderated, till pavement afforded no accommodations for sent one of his aids to the jail. That officer chill. They sent to Vienna for a physician. sleeping, the worthies were seated each upon could not believe his eyes when he saw Captain Lee. His uniform, worn out when he clared itself, and in two days, despite every As no time was to be lost, their guide exa little cask which seemed like those used for plained to them in a few words, that before gunpowder. Here they were smoking pipes with great diligence, and, at intervals not dishim, and he had not been shaved for a fortnight; | must die. he wished, very naturally, to improve his ap- And, in truth, life was every instant ebtant, applying a huge cauteen to their mouths. from which they drank with upturned faces pearance before presenting himself before the | bing fast from him. ed for this purpose. The prisoners were con- escape, and never to reveal the circumstances expressive of solemn satisfaction. While Secretary of War; but the orders were perfined in barracks, enclosed with a stockade or agents in the proceeding, whatever might they were thus engaged, the short seldier ask-and vigilantly guarded. But in spite of all beful them. The soldiers, however, insisted ed them in a careless way, if they knew eral loved a joke full well; his laughter was his old and only friend. He had heard of precautions, they often disappeared in an un- on deferring this measure, till they had form- whom they had in their party. The others hardly exceeded by the report of his own can- the illness of Beethoven, and he came to him accountable manner, and nothing was heard ed some slight acquaintance with the contents started, and took their pipes from their mouths non; and long and loud did he laugh that with succor and money. But it was too late. day. Beethoven was speechless; and a grateful to ask him what he meant. "I mean." said day.

attempt to injure Captain Lee, or any conduct which would lead him to suspect that moment shoot him through the head. The

THE LAST MOMENTS OF BEETHOVEN OR, THE DYING SWAN, my man when I had a debt of that kind to

He had but one happy moment in his life and that moment killed him. He lived in poverty, driven into solitude gust at his feroeity, saving, that if, as he said, by the contempt of the world, and by the their companion was an American officer, all natural bent of a disposition rendered harsh, supposed, beforehand, that he should find no | they had to do was to watch him closely.---almost savage, by the injustice of his contemdifficulty in escaping at any moment; but They said that, as he had come among them he saw that their conductor had prepared uninvited, he must go with them to Newporaries. But he wrote the sublimest music he saw that their conductor had prepared uninvited, he must go with them to New- that ever man or angel dreamed. He spoke arms for them, which they were to use in tak- York, and take the consequences; but mean- to mankind in his divine language, and they ing the life of any one who should attempt to | time, it was their interest not to seem to sus | disdained to listen to him. He spoke to leave them-and then the oath. He might | pect him, otherwise he might give an alarm, | them as nature speaks in the celestial harmopossibly have released himself from its ob- whereas it was evidently his intention to go ny of the winds, the waves, the singing of the igations, when it became necessary for the with them till they were ready to embark for birds amid the woods. Beethoven was a interests of his country; but no honorable New-York. The other persisted in saying prophet, and his utterance was from God. that he would have his revenge with his own

We are pleased to state that our esteemed Aud yet was his talent so disregarded, that old friend. Mrs. Partington, has been prehe was destined more than once to suffer the sented with a new corn broom by her grocer pistol declared to him that if he saw the least bitterest agony of the poet, the artist, the as a mark of esteem for the prompt manner musician. He doubted his own genius. in which she has paid up her bills. The pre-Haydn_himself. could find for him no betsentation was made in the front part of the friend.

and regret.

sed away.

Dobling.

These were his last words. His eyes grew fixed, his mouth fell open, and his spirit pas-

They buried him in the little cemetery of Interesting Presentation.

Partington's dress with an estray puff of flour. The grocer, handing the broom at with evident emotion, said, at the same time

Women and Tears.

These two topics are properly put in connection at the head of our paragraph (says the Boston Post.) since, as the logicians say,

"the latter flows naturally from the former."

er praise than in saying-'He is a clever pishop amid a crowd of orange baskets and sunnist. gar barrels, and the ccremonial was marked by peculiar interest, as was the skirt of Mrs.

likely to be as good as his word, he restrain-in orthography.' ed himself, and begun to arrange some rub-Beethoven had but one friend, and that her—his eyes filled with tears and his mouth friend was Hummel. But poverty and in-justice had irritated him, and he was some-the broom, mem, and with it the assurance bish to serve him for a bed. The other soldien followed his example, and their guide times unjust himself. He quarrelled with of my distinguished consideration.' Mrs. withdrew, locking the door after him. The next night they went on as usual, but Hummel, and for a long time they ceased to Partington took the broom in her fingers, and meet. To crown his misfortunes, he became completely deaf.

