Simple Remedies for Emergencies.

Very few young mothers are able to control their nerves so completely as to keep from being startled when confronted with a cut finger with dripping blood and the loud cries which announce a catastrophe. Sometimes she cannot collect her thoughts sufficiently to recall any good remedies with which she is acquainted. One way to avoid this is to write out a list of help in trouble and tack it upon the door of your room, after the manner of hotel regulations. There is nothing better for a cut than powdered rosin. Get a few cents worth of rosin, pound it until it is fine, and put it into an empty, clean pepper or spice box with perforated top; then you can easily sift it out on the cut; put a soft cloth around the injured member and wet it with cold water once in a while. It will prevent inflammation and soreness.—In doing up a burn, the main point is to keep the air from it. If sweet oil and cotton are not at hand, take a cloth and spread dry flour over it, and wrap the burned part in it. It is always well to have some simple remedies in the house where you can get them without a moment's loss of time; a little bottle of peppermint, in case of colic, chlorate of potash for sore throat, and pepsin for indigestion. Have them arranged so that you could go to them in the dark and reach the right remedy, but be sure you never do it, even if you know they have not been disturbed; always light a lamp or the gas and be sure you have what you are after. Remember that pistols are always loaded, and that poison may be put in place of peppermint.

The Mild Professor.

A very good story is told of an eminent Oxford professor who at one time had very considerable influence over the minds of many of the young men of the university, and was supposed to pursue a Socratic method in eliciting the dormant powers of the young men. He knew how to be silent, and also how to talk, especially in the saloons of the great and wealthy. One day he invited a promising undergraduate of the great intellectual college to take a walk with him. The young gentleman was slightly flustrated with the honor of the invitation, and was prepared to pick up any golden grains of truth which might be let fall on his account. They walked out as far as Iffly, but to his great surprise a stolid silence was consistently maintained by the mighty being whom he was to accept as his guide, philosopher, and friend. At last, as they turned back from Iffly, Lock the undergraduate ventured to observe: "A fine day, Professor." The professor vouchsafed no reply, but strode back silent into Quod, and the young fellow did not have strength of mind to renew his attempt. As they entered beneath the archway the professor fixed his keen philosophic glance upon him, and mildly said: "I did not think much of that remark of yours."—[London Society.

The Homes of Dead Authors.

John M. Courtenay, the former proprietor of Idlewild, made many improvements on that interesting place, and now that he is dead it is again in the market. Idlewild will long be remembered as the former home of Willis, who there studied nature and found her influence more healthy than the excitement of fashionable society. Here he passed what really were his best days, and visitors to Cornwall are always attracted to this spot by his memory. Fifty miles further down the Hudson is Sunnyside, the former residence of Washington Irving. It still remains in the family, but in common with all that vicinity, it suffers from malaria. In old times the ailment was unknown. The Hudson River railroad however, has impaired the drainage of the country to such a degree during the last thirty years that the damage seems irreparable. The "cottage," as Irving familiarly termed it, is near the bank of the river, of which it has a fine view. The grounds include a dozen acres, and the whole place is in care of Robert, the gardener, who has been in the family service more than a third of a century. Irving's nieces occupy the cottage as a summer residence, but spend their winters in New York. Bryant's former residence at Roslyn still remains in the family's possession, but will be sold as soon as a satisfactory price can be obtained. The place has suffered from malaria which, indeed, is so great a scourge that any one who will produce an assured preventive will be accounted a public benefactor and would also reap an immense fortune.

A Card.

We take great pleasure in calling the attention of our friends and customers to Dr. Bosanko's Cough and Lung Syrup which is perfectly harmless, pleasant to the taste, will not nauseate, and gives relief almost instantly. It matters not how severe your Cough may be, how many cough medicines you have tried, or how many physicians you have consulted, the tonic, soothing and healing properties of this medicine will loosen it and assist the Throat and Lungs to expel the offending matter, leaving them in a healthy condition, free from irritation, and the air passages clear, besides invigorating and strengthening the general system. Price 50 cents. For the positive cure of Consumption, Coughs, Colds, Asthma, Bronchitis, Dry Hacking Cough, Loss of Voice, Irritation of the Throat, Soreness of the Chest, Pains in the Lungs, Spitting of Blood, Croup, Influenza, Whooping Cough, and Lung Fever, we recommend this medicine above all others.

MORAL GEMS.

Character is higher than intellect.

A good example is the best sermon.

Ill deeds are doubled with an evil word.

Men mark the hits, but not the misses.

Great truths are often said in fewest words.

A man must stand erect, not be kept erect by others.

A learned fool is more foolish than an ignorant fool.

