

TO OUR SUBSCRIBERS! EXAMINE OUR TABLET. It will show you the month and year up to which your subscription is paid.

HERE AND HEREBABOUTS. You can fish for bass now. Even spring chickens will be late this season.

New potatoes are in market, at 75 cents per bushel. There is talk of abolishing postage on newspapers.

Main street, Mount Zion, is being graded and improved. The health of our town is exceedingly good at present.

Vegetation, despite the raw weather, is growing very nicely. Several of the stores in Athens will be lighted by gas ere long.

Considerable corn will have to be replanted. Ditto potatoes. R. M. Wells has sold four hundred hand corn planters this spring.

Don't throw your rubbish and ashes on your neighbor's premises. There is considerable sickness in and about Burlington at present.

May floods, according to weather-wise people, portend a summer drought. Preparations are already being made for strawberry and ice cream festivals.

Have you seen the Comet? It is said to be visible after midnight, and very brilliant. The wire-worm is doing much damage to growing crops in the vicinity of East Canton.

Batton-horn bouquets are commencing to have a boom with the sentimental young men. Twenty-two dwelling houses are now in course of construction in the village of Athens.

Dr. Heba Coverdale is building an addition to her already large Second street residence. The Towanda Library has lately added about fifty new books to their already choice collection.

A new bell has been placed in the belfry of the M. E. Church at Sayre. It weighs 500 pounds. Baly carriages now monopolize a share of the sidewalk. This is a monopoly that few oppose.

Old fishermen predict that the bass-fishing will be excellent in the Susquehanna this season. J. W. Chamberlain has been painting and otherwise improving his residence at Watling.

To the good little boy: The picnic season is close at hand, don't forget to attend Sunday School. H. A. Scott, of North Towanda, is making many improvements to his property in that place.

El Bebe, of Troy, is selling out his stock of boots and shoes, and will retire from the shoe business. The houses of George W. Fish, and Mrs. Friclier, in Waverly, were burglarized one night last week.

The Holy Sacrament was twice celebrated at Christ church on the Pentecost Sabbath, May 29th. Although strawberries are late this season, they promise to be very plenty and of excellent quality.

The walls for the boiler shops at Sayre are up, and the roofing timbers are being placed in position. The office of the Engineer corps of the Valley Railroad is soon to be removed from this place to Sayre.

Plant flowers and shrubs and thereby teach your children to admire the pure and beautiful in nature. Persons planting young shade trees should encase them in neat boxes, thus protecting them from any injury.

Henry Matson, of East Canton, has been treating his residence to some quite extensive repairs this spring. In our neighboring county of Niagara, N. Y., there are 113 Sunday Schools, having a membership of 10,000.

Again the rumor is current that our Democratic paper is no longer to appear. The Toga County Court, for hearing motions and arguments will convene at Owego on Monday next.

Rev. Asher Moore, of Easton Pa., will preach at the Universalist church next Sunday morning and evening. Three heroic coaches are now employed between Athens and Waverly. The route is doing a splendid business.

A. O. Sull, has recently repaired and re-papered his dwelling house in Milan, and otherwise improved it. Luman Lewis will soon have the foundation for the new house he will build at Campden this summer.

Humphrey Bros. & Tracy have contracted with A. D. Dye & Co., for fire escape ladders for their new building. It is said that the Grandall Troy Company's property in Montrose, has been placed in the hands of a receiver.

John Yenkin, of Cherry township, Sullivan county, had twenty sheep and lambs killed by dogs, one night recently. The Presbyterian society of Monroeton, will meet at the house of Mrs. Helen Salisbury on Friday evening, June 2d.

The steam yacht "Welles" owned by the Messrs. Kellogg, of Athens, made a trip to Owego and back one day last week. Farmers are delighted over the weather that has existed for the past few days. It was excellent for growing purposes.

One hundred names have been secured of persons who have decided to club members of the Troy Farmers' Club. There is any truth in the old adage, "More rain, more grass," the coming hay crop should be a very abundant one.