looking at Ike, who was peering wistfully in-Then Beethoven retired to Baden, where to the orange basket, "I thank you for the he lived, isolated and sad, in a small house broom, and I shall never: forget the doughthat scarcely sufficed for his necessities .--nut." She meant the donor, and Ike said ever dangerous his situation was, he could ally heard the report of a musket, which seem-There his only pleasure was in wandering she did say so ; but the grocer, who was a red from the fact that when he had disappear- not bear to confess that he had not nerve to ed to indicate that some movement was go- amid the green alleys of a beautiful forest in grosser man, thought differently. The broom. the neighborhood of the town. Alone with on one side of the handle, bears on a small his. own officers and soldiers saw him every two or three hours, and was beginning to quickened their steps, and it was not long be- the birds and the wild flowers, he would sufsquare piece of yellowish paper, the inseripsink with futigue, when the barking of a dog fore they saw a glean of broad clear light fer himself to give scope to his genius, to comto whom I atn indebted for most of these par- brought the party to a stand. Their conduct- before them, such as is reflected from calm pose his marvellous symphonies, to approach warranted by the Harvard Society, and for tion, "Half dozen corn brogms, made and the gates of heaven with melodious accents, sale by grocers generally;" and on the othand familiar with Lee; but though compelled at no great distance, and a figure came for- ed up to it with deep silence; there were va- and to speak aloud to angels that language er-nothing at all. The broom was a beauwhich was too beautiful for human cars, and tiful tribute of groceries to worth, and the which human cars had failed to compre- story, which afterwards 'got round,' that she bend. But in the midst of his solitary dreaming, a letter arrived which brought him back, des-nite himself to the affeiring of the model. pite himself, to the affairs of the world, where meanest envy. Boston Post. new griefs awaited him. A nephew whom

When they came to the bank there were he had brought up, and to whom he was atno traces of a boat on the waters. Their contached by the good offices which he had himself performed for the youth, wrote to implore his uncle's presence at Vienna. He had sible it might have been secured lower down become implicated in some disastrous business, from which his elder relative alone could. As pathos and June are nearly opposite sides elease him. Becthoven set off upon his journey, and they laugh, and, we are inclined to think, enrelease him. 📉 joy the latter diversion quite as much as the compelled by the necessity of economy, accomplished part of the distance on foot .-former. The "luxury of wo," as some senti-

Dropsy on the chest was found to have de-

Ripton's condition, as before hinted; was beyond the ordinary impulses to human action; assumed it, was now hanging in rags about care and skill, the doctor said that Beethoven and he, therefore endured several severe digs with the foot aforesaid, without uttering more than a deep-toned grunt ; but at last the sharp corner of the boot coming in con-As he lay upon his bed, pale and suffering, tact with his ribs, he suddenly turned over emptory to bring him as he was. The Gen- a man entered. It was Humpiel-Hummel, in the graceful attitude of a frog, and struck out vigorously. Liko Givanni's faithful squire, he proved hunself an adept at swiming on land. He 'handled' his arms and legs with such dexterity, that before his prog-ress could be arrested; he was on the curbsmile was all that he had to bestow upon his stone. The next instant heard him plunge Hummel hent towards him, and, by the into the swollen and roaring kennel, and with aid of an acoustic instrument, enabled Beethohis head sticking above the water, he buffeted ven to hear a few words of his compassion the waves with a heart of controversy. . The boa.'s blowed up, and them that ain't Beethoven seemed reanimated; his eyes bile | areall overboard ! spluttered theswimshone; he struggled for utterance, and gasped mer, as he dashed the waters about, and - 'Is it not true, Hummel, that I have some talent, after all f seemed almost strangled with the quantities which entered the hole in his head entitled a mouth, which was sadly unacquainted with undistilled fluids-- 'Strike out, or you're gone crowded. None of our cars ever yet were chickens ! them as can't swim must tread full so, of course, the house on wheels stopwater, and them as can't tread water must go pèd for me.

to Davy Jones! Let go my leg ! Every man for himself! [Phre-e-e] bro-o-o! Who's] the car, I was intending to stand, but a gengot some splatterdocks ?' The watch looked on in silent admiration.

but finding that the aquatic gentleman did I thanked him and obeyed. not make much headway, and that a probability existed of his going out of the world in prettier, and much hetter dressed than my. soundings and by water, a way evidently not self entered. Not less than four gentlemen in conformity to his desires, the benevolent arose instantly, offering her a seat. She guardian of the night thought proper to interpose ; and bending himself to the work, at ing the gentleman who offered the nearest last succeeded in re-establishing Rumsey on seat to her, she seated herself with a peculiar the curbstone.

would undoubtedly have said, 'Ripton Rum-

'You must go to the watch-house.'

sey on a wheelbarrow.'