The ignorant hath an eagle's wings and an owl's eyes.

Man cannot live exclusively by intelligence and self-love.

Love is a severe critic. Hate can pardon more than love.

Memory records services with a pen, injuries with a graver.

It is a good rule to be deaf when a slanderer begins to talk.

Character is the diamond that scratches every other stone.

Nothing so buttresses character as a great victory over a great foe.

Never anything can come amiss when simpleness and duty tender it.

The greatest art of an able man is to know how to conceal his ability.

The less we parade our misfortunes the more sympathy we command.

People believe that life is hap-hazard therefore their health is hap-hazard.

Nature never hurries; atom by atom, little by little she achieves her work.

Life, is like the waters of the sea, fresh only when it ascends toward heaven.

We ought to be contented with what we have, but never with what we are.

Anger and jealousy can no more bear to lose sight of their object than love.

The law of inertia is the strongest law upon the sick, therefore rest frequently.

There is no malady or sickness more severe than not to be content with one's lot.

There is a past which is gone forever, but there is a future which is still our own.

Economy is half the battle of life; it is not so hard to earn money as to spend it well.

A Clear Complexion

Can be had by every lady who will use Parker's Ginger Tonic. Regulating the internal organs and purifying the blood it quickly removes pimples and gives a healthy bloom to the cheek. Read about it in other column.

Cheating in Cards.

Dr. Gaye, a leading physician at Pau, a municipal councilor and a knight of the legion of honor, has been tried for cheating at cards. His methods are said to have been three in number. When he found he had a good hand, he would secretly increase his original stakes by adding coin that had been concealed in the palm of his hand. Again, he would place a gold coin under a silver one, and only uncover it when he had won. Thirdly, he had a way of withdrawing a part of his stake if the game went against him. When these doings were first learned the doctor's friends would not believe his accusers. A watch was then set upon him, and the swindling was proved to the satisfaction of all. From the club he was forthwith expelled, his name was taken from the legion of honor list, and the public prosecutor secured a sentence against him of two months in jail and a fine of forty dollars.

Society Belles

Are loud in their praise of Floreston Cologne on account of its remarkably delicate and lasting fragrance.

Missing a Train.

A school boy in Boston went out of town one Monday morning to visit a youthful friend, and was strictly enjoined to return the following Saturday evening. He had—to quote from one of his letters to his family—"a red-hot time," and when Saturday came around he packed up his trunk with great reluctance and amid loud expressions of regret from his friend that he must depart so soon. He had to drive about three miles to catch the train, and a'though conscientiously using all the speed he could, he arrived at the station about five minutes after the cars had departed. He accordingly went to the nearest telegraph office, and, to allay the anxiety which his non-appearance might occasion at home, compiled and dispatched the following message: "Missed the train; will be back next Thursday." This is considered by his family the worst case of being "left" on record.

Annoyance Prevented.

Gray hairs are honorable but their premature appearance is annoying. Parker's Hair Balsam prevents the annoyance by restoring the youthful color.

A western woman named her girl baby after a noted lady, and wrote to her about it. The lady sent a thick, heavily-sealed envelope 'not to be opened until the babe's thirtieth birthday.' It was a terrible revenge to take.—Philadelphia News.

"BUCHUPAIBA."

Quick, complete cure, all annoying Kidney, Bladder and Urinary Diseases. $1. Druggists.

It was Longfellow who slily described the lady as wearing flowers 'on the congregation side of her bonnet.'—Springfield Republican.

A law against swearing went into effect in New York city on the first inst. This is a blow at independent journalism, and if strictly enforced will pay off the debt of the city during the present year.—Norristown Herald.

"ROUGH ON RATS."

Clears out rats, mice, roaches, flies, ants, bed-bugs, skunks, chipmunks, gophers. 15c. Druggists.

There never was a law in New England forbidding a man to kiss his wife on Sunday. It probably never was needed.—Boston Transcript.

PILES.

Piles are frequently preceded by a sense of weight in the back, loins and lower part of the abdomen, causing the patient to suppose he has some affection of the kidneys or neighboring organs. At times symptoms of indigestion are present as flatulency, uneasiness of the stomach, etc.—A moisture like perspiration, producing a very disagreeable itching, particularly at night after getting warm in bed, is a very common attendant. Internal, External and Itching Piles yield at once on the application of Dr. Bosanko's Pile Remedy, which acts directly upon the parts affected, absorbing the Tumors, allaying the intense itching, and affecting a permanent cure where all other remedies have failed. Do not delay until the drain on the system produces permanent disability, but try it and be cured. Price, 50 cents. Ask your druggist for it, and when you cannot obtain it of him, we will send it, prepaid, on receipt of price. Address The Dr. Bosanko Medicine Co., Piqua, Ohio. Sold by Clark B. Porter, S. End of Ward House Block.