W. H. Kintner's new residence at Wyalusing, is progressing finely and when completed will be an ornament to the town. Charles Plyfiter, a painter, was arrested in Tunkhannock recently, charged with being the husband of four wives, all living.

Mrs. J. C. Adams, of North Towanda, was thrown out of a carriage, on York Avenue, one day last week, and quite bruised. The horse at the time was driving to the back freight and suddenly jumping on one side, upset the carriage.

Chas. H. Seebly serves hundreds of guests with delicious chawder, every Saturday evening. Ladies particularly invited.

Newton Landon last week purchased a house and two lots on Toga street, Canton, of W. D. Tyler, paying therefor the sum of $1,100.

F. H. Hoffman, of Troy, last week presented the Grand School of that village with two bound volumes of Harper's Magazine.

The Universalist State Association of Pennsylvania will convene in Athens, today, Wednesday, May 31st, and continue three days.

John Cokerdell, of Athens, had his shoulder broken by a falling tree, while at work in the lumber woods in Wilmot township, May 20.

Glad were the hearts of those persons who deal in spring-wear and straw goods at the sunshine and balmy atmosphere of Saturday last.

The Germania Band gave a short concert in the Park on Tuesday evening. A large number of our citizens listened to the excellent music.

Rheumatism, disordered blood, general debility, and many chronic diseases, prove themselves to be often cured by Brown's Iron Bitters.

The dwelling house and store of A. Watkins at Milan, have recently been treated to a coat of paint, which adds much to their exterior appearance.

Win. Shoeler, of Athens, was quite badly hurt by being thrown from a wagon recently, in consequence of his team becoming frightened and running away.

N. C. Elsbare had a buggy badly demolished in North Towanda, one day recently, by a colt that was latched to it becoming frightened and running away.

Rev. A. W. Hood and Fred P. Evans of Athens, published a bright and chatty daily paper during the Sayre Loan Exhibition, which closed on Decoration Day.

It is said that in consequence of a lack of encouragement, the contemplated Lock and Waverly will not be built at present.

The Southern Central received 50 tons of steel rails last week, and as much more is yet to be delivered. This will complete the steel track from Auburn to Sayre.

A little boy, son of Wilber Waterman, of Herrickville, met with an accident in that village, one day recently, which resulted in the breaking of one of his legs.

The Canton Sentinel says that Mrs. M. Morse was eighty-five years old on her birthday last week, and wants to know how she can best spend her time.

Protection Hose Bank, of Athens, gave a strawberry and ice cream festival on Tuesday afternoon and evening. The proceeds are to go towards purchasing new uniforms.

The June quarterly meeting of the Disciples of Christ, will be held with the church at Granville Centre, commencing tomorrow, June 2nd, and to continue over Lord's day.

Overworked men and women, persons of sedentary habits, and others whose system needs reinvigoration, deserve food, and muscle strengthened, should use Brown's Iron Bitters.

Times being pretty good, it is said that a number of the nice young men of Waverly have decided to leave just as soon as they can find girls who can support them comfortably.

A petition is being circulated asking for the uniting of the three school districts adjoining the Moore Borough district with that district and the establishment of a Graded School.

The Welborn Gazette says that Sexton John Miller, of the Welborn cemetery, has held his present position nine years. During that time, he has dug 303 graves, an average of 33 1/2 a year.

Ex-Sheriff Layton, evidently intends to raise large crops on his Litchfield farm, as he has recently built a barn 40 x 60 with a very handsome attached to the barn is a framed shed 30 x 50.

"The Tower and pleasure grounds at Pugh, are to be opened to-day, Wednesday, for the season. Ice cream will be served both afternoon and evening, and good music will be in attendance.

Says a Green's Landing correspondent: "Hand corn planters are coming into general use among farmers in this section. They do good work and are much better than the old process—sowing time."

A young lad, son of John Bateman, of Athens, was thrown over a fence by a vicious cow one day recently. He was not seriously injured although he was badly bruised by the horns of the animal.