'Ha!' said Ripton, lafter gasping a few minutes, and wringing the water from his face sweet and expressive. A little after this young beauty had taken and hair-'you've saved me, and you'll be put in the newspapers for it by way of solid her seat, ? poor waman, looking very thin reward. Jist in time I'd been down twyst and very pale, with that haggard and care and if I'd gone agin, Ripton Rumsey would worn look that poverty, and sorrow, and a stayed there-once more and the last and hard labor always give, came in Sho might the nearest gits it. Only think-my eye! have been one of those poor scamstresses how the shads and cattics would a chawed who work like slaves and starve for their las me up ! Getting drowned ain't no fun, and bor. She was thinly and meanly clad, and after you're drowned it's wus. My sufferings seened weak and exhausted. She had evi what I had, and my sufferings what I like to dently no sixpences to throw away, and came had is enough to make a feller cry, only 1 into the car not to stand, but to rest while ain't got no hankercher, and my sleeve's so she was helped on in her journey. wet it won't wipe good.'

wet it won't wipe good. While she was meekly standing for the 'Yes, young un," said the Charley, 's'sport moment, none of the gentlemen (?) offering to sing the fishes had been betting on elections, rise, Raphael's angel, with sweet reproving they'd have invited theother fishes to cat you eyes, looked on those who had so officiously for oyster suppers,-so much majority for offered her a seat, and seeing none of them sturgeon nose, or a Ripton Rumsey supper attempt to move, and just as I myself was for the company-why not? If we ketch rising to give the poor lady ny place, she the fishes we eat them; and if they ketch us, arose and insisted upon the woman taking they eat us-bite all around?' her seat But the storm again began to how and as It was all the work of but a moment; and Ripton evidently did not understand the rathe look of grateful surprise the old woman tiona e of the argument, the watchman lost gave her, and the glance of sweet pity the his poctic sympathy for the Jonah of the gutbeautiful girl bestowed on the woman as she ters. Even had he heard the fishes calling yielded her sent, and the ovident consternafor 'Ripton Rumseys fried, 'Ripton Rumseys tion of the broadcloth individuals, who were stewed, or Ripton Rumseys on a chafing manifestly put to shame, all were to me irredish.' he would have felt indifferent about the sistibly interesting and instructive, matter, and if asked how he would take him,

One of these same broadcloth wearers, apparently overpowered with confusion, got up, and left the car, and Raphael's angel took his vacant seat

"What fur must I? Fetch along the Hu trayed any malice on that account, and no door. The morning rose clear, and it was your own sake, make any noise to show where INFLUX OF EMIGRANTE. - The immigration . One evening he stopped before the gate of a mentalist calls it, is to them a satisfaction mane Society's apparatus for the recovery of One dreamed that she could have had the pow-er to do injury if she possessed the will.— Lee watched her closely, but saw nothing to was alarmed. The farmer gave short and the had before suspected that the fellow law, here's at you. Being a judge or a may-Up with you, Jacky Dadle.'

or, or any thing of that sort's easy done without catnip tea; it don't hurt your hands, or strain your back; but jist try aspell at smashing stones, or piling logs, and you'd learn what's what without being put in a bag. 'Never mind,' said Ripton as he was conducted from the office, every thing goes round in this world, Perhaps I'll be stuck up some day on a bench to ladle out law to the loafers. Who knows? Then let me have a holt of some of the chaps that made Miamensin. I'd ladle the law out to them ao hot, they'd not send their plates for more soup in a hurry, I'd have a whole bucket. ful of cathip tea alongside, and the way they would ketch thirty days, and thirty days a top of that, would make em grin like cheesy cats. First I'd bag all the Charleys, and then I'd bag all the mayors, and sew 'em up.'-Charcoal Sketches.

Scene in a Railroad Car.

The seats of the car were all occupied-

Not wishing to disturb those who were in tleman up at the far end arose and insisted upon my taking his seat. Being very tired, Presently, a lady, much younger, much grace of manner. She had one of those faces Raphael was always painting touchingly