GOV. BIGLER AND NEBRASK A.

Wherever the Nebraska bill is unpopular the Democratic speakers and presses strive to make it appear that it is no test of orthodoxy many a represent the disaffected from dropoff. The Governor's organs at Harris advocate the support of the Nebraska stindle as the only test of Democratic orthwhilst the Governor himself, away off smoog Free Soilers of the North, preaches the doctrine that it is a question of National policy, which has nothing to do with our State election. In other portions of the State his Excellency pursues a different course, not all acknowledging the question to be one State policy, but advocating and endorsing peprinciples of the Nebraska bill. On this, as en all other questions, Gov. Bigler has not de moral courage to 'face the music' like d man. In one locality he goes it strong for Valraska—so strong that the Washington Inion, the principal National organ of the ifferent tack, and seeks, by insinuation, to leave the impression upon the minds of the people that he cares nothing about the Ne braska bill, and that he does not regard it as atest of Democratic orthodoxy. The organ of the National Democracy, however, is not

WELCH'S NATIONAL CIRCUS, OF PHILADELPHIA, AND LENT'S NEW YORK CIRCUS, Forming two distinct exhibitions blended together, and both given under one immense Pavillion for a single price of admission—reports of inferior companies to the contrary notwithstanding. These consolidated companies will exhibit at Montrose on Thursday October 12th. Doors open at 2 and 7 o'clock P. M. Performances will commence-half an hour after opening. Admission 25 cents. No half price. The only legitimate Circus now travelling in Western New York, comprising upwards of 200 men and horses! and requiring 30 carriages and baggage vans, for the conveyance of this truly collossal establishment. The ne plus ultra Band Car, drawn by ten beautiful cream colored horses, containing 14 select musicians, and led by the celebrated S. V. W. Post, Esq., will precede the grand entree in each town, which will take place about 10 o'clock in the morning of the day of Exhibition. The great English Clown, Linton, has been added to this concern, who will appear in conjunction with he celebrated Bill Worrell.

The great resources obtained by combining these two extensive and well-known troupes, will allow of a degree of brilliancy being produced in their entertainments unparalleled in this country and unsurpassed in any other. A great variety of performances new in this country, and peculiar to this establishment, will be found comprised in the bills, said it is confidently believed that the novel, brilliant, and exciting representa-tions of the double troupe, will form a feature in the amusements of America, which will be remembered with gratification for years to come.

The bright array of talget attached to the consolidated establishment includes a great number of the most distinguished names in the Equestian profession, most of whom are as well known in Europe as upon this side of the Atlantic. Among the most prominent of the equestian stars are Mad'lle Minna, the great Prussian equestrienne; Mad'lle Eloise, the youthful, fearless, and fascinating rider; Mad'lles Angeline, Sophie, Irene, and Jenny; Worrell, the very best Clown of the age; Hiram W. Frankling S. P. Stickney, H. F. Nichols, J. Hankins, W. Kincade, B. Stevens, Master Willie, and many others, all known to fame, and unequaled in their respective departments. For a full description of the magnificent entertainments to be given, the reader is referred to the descriptive bills at the principal hotels, as it would be impossible to give an add quate idea of their vast extent and variety in the limits of a newspaper advertisement.

Each afternoon's exhibition will terminate with the extremely laughable French Equestrian Burlesque, entitled Le Jockey; while at night the performance will could with the great legendry, hippodramatic spectacle of St. George and the Dragon, produced with all the original music, superb dresses, appointments and machinery employed at the National Theatre, in Philadelphia, when it had an unprecedented run. The piece abounds in grand combats, terrible encounters, and startling incidents; concluding with the grand procossion in favor of the rescue of the princess and the triumph of the Christian Knight. This company will also exhibit at Binghamton the 9th, Great Bend the 10th, Susquehanna the 11, Harford the 13th, Mount Pleasant the 14th, Hongsdale the 15th of October. J. W. BANCKER & F.
