OHIO TRUE TO HER TRADITIONS.

The election in Ohio Tuesday October 11, resulted more favorably to the Republicans than was anticipated.

Foster Republican for Governor has a majority of about 23,000, and the other candidates on the State ticket about 500 more than Foster.

The Legislature will stand, House 70 Republicans, 45 Democrats, Senate 22 Republicans, 11 Democrats.

The Republicans carried the State ticket in Iowa on Tuesday Oct. 11 by 50,000 majority, and both branches of the Legislature by a large majority.

The Republican Committee of Vigilance for the several election districts should attend to the duty of getting out the full Republican vote of their respective districts on election day.

Remember that the election comes on Tuesday November 8, and prepare to be on hand. Tickets for the several districts are in the hands of Chairman E. J. Angle, and may be obtained by calling at his office.

Senator David Davis, the great 350 votes Independent of Illinois, having been elected President pro tempore of the Senate, has both sides under his thumb.

Charles S. Wolfe should send congratulations to Senator David Davis.