While at work on the roof of Mr. Denton's barn in Athens, on Tuesday last week, Ben Robinson, of that village, fell to the ground and escaped with no more serious injury than a badly sprained wrist.

The Waverly Advertiser says that our former townsmen, W. H. Shaw, has at the Opera House Restaurant, in that village, a veranda standing nine feet high, with 49 blossoms. It is more than a curiosity.

J. M. Ayers, of North Towanda, cut his hand quite badly with a knife one day last week. Fears are entertained that he will lose the use of the thumb even though amputation should not prove necessary.

A barn in North Towanda, belonging to Guy Hulton, while being repaired, was blown over one day last week and badly wrecked. Two of the men at work upon it narrowly escaped being seriously injured.

John P. McIntyre, a boy of fifteen, left his home on Wednesday afternoon last, and a liberal reward is offered by his parents to any one who will induce him to come home or give information as to his whereabouts.

A correspondent at Laceyville, who signs himself "Lover of Law and Order" should look to sign his real name to communications to newspapers, and thus avoid writing contributions for the editorial waste basket.

A dress-making shop having recently been opened in Smithfield, the correspondent of the Athens Gazette cries aloud for a tailor to locate there. Whatever use can a newspaper correspondent have for a tailor, anyway?

One of the principal attractions at the Sayre Loan Exhibition was a "feather picture" loaned by Mr. R. A. Packer and valued at $2,500. It is said to be the finest specimen of that unique workmanship in America.

Milton Clark, an employe in Black's blacksmith shop, Canton, had an artery severed in his arm by a flying scale of iron. The wound is not a serious one, although the young man had quite profusely eroded medical aid arrived.

The Waverly Tribune is now printed by Noble & Noble, Mr. Reynolds having retired from the business. We still insist that the Tribune is an excellent paper, and if the Waverly people do not give it a generous circulation, they will be liable to the charge of "not knowing a good thing when they see it."

Capt. Wm. has received from the Adjutant General's office copies of the Adjutant General's Manual, to be loaned to each member of his Company who qualified as a marksman, under State regulations last year.

The Troy Gazette says that Priam Lodge, No. 247, of Old Followers of that place, are having a handsome hall fitted up in what was Oliver's Hall, in the new block. The room, when finished, will be very handsome and centrally located.

The residence of Hon. T. L. Chatfield, in Owego, was burglarized on Friday night, and the burglar carried off seven hundred dollars worth of silverware, and several hundred dollars worth of other property, carried off. No clue to the robbers as yet.

Brilliance of colors seems to be the leading characteristics of the spring and summer fashions. Purple and red in all varieties of shade and tints are the favorite colors. Green is also very fashionable, especially the olive and bronze tints.

Last Sunday being the Day of Pentecost, or the day of the baptism of the Holy Spirit, the Rev. Mr. Peter and Paul were filled with a devout congregation to celebrate Mass and to listen to an instructive sermon by the Pastor, Rev. Father Kelley.

The old toll house at the east end of the Chemung bridge at Athens, was destroyed by fire at five o'clock Saturday morning. The building was owned by John Nicholson and occupied by Justin Morley, who saved only the household goods down stairs. The building was one of the old landmarks.

The Troy Baptist Sunday School have elected the following officers: P. K. Barlow, Sup't.; Andrus Gass, Asst. Sup't.; W. E. Chilson, Sec'y.; Angus Striker, Treas.; Jas. Mosher, Librarian; Mrs. Geo. Beardslee, Asst. Lib'n.; Jennie Rockwood, Organist.

While ploughing at Green's Landing, recently, Howard Drake found a hunter's skinning-knife. A correspondent says it is a relic of the days when the valley was ploughed, and that the settler was likely to have been in the ground so long that only the blade remains.

Judging from the reckless way in which our Waverly exchanges last week attached credits to several local items, we should surmise that the editors of those w. e.'s were addicted to the use of intoxicants. In giving credit care should always be taken to render to Caesar that which is Caesar's belong.

