Old John Beaman, the hermit of Union, dropped in to see us this week. John owns the surface of the car and all the minerals underneath, by divine right and all entitled to ground rent, but his possessions are divided and the rent is not forthcoming which leaves a heap of trouble on the old man's mind.

The wife of Rev. E. L. Stillwell, of Dresden, N. Y., who was for many years located in this county, died at that place on Sunday last. The funeral services were held at Berea church on Tuesday. The deceased has many friends and acquaintances in this county who will be pained to learn of her death, and who will extend a hearty sympathy with her bereaved husband.

During the severe thunder storm of Monday evening lightning struck a board pile about forty feet from the residence of Rev. S. L. Condit. It did no material damage, however. It will be remembered that his house was struck only a few weeks since and somewhat damaged thereby—Towanda Record.

The second of the series of articles in the Gleaner, on the gold of the country, contributed by Prof. J. H. Nasson, appears this week. This article presents a comprehensive view of the Government, and its republican form in its relation to the various forms of government. The reader will readily gather from it a clear understanding of the relations between the National, State and Municipal governments, and harmonizing working of the whole as a perfect system.

The State Line and Sullivan Railroad train started out at 10 o'clock yesterday forenoon from the Court House depot, with eight cars, accompanied by the M. E. Church Sunday School scholars and their friends, bound for a picnic at Elmhurst's Trout Ponds. The day was pleasantly spent, and all returned in safety without mishap at 4 o'clock.

The Collins family had a reunion at the home of M. H. Collins in this borough on Wednesday, July 20th. James A. Collins and wife were present. Our friend, M. H. Collins furnished the necessary palatable refreshments, while Dr. Collins officiated as entertainment adviser. They enjoyed a most enjoyable occasion, both in doing justice to the good things, and perpetuating the name of the Collinses in the generations yet to come—Towanda Advertiser.

The large barn of Jas. Callin, on the line between Stroudsburg and Stroudsburg, was struck by lightning and burned about a week of Monday night July 25, during a very hard storm. It was well filled with hay and grain. There was an insurance on the barn, but it was well on the coast. The loss must have been considerable.

The North American Review for August contains a decidedly able and unanswerable defense of the nomination of Grover Cleveland. The article is written by completely anonymous Judge Geo. Black, and we deem it of sufficient importance to warrant its publication in our columns. Owing to the fact that it is given in instalments of two or three columns each, we will complete it—Gleaner.

The editor of the Sentinel has perhaps failed to observe that the North American Review, has standing at the head of first page of each conspicuously displayed the words: "All Numbers Copyrighted." The publishers also specially request that publishers of newspapers shall not copy in full any article from the Review, but make extracts only. We would gladly publish entire Judge Black's able defense of the Bible and the Christian religion, but we are unable to do so. The article is too long to be published in our columns. It will be given in instalments of two or three columns each, we will complete it—Gleaner.

Newspaper subscriptions are payable in advance. The subscriber is obliged to pay for all stock and every other item of expense connected with the publication of a newspaper, prospectively in advance. The paper, the composition, the types, the ink, the press, the printing, the postage, the collection three months, six-months or a year after subscription. Their demands are cash and cash must be. We shall adopt the cash in advance system of September 1st, which all will take notice.

A brave woman like a bravo man, deserves much credit. Bravery is its true meaning, to meet heroically every emergency. We have a large number of such women in this county, and we are proud to have them. —Towanda Advertiser.
