News and Notions.

—A child only ten years of age has been sent to jail in Ithaca, N. Y., for stealing strawberries.

—Gerrit Smith has resigned his seat in the House of Representatives, to take effect at the close of the present session.

—Grasshoppers in innumerable swarms, infest the fields in many parts of Pennsylvania, carrying devastation to all the vegetation of the fields.

—The True Delta says, though there is on an average, a murder committed in New Orleans every twelve hours, there have been but two convictions, for the crime in eight years.

—As the Menagerie was passing the Sherman House yesterday forenoon, an Irishman standing on the sidewalk exclaimed—"Be jabers, which eage is Douglas in ?" Chicago Tribune.

—All the taverns were closed in Philadelphia on Sunday last, and every thing was quiet and orderly. Mayor Conrad is receiving much credit for his firmness and discretion in enforcing the laws.

—The time for receiving proposals for the purchase of the Main Line of the Public Works of Pennsylvania, expired July 3d., and as no bids were made, no sale can now be made without further legislation.

—The House of Representatives on Wednesday of last week, June 28th, gave the President $10,000,000, in order to enable him to comply with the terms of treaty with Mexico. The bill passed by a vote of 103 to 86.

—Speaking of the proposition to send Frederick Douglass to Congress, the Providence Journal says: "We send so many white slaves to Congress, that a free negro would be a novelty.

—Another 'Gift Enterprise' has been broken up at New York, by the arrest of the proprietor, J. W. Hart, on a suit instituted by the city authorities. He has been sent to prison in default of bail.

—The Anamosa News says that Mr. Ingham the Democratic candidate for Representative in the General Assembly from Jones County, is an anti-Nebraska man, and that if he were otherwise he could not be elected in that county.

—The venerable Thomas Ritchie of Virginia, formerly of the Richmond Enquirer and the Washington Union, died in Washington, July 4th. He was about 80 years of age, and for some fifty years was the Editorial head of Virginia politics.

—Congress has agreed to adjourn on the fourth of August, which is as soon as, without a great industry not to be expected from the present Houses the bottom of the Treasury can be laid bare.

—The Louisville Journal hits off the Washington Union as follows:—The Union predicts that at the next election in New York, the friends of the administration will roll up a majority. The Journal copies the above and adds, 'We dont believe they will roll up anything but the whites of their eyes.'

—The New Hampshire Legislature, on Friday last, elected the publishers of the Reporter, the organ of the Hards, as State printers by twelve majority over William Butterfield of the Patriot, the special organ of the Administration. This is considered a signal defeat of the Admin tration.

—The Pennsylvania Democratic members of Congress (the majority of them we suppose) are extremely sore about old San Jacinto having been invited by the Democrats of Reading to deliver their Fourth of July oration. They say it is too hard that a Texas Senator should be allowed to distribute Free-Soil poison in old-Berks.

—The treaty with Mexico was ratified June 30th, and Major Gen. Alvin Cope presented himself at the Treasury Department and received Secretary Guthrie's check on the Sub-Treasury at New-York for $7,000,000. This is undoubtedly the largest check ever drawn in this country, and probably the largest that will ever be paid in coin.

—A goose belonging to Mr. James Rooke of Chester Co. Pa., died the other day, at an advanced age. It came into possession of Mr. R. on his wedding day, 33 years ago; being the property of his wife. It was probably near forty years old at the time of its death. To which age, it is said, a goose will live.

—The Terre Haute Journal says that Know-Nothing bills—being perfectly blank, unsullied by a single letter—are being posted up in various places at that city. The Journal thus seems much concerned about this curious society, as he devotes several articles to their demolition.

—Mr. Fessenden presented a petition from the town of Milton, in New Hampshire, the birth place of the president, for the repeal of the Fugitive Slave Law. He said it was signed by over three hundred voters, which he supposed comprised all its voters. Referred.

—Dr. Olds, the leading Nebraskaite in the House from Ohio, has been defeated for a renomination by the District Convention of his own party, and an anti-Nebraskaite nominated over him. Can't President Pierce do something for him?

—The New York Sun says there is a large building on Cherry street of that city, one hundred and fifty feet in length, which is occupied by three hundred Irish families. One entrance on the street suffices for the use of one hundred and eighty families. A number of persons have died of cholera there within a few days past.

—Santa Anna will now revel on the bounty of the United States for a few months, and the chances are even that he will then take to his travels, not to return. It is said that he claims a large portion of the fund now to be paid to his agents, on the score of damages to his property between Vera Criz and the Capital, committed by the American army in 1847 and '48.

—The New York Times says that during the last strike, the freight trains had accumulated to an enormous extent at Piermont.—Report said that the number of loaded cars lying on the lower stations of the road, on Monday, was about two hundred and eighty. The trains have again begun to run with some degree of regularity.

—The Nebraska bill has split the Democratic party of Indiana right in two. The Nebraska portion of the party are holding meetings and passing strong resolutions, and they are to meet in State Convention at Indianapolis on the 13th of July, for the adoption of such measures as they shall then deem necessary to the accomplishment of their purposes.

—The Norfolk, (Va.) Argus says: "The class of writings from which the South have most to apprehend, are school books and works of religious instruction.

Well you are no worse off than the great patron of your peculiar institution—the Devil. He has for a long while apprehended danger from the very same source.