The Farmers of Chemung county will have a basket picnic at James McCann's place, near State fair grounds, near Elmira, on Wednesday, June 21st. The meeting will be addressed by Hon. Heman Glass, of Rochester, and others. This meeting will be open to farmers without reference to society connection.

The Lehigh Valley Railroad Company is making extensive improvements at Glen Onoko, near March Chunk. "An elegant depot, in which will be run in the near future, in which will be erected a dancing hall, and there will be a fountain. The new hall and grounds will be opened with a ball and picnic on the Fourth of July.

While out boat riding on the Susquehanna, near Sheesque, one day recently, Mr. Geo. Rogers and Miss Nettie Fuller, were thrown into the water by the capsizing of their boat. That Miss Fuller was not drowned may be attributed to the fact that Mr. Rogers is an excellent swimmer and a cool man in the face of danger.

John Scanlan of Bardonia, a brakeman on the Barclay railroad, met with a painful accident on Friday last, at Weston Station. He fell between the cars and his right arm was dreadfully lacerated, the flesh being literally stripped from the bones, between the wheels to the tip of the fingers. The injured man was brought here and his wounds dressed by Drs. Johnson and Pratt.

The Chemung county agricultural society has issued its pamphlet containing the price list and regulations for the annual exhibition which will be held on the State fair grounds at Elmira the 19th, 20th and 21st of September. If you desire to pursue the catalogue, send to Wm. A. Ward, Secretary, Elmira, who will furnish you with 50 with a very handsome attached to the barn is a framed shed 30 x 50.

A brakeman on Freight Train No. 83, named Thomas Moore, fell from the top of a freight car, near the upper depot, Tuesday morning, striking on his head, and killing him almost instantly. He was about 23 years of age, unmarried, and lived at Pittston. Justice Coddling summoned a jury and held an inquest. A verdict was returned of accidental death. A verdict was returned of accidental death.

Waverly boys pitch pennies on Sundays when their parents are praying for them at church. A correspondent writes that Waverly boys have no pennies to pitch—Towanda boys always attend Sunday School and put their pennies in the missionary box. A awful good boy in Towanda. No bad boys at all. Bad boys all in Waverly.

Says the Elmira Advertiser, of Saturday last: "Dr. C. W. Brown is building a flat boat, with a cabin, which he will be with Preacher Hard, Lawyer Schwartz, Editor Copeland and Druggist Brown, in a boat to float down the river from Elmira to Wyalusing on the Susquehanna, as soon as the weather and water become warm enough to catch black bass. The ark will be a model of architectural beauty."

The Troy Register is of the opinion that the N. C. R. W., deserve the thanks of the citizens of Troy, for the fine walk which they have made through their property on Main street in that village. If some of the property owners in this village were to lay new sidewalk in front of their premises on Main street, we should be in favor of the whole populace meeting in the Park and adopting a series of resolutions commendatory of the act.

Says the Troy Gazette: "Martin S. Jenner, who lives in the upper part of our village is an ingenious mechanic and makes a very handy household article in the shape of an ironing table. It is easily adjusted and proves very satisfactory to those who use it. It can be folded so as to take up very little room, and can be easily changed into a step ladder by folding another way. Persons who, in these house cleaning times, happen to need a step ladder will appreciate this handy article."

E. C. Northrup, of Owego, who has devoted much time and study for the past six years to the making of improvements in Feed Cutters, has just been granted a patent on a Feed Cutting Machine that is pronounced the best thing of the kind ever brought out. The cutter employs the "diamond cut" and is very easy to operate. The manufacture of the machines will be commenced at once, and we advise all who want anything of the kind to examine the cutter at the Northrup before purchasing.

It is a matter of general complaint, says the Harrisburg Telegraph, that there has of late grown up a class of dead-heads here, in the name of professional service, claim fees admission to all places of amusement. Recently surprised her husband in the act of "occupying" the hired girl. Of course there was a scene, but was pronounced not to divulge the particulars, so reluctantly confined—Waverly Tribune. Oh, the villain! But then, what better could you expect of a man living so near Waverly!

