The Ex-Confederate Lieutenant General John C. Pemberton, died July 13, at Penly, near Philadelphia, aged 67 years. He commanded the confederate forces at Vicksburg at the time that city was besieged by the Union Army under Gen. Grant, and surrendered to him July 3, 1862.

Our spirited contemporary, the Tunkhannock Republican, has changed hands. Its issue of July 15, contains the valedictory of Cyrus D. Camp, former editor and proprietor, who has ably conducted that journal for the past five years, and the salutary of Messrs. Baldwin & Capman, who have become its purchasers. Mr. Camp, with whom we regret to part, has made the paper one of the best of country journals. We hope the new proprietors will maintain the progressive spirit which has characterized the paper under Mr. Camp's management. They are active and enterprising young men, not unacquainted with the community in which they have come from Susquehanna county to reside. We wish them ample success.

The Mrs. Garfield Fund, which has taken the form of a popular subscription, has now reached the sum of nearly $200,000, and contributions are daily flowing in. The movement was inspired as a recognition of the noble bearing and heroic Christian courage of Mrs. Garfield at a time when the life of her husband, the President, was in imminent peril from the wound inflicted by the assassin—Guiteau. Its laudable purpose was the establishing of a fund sufficient to protect the Presidents family from want, and to testify the profound affection and sympathy entertained for the up-right and stricken President. It is now, in view of his probable recovery, determined to make it a permanent fund so placed as that the interest shall insure to the benefit of the President and his family. It teaches that no one man can set up his authority against a well-settled public judgment, which as a rule, is right. The President is sustained because he is right, Mr. Conkling goes down because he is wrong. The autocratic spirit of Conkling is rebuked.

The delegate elections in the BOROUGHS will be organized at SIX O'CLOCK, P. M., and kept open continuously, to close at 8 o'clock, p. m. In the districts of North, North Tonawanda and Athens District No. 3, from FIVE O'CLOCK, P. M., continuously until 7 o'clock p. m., at which time they shall close. The votes shall then be counted and the result certified by the proper officials of said meetings to the Chairmen of said Conventions and a copy delivered at once to the delegates elect.
