

The Sunapee Register.

MONROSE, PA. Thursday Morning, June 15, 1854.

WIGG STATE TICKET. Governor, JAMES POLLOCK, of Northumberland.

Canal Commissioner, GEORGE DARSIE, of Allegheny. Judge of Supreme Court, DANIEL M. SMYSER, of Montgomery.

WOOD Wanted on subscription at this office, immediately. V. B. PALMER, the American Newspaper Agent is the only authorized Agent for this paper in the cities of Boston, New York, and Philadelphia.

Nebraska in Pennsylvania. The opponents of the Nebraska bill, in other States, express a good deal of doubt as to the course that the Free-Soil men of Pennsylvania will pursue.

The whole expense of the Boston Slave case, amounting to some thirty thousand dollars, is to be paid by the United States government, by order of President Pierce.

The sportsmen have only to go round, by Washington, on their way home, and Uncle Sam foots the bill—pays all the expenses of the hunt.

The more strays, the more sport and the more bills to be paid by government. It is manifest that a war with Spain is not absolutely necessary to deplete the treasury.

We hear from all quarters complaints of the irregularity of the mails, and the inefficient administration of the Postoffice department.

The Locofoco papers of the State resort to various expedients to shield their candidate from the censures such conduct deserves.

Perhaps it will be said that, as Whigs, we of course consider it important that Bigler should be defeated and Pollock elected.

REMARKABLE.

The following singular document was picked up near a law office in this village, one day last week, and handed to us with a request to publish.

The copartnership heretofore existing under the name and style of the Democratic Party, has been dissolved by mutual consent.

The undersigned, having formed a business connection with the Slavery interest, are prepared to get as commission merchants for the purchase and sale of slaves of all colors and for any lawful market.

A few weeks since the Binghamton papers gave some account of the exploits in that village, of a worthless character, named Nicholas B. Hultzhander.

Masses, Editors: Feeling a sense of duty due to the public, I thought I would write a few lines to be published respecting the impostor recently spoken of by the Binghamton papers.

To your first inquiry I reply that the Supreme Court of the State have repeatedly held and I concur in the doctrine, that the Legislature can exercise all law-making power not expressly forbidden by the State or Federal Constitution.

Very respectfully, your obt. Wm. BIGLER. To Stephen Miller, Jas. Black, Jas. Piper, John Jones, Geo. W. Stanton, Esqrs. Committee.

It will be seen that Governor Bigler declines to answer. Very courteously, it is true, but very decidedly.

THE PROHIBITORY LIQUOR LAW CONVENTION.

The character of the body which met at Harrisburg, on Wednesday, would have convinced the most skeptical observer of the strength of the cause of Prohibition.

The proceedings were characterized by a spirit of harmony and moderation unusual on such occasions.

The resolutions were passed with a hearty unanimity. The resolution to vote in October on the question of Prohibition was adopted, we believe, without a dissenting voice.

1. Do you believe a law, prohibiting the manufacture and sale of intoxicating liquors, except for sacramental, medicinal, or other medicinal purposes, to be constitutional?

2. In the event of your election, should the Legislature enact such a law, will it receive your executive sanction?

Very respectfully, your obt. Wm. BIGLER. To Stephen Miller, Jas. Black, Jas. Piper, John Jones, Geo. W. Stanton, Esqrs. Committee.

NEW TACTICS NECESSARY.

The old story of the fugit of sticks, united by strong and singly worthless, is every year played over and over again at the North.

But they never do unite. Those who want Slavery abolished, will not work with those who only want to prevent its extension.

While Gen. Pierce is issuing his proclamations against the Fillibusters, now understood to be getting up another expedition for the invasion of Cuba, his organ, the Washington Union, on the other hand, we see, is doing all in its power to stimulate the very spirit which its master affects an anxiety to discountenance.

THE NORTHERN PARTY.

The North must unite in one grand body, array itself against the inroads and oppressions of the Pro-slavery power of the South.

Let some measures be at once taken for the formation of a great Northern Party, which shall claim all old names and old issues, and rally upon the great question of the day.