"Nora Waverly." The Doctor knows what is talking about for he was a surgeon in the U. S. Navy for twelve years and was in some of the most exciting naval combats of the late war of the Rebellion.

Rev. Hugh Hedges, the eloquent Wexham, who delivered an entertaining and instructive sermon on Friday evening last, preached at Monroeton on Sunday and lectured in that place on Monday evening.

Invitations are out for the marriage of David McAllister Turner, Editor of the Journal and Miss Anna Cornelia Smith, of Rock Avon, Pa. The ceremony will take place at Christ Church, Thursday, June 1st, at two o'clock.

Mrs. Jerusha Beaman, died in Pike township, on May 10th, at the advanced age of 97 years, 6 months and 24 days. She is said to have been the oldest person in this section of the county.

Ed. E. LaMont who has been engaged for a short time in the Troy Register office, has concluded to abandon the "Art Preservative" and learn to make wagon wheels. He has taken a position in a shop at New Windsor, Ill.

Col. Caldwell, and daughter Mrs. M. E. Clinton, on Friday evening last, after an absence of about two months in England and Europe. His many friends gave him a royal welcome to his "native heath."

Mr. and Mrs. Cyrus D. Camp, late of Tunkhannock, and now residents of Minneapolis, Minnesota, are visiting in this place, for the purpose of visiting their son, Dr. D. Leonard Pratt, formerly of Towanda, and who is the physician in attendance.

Mr. Ed. Mason and wife, who came to this place from Kansas City to visit relatives have concluded that old Bradford is best for a home, after all. Mr. Mason has taken a position in a new machine shop and will move to that place soon.

Mr. and Mrs. Clark Wilson are meeting with the most flattering success in the work of gospel temperance, wherever they go in the United Kingdom. The English papers are very friendly to work and speak of them in terms of unqualified praise.

Rev. C. T. Hollowell delivered an able and eloquent sermon on the duty of observing Decoration Day, on Sunday evening last. Watkins Post attended the Baptist church in a body, on that evening, in order to hear the Rev. Mr. Hollowell's patriotic address.

Cards are out for the wedding of Chas. P. Rogers, of Waverly, formerly in the employ of this place, and Miss Elizabeth Keeler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Keeler, of Wyalusing. The ceremony will take place June 14—Tunkhannock Republican.

Dr. W. F. Lewis, and wife, of Chicago, are in this place on a general family tour. After remaining here a few days they will go to Harrisburg, and visit Gov. Hoy, who is a brother of Mrs. Lewis, and from there return to their western home. The Doctor is one of the leading physicians of Chicago, and enjoys a large and remunerative practice.

Col. J. McKim, candidate on the Independent ticket for Secretary of Internal Affairs, accompanied by his wife, who is a niece of Mrs. David Wilcox of this place, were guests at the Ward House on Tuesday evening. At the conclusion of the concert, the band went into the parlors of the Ward House office and played a tune, and Maj. Merrick was introduced and made a brief speech.

Miss Huldah A. Rockwell, died at her residence in Pike, May 24, 1882, aged 73 years and one day. She was born on the farm where she lived, and was the daughter of a good woman, and leaves a brother and sister unmarried in the same household, and numerous friends to mourn her loss. In life she was always happy and cheerful in administering to each other's wants, and always enjoyed the society of her many friends.—Lehigh Valley Advertiser.

Watkins Post G. A. R., have unanimously requested Rev. C. T. Hollowell's sermon of last Sunday evening, for publication.

Mrs. L. L. Lyon, of Mahanoy City, Schuylkill Co., accompanied by her little daughter, is visiting her sister Mrs. M. L. Burns.

Miss Isabella Rutty, of North Towanda, who recently suffered a severe attack of malarial fever, is slowly regaining her health.

E. C. Gridley, Esq., and family have just returned to this place, after a visit to the West. Mr. Gridley was absent a couple of months.