Dr. Richmond & Co's SAMARITAN

CURES AND NEVER FAILS.

NERVINE

The only known Specific Remedy for Epileptic Fits.

SAMARITAN NERVINE

Cures Epileptic Fits, Spasms, Convulsions, St. Vitus Dance, Vertigo, Hysterics, Insanity, Apoplexy, Paralysis, Rheumatism, Neuralgia, and all Nervous Diseases. This infallible remedy will positively eradicate every species of Nervous Derangement, and drive them away from whence they came, never to return again. It utterly destroys the germs of disease by neutralizing the hereditary taint or poison in the system, and thoroughly eradicates the disease, and utterly destroys the cause.

SAMARITAN NERVINE

Cures Female Weakness, General Debility, Leucorrhœa or Whites, Painful Menstruation, Ulceration of the Uterus, Internal Heat, Gravel Inflamation of the Bladder, Irritability of the Bladder. For Wakefulness at night, there is no bettr remedy. During the change of life no female should be without it. It quiets the Nervous System, and gives rest, comfort, and nature's sweet sleep.

SAMARITAN NERVINE

Cures Alcoholism, Drunkenness and the habit of Opium Eating. These degrading habits are by far the worst evils that have ever befallen suffering humanity. Thousands die annually from these noxious drugs. The drunkard drinks liquor not because he likes it, but for the pleasure of drinking and treating his friends, little thinking that he is on the road to ruin. Like the Opium Eater, he first uses the drug in small quantities as a harmless antidote. The soothing influence of the drug takes strong hold upon its victim, leading him on to his own destruction. The habits of Opium Eating and Liquor Drinking are precisely what eating is to alimentiveness, as over-eating first inflames the stomach, which redoubles its cravings until it paralyzes both the stomach and appetite. So every drink of liquor or dose of opium, instead of satisfying, only adds to its fierce fires, until it consumes the vital force and then itself. Like the gluttonous tape-worm, it cries "Give, give, give!" but never enough until its own rapacity devours itself. Samaritan Nervine gives instant relief in all such cases. It produces sleep, quiets the nerves, builds up the nervous system, and restores body and mind to a healthy condition.

SAMARITAN NERVINE

Cures Nervous Dyspepsia, Palpitation of the Heart, Asthma, Bronchitis, Scrofula, Syphilis, diseases of the Kidneys, and all diseases of the Urinary Organs. Nervous Debility, caused by the indiscretion of youth, permanently cured by the use of this invaluable remedy. To you, young, middle-aged, and old men, who are covering your sufferings as with a mantle by silence, look up, you can be saved by timely efforts, and make ornaments to society, and jewels in the crown of your maker, if you will. Do not keep this a secret longer until it saps your vitals, and destroys both body and soul. If you are thus afflicted, take Dr. Richmonds Samaritan Nervine. It will restore your shattered nerves, arrest premature decay, and impart tone and energy to the whole System.

THE MOST SUCCESSFUL REMEDY ever discovered, as it is certain in its effects and does not blister. Also excellent for human flesh READ PROOF BELOW.

FROM COL. L. T. FOSTER.

Youngstown, Ohio, May 10th, 1880.

DR. B. J. KENDALL & Co:—I had a very valuable Hambletonian colt which I prized very highly, he had a large bone spavin on one joint and a small one on the other which made him very lame; I had him under the charge of two veterinary surgeons which failed to cure him. I was one day reading the advertisement of Kendall's Spavin Cure in the Chicago Express, I determined at once to try it, and got our druggists here to send for it, they ordered three bottles; I took them all and thought I would give it a thorough trial, I used it according to directions and the fourth day the colt ceased to be lame, and the lumps have disappeared. I used but one bottle and the colts limbs are as free from lumps and as smooth as any horse in the state. He is entirely cured. The cure was so remarkable that I let two of my neighbors have the remaining two bottles, who are now using it.

Very Respectfully,
L. T. FOSTER.

ON HUMAN FLESH.

Patten's Mills, Wash'ton co., N.Y., Feb. 21, '81.

DR. B. J. KENDALL, Dear Sir:—The particular case on which I used your Kendall's Spavin Cure was a malignant ankle sprain of sixteen months standing. I had tried many things, but in vain. Your Spavin Cure put the foot to the ground again, and for the first time since hurt, in a natural position. For a family liniment it excels anything we ever used.

Yours truly,
