Keep it Before the People.
While Merchants sell their calicoes
And cheap up 'lots o' money,'
While Lawyers fight their clients' foes,
And feed on golden honey;
While Doctors, by the power of pills,
Surround themselves with riches;
While Tailors give you fits and bills,
And thrive by taking stitches;
While Farmers by their honest sweat
Are paid such extra prices;
While everybody seems to get
Good living in large slices—
The Artist, too, would like to live
By taking people's faces;
So, if you please, attention give
To my new stock of Cases.

OFFICIAL AND IMPORTANT.
IT being manifest that the tailoring business is still carrying on John Grooves in Montrose—no, John is carrying on the Tailoring business—no, they are both "carrying on" together—at a place where two ways meet, being in the very building where Sam Honstdy was nominated for President, to wit, in Searle's Hotel, in the Basement thereof—and the generous many-pocketed public being supposed to be interested in knowing where they can make an investment, (yea, and an in-coat-and-pantaloons—ment) most advantageously, to the appearance of the outer man in extenso; therefore John,

"Who is not, like a virtuous woman willing To live unheard-of—just to save a shilling," hereby nominates himself as Tailor-General for this community, and requests all good citizens to call at his place of business above mentioned, to enable him to perform the duties of said office. Witness my hand at Montrose the ninth day of May A. D., 1854.

JOHN GROVES.