Sheriff Deegan of Lajporte was in town on Monday last, with a prisoner, whom he conveyed to Cherry Hill, Philadelphia, on Monday night.

Mr. George M. Bailey, of Lehighville, has gone on a visit to friends in Dunmore, Lackawanna county, and will remain there several weeks.

Mrs. Clara Blackwell, of West Burlington, spent last week in Troy, and assisted in the anniversary exercises of the Troy Graded School.

Hon. Thomas Ryan, best left for Colorado on Wednesday evening last, where he will spend the summer as a superintendent of a mining company.

Leslie Kerrick, of Troy, who was injured by the cars and had one of his legs amputated recently, is doing well and it is thought will recover.

Mr. Thomas Ryan, formerly a Towanda boy, has been recently nominated for the fourth term in Congress by the Third Kansas district.

Rev. Albert L. Smalley, pastor of the M. E. Church, of Waverly, has been granted a vacation of a couple of months for a trip to Europe this summer.

H. A. McCall, an old and respected citizen of this place, died on Friday night of uremic convulsions. He was seventy-three years of age.

Mr. John F. Corser, of Chestnut street, is enjoying a visit from his venerable father, who is a well-preserved gentleman of nearly ninety years of age.

Hon. Thomas Ryan, best left for Colorado on Wednesday evening last, where he will spend the summer as a superintendent of a mining company.

Leslie Kerrick, of Troy, who was injured by the cars and had one of his legs amputated recently, is doing well and it is thought will recover.

Mr. Thomas Ryan, formerly a Towanda boy, has been recently nominated for the fourth term in Congress by the Third Kansas district.

Rev. Albert L. Smalley, pastor of the M. E. Church, of Waverly, has been granted a vacation of a couple of months for a trip to Europe this summer.

H. A. McCall, an old and respected citizen of this place, died on Friday night of uremic convulsions. He was seventy-three years of age.

Mr. John F. Corser, of Chestnut street, is enjoying a visit from his venerable father, who is a well-preserved gentleman of nearly ninety years of age.

Hon. Thomas Ryan, best left for Colorado on Wednesday evening last, where he will spend the summer as a superintendent of a mining company.

Leslie Kerrick, of Troy, who was injured by the cars and had one of his legs amputated recently, is doing well and it is thought will recover.

Mr. Thomas Ryan, formerly a Towanda boy, has been recently nominated for the fourth term in Congress by the Third Kansas district.

Rev. Albert L. Smalley, pastor of the M. E. Church, of Waverly, has been granted a vacation of a couple of months for a trip to Europe this summer.

H. A. McCall, an old and respected citizen of this place, died on Friday night of uremic convulsions. He was seventy-three years of age.

Mr. John F. Corser, of Chestnut street, is enjoying a visit from his venerable father, who is a well-preserved gentleman of nearly ninety years of age.

Hon. Thomas Ryan, best left for Colorado on Wednesday evening last, where he will spend the summer as a superintendent of a mining company.

Leslie Kerrick, of Troy, who was injured by the cars and had one of his legs amputated recently, is doing well and it is thought will recover.

Mr. Thomas Ryan, formerly a Towanda boy, has been recently nominated for the fourth term in Congress by the Third Kansas district.

Rev. Albert L. Smalley, pastor of the M. E. Church, of Waverly, has been granted a vacation of a couple of months for a trip to Europe this summer.

H. A. McCall, an old and respected citizen of this place, died on Friday night of uremic convulsions. He was seventy-three years of age.

Mr. John F. Corser, of Chestnut street, is enjoying a visit from his venerable father, who is a well-preserved gentleman of nearly ninety years of age.

Hon. Thomas Ryan, best left for Colorado on Wednesday evening last, where he will spend the summer as a superintendent of a mining company.

Leslie Kerrick, of Troy, who was injured by the cars and had one of his legs amputated recently, is doing well and it is thought will recover.

It was decided to hold the next session to Asylum Grange Hall in August.