—The Reciprocity Treaty is done for. The Washington correspondent of The Express says that it was rejected by the Senate in Executive Session, on Saturday, for the alledged inequality of the advantages conferred by it on the respective contracting parties, and also because it was an infringement on the privileges of the house of Representatives, which can alone originate changes in the revenue laws. No doubt the active men in bringing about this result, were the Representatives and Senators of the South, whose determination is that there shall be no reciprocity between the Free States and Canada.

—'The Irishmen's Civil and Republican Union,' is the title of an organization which has just been formed in New York city, "to rally and concentrate in a band of brotherhood all Irishmen,' against the new American societies.

—Some sensation is created in political circles, in consequence of the passage of strong resolutions against the Know Nothings, by the New York Tammany Hall Democratic General Committee, at their special meeting. The step is taken, it is thought agreeably to orders from Washington.

—The Philadelphia Sun, in contradicting the rumor published in a West Chester paper, that Judge Pollock, one of the gubernatorial candidates, is a foreigner by birth, says: "For five or six generations the bones of Mr. Pollock's ancestors have reposed beneath the sods of the valley of the Susquehanna, near the spot where he was born, and around which all his home affections cluster."

STARTLING FACT.—The late census shows that the number of Irishmen in the United States is little less than one million, and our Federal, State and Municipal 'Blue Books' show that a majority of the minor public offices and places in the United States are filled by Irishmen. Is it strange that Americanism is springing up.—Phil. Sun.

PACKAGES IMPROPERLY CHARGED WITH LETTER POSTAGE.—We have recently had occasion to ascertain that, under the postal laws and regulations, when a sealed package chargeable with letter postage, is opened in presence of a postmaster, and found to contain printed matter, without anything secreted therein, he may remit the letter postage, and deliver the package at the rates charged for printed matter.—Wash. Star.

—In Germantown every inn and tavern was closed on Sunday and a very peaceful day was experienced by the inhabitants.—The Telegraph says a collection of men near the Rising Sun, were overheard discussing the Sunday Law, in which one of them remarked: "I think, after all, boys, it is the best thing for us, and we will so find it; for we shall be able to go to work in the morning without a headache, and with money in our pockets."

—The following non-slaveholding states representing 162 out of the 296 electoral votes for President, are yet to hold their elections for State officers:—

Iowa, August 7.		Mass. Nov. 13.
California, Sept. 5.		New York, Nov. 7
Vermont,	"	New Jersey,	"
Maine, Sept. 11.		Illinois,	"
Penn, Oct. 10,		Michigan,	"
Ohio,	"	Wisconsin,	"
Indiana.	"

All but two of these States—Vermont and Massachusetts—gave majorities for Pierce and King.

—Olds' bill for modifying the postage system passed June 29th. It amounts to little of nothing. The mountain, after intense labor, has brought forth a very little mouse indeed. The whole reform consists in abolishing the privilege of sending letters without prepayment, and, of course, abolishing the five cent rate on such letters. This is a small matter; but what there is of it is simply pernicious. There are many situations in which men can neither pay postage nor get it. It is said the bill simplifies and diminishes the expense, and that the system of paying debtor and creditor, with 22,000 postmasters, for postage stamps furnished them in gross, will be abandoned almost as soon as tried. The whole effect of the bill is to deprive the people of a slight convenience, which they prized as such.

☞ The Washington Association in aid of free emigration to Nebraska and Kansas, and in general resistance to the encroachment of slavery, have issued an important circular to all who may be disposed to sympathise with, or aid them. They declare that the purposes of the extreme advocates of Southern policy are much more alarming than even represented by the address of the anti-Nebraska members in Congress. They say that a mature and calm examination of all the developments of the present session has convinced them that a part of this grand design is the suppression of the rights of the free States through the usurpation of the federal judiciary, which is to be reconstituted by the creation of twelve additional judgeships, with salaries of four thousand five hundred dollars a year.

Hon. Mr. Goodrich of Mass., is President of this Association, F. P. Blair, is Vice President, Hon. Truman Smith, Hon. Mr. Mace of La., Preston King, of N. Y., Dr. Bailey of the National Era, and L. D. Campbell, of Ohio, are among the Directors.

New Milford, May 8, 1851.

OFFICIAL AND IMPORTANT.

IT being manifest that the tailoring business is still carrying on John Groves in Montrose—no, John is carrying on the Tailoring business—no, they are both "carrying on" together—at a place where two ways meet, being in the very building where Sam Houston was nominated for President, to wit, in Searle's Hotel, in the Basement thereof—and the generous many-pocketed public being supposed to be interested in knowing where they can make an investment, (yea, and an in-coat-and-pantaloons—ment) most advantageously, to the appearance of the outer man in extenso; therefore John,

"Who is not, like a virtuous woman willing
To live unheard-of—just to save a shilling," hereby nominates himself as Tailor-General for this community, and requests all good citizens to call at his place of business above mentioned, to enable him to perform the duties of said office. Witness my hand at Montrose the ninth day of May A. D., 1854.

Keep it Before the People.

While Merchants sell their calicoes
And heap up 'lots o' money;'
While Lawyers fight their clients' foes,
And feed on golden honey;
While Doctors, by the power of pills,
Surround themselves with riches;
While Tailors give you fits and bills,
And thrive by taking stitches;
While Farmers by their honest sweat,
Are paid such extra prices;
While everybody seems to get
Good living in large slices—
The Artist, too, would like to live
By taking people's faces;
So, if you please, attention give
To my new stock of Cases.