The following which were unanimously adopted: Resolved, That this Pomona Grange tender a vote of thanks to the Trustees of the church of Granville Centre for the use of their church for our Grange meeting.

Resolved, That we tender a vote of thanks to the Sisters of this Grange for their untiring efforts in entertaining the brothers and sisters of the Pomona Grange, and for their unflinching support in our efforts.

At 12 o'clock one of the most interesting professional sessions of the Grange has ever been held.

Promptly at 2:45 p. m., the column formed on Park Street, and moved north on Main street in the following order: 1—Germania Band.

2—Orator and Chery. 3—Burgess and Town Council. 4—County Officials. 5—Girls representing the United States.

6—Company of Soldiers' Sons. 7—Watkins Post, No. 48, G. A. R. 8—Older Sons of the M. E. A. R. 9—Co. A, 8th Regiment, N. G. P. 10—Honorary discharged Soldiers and Sailors.

11—Towanda Lodge, G. O. P. 12—Franklin Fire Co. No. 1. 13—Naiad Fire Co. No. 2. 14—Mantua Hook and Ladder Co. No. 4.

15—Cherry. The line of march was up Main street to Canal street, down Canal street to William street and up William street to the cemetery.

Upon arriving at the cemetery a square was formed around a handsome evergreen monument, erected in memory of the dead comrades who died in the late war.

1—Music by the Germania Band. 2—Address by the Post Commander. 3—Prayer by the Post Chaplain. 4—Hymn by Quartette.

5—Decorations Ceremonies at the Monument. 6—Dirge by the Band. 7—During the dirge Co. A, 8th Reg't, N. G. P., formed in line facing the altar and immediately after the dirge fired three volleys with blank cartridges.

After the firing they deployed as skirmishers across the cemetery, and advancing left a guard at each grave marked as the resting place of a soldier.

Watkins Post formed in the rear of Company A, and advancing placed a basket of flowers on each grave. During the time the Post was engaged in decorating the graves, the band played appropriate music.

At the conclusion of the ceremonies of decorating the graves, the column was reforming and marched out of the upper cemetery, and marched over the route taken in going to the cemetery, to the public square, where the following program of exercises was gone through with:

1—Music by Germania Band. 2—Prayer. 3—Hymn by Quartette. 4—Hymn by Rev. A. E. Enos. 5—Address, "America."

6—Prayer and benediction. The Rev. Enos's address was a very able one, and was listened to with the closest attention by the large assembly.

After the benediction, the throng of people quietly dispersed satisfied that the day had been appropriately and fittingly observed, and thankful that no accident of any kind had occurred to mar its exercises.

Details from Watkins Post went to Liberty Corner, Shores Hill, Ghent and Hornbrook, in the band went into the graves of dead comrades in those places.

At Hornbrook several hundred people assembled, an address was made by Rev. Mr. Blair, and Ada May Chaffee recited an appropriate poem.

The exercises of the commencement week of the Susquehanna Collegiate Institute for the twenty-eighth year will be as follows: Anniversary Sermon, Rev. C. T. Hollowell, Presbyterian Church, Sunday, June 4.

Lecture before the Literary Societies, Rev. Thos. K. Beecher, Mercier Hall, Tuesday evening, June 6, 8 p. m. Festival and Social, parlors Presbyterian Church, Wednesday evening, June 7, from 6 to 9 p. m.

Meeting of committee to organize an Alumni Association of the graduates, Philomath Hall, Thursday, 8 p. m. Commencement Exercises, Mercier Hall, Thursday evening, June 8, 8 p. m. Term Examinations, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday.

All the exercises will be free, and a cordial invitation is extended to all to attend.

Supper Party. The friends of Mr. and Mrs. Anson Dunn, of Standing Stone, gave them a very pleasant surprise on Saturday, May 27th, the occasion being their 20th wedding anniversary.

The party went off satisfactorily in every respect. The presents received were estimated at between fifty and one hundred dollars in value, and were all of the most useful and desirable kind.