

A CURIOSITY OF COURTSHIP. The two thousand Choctaw still living in their ancestral homes in Mississippi retain in their primitive vigor many of the usages of their ancestors. Among these are the methods employed in conducting a courtship and the marriage ceremony. When a young Choctaw, of Kemper or Neshoba county, sees a maiden who pleases his fancy, he watches her opportunity until he finds her alone. He then approaches within a few yards of her and gently asks a pebble toward her, so that it may fall at her feet. He may have to do this two or three times before he attracts the maiden's attention. If this pebble throwing is agreeable, she soon makes it manifest; if otherwise, a scornful look and a decided "No" indicate that this suit is in vain.

Miscellaneous Advertisements. STRENGTH. to vigorously push a business, strength to study a profession, strength to regulate a household, strength to do a day's labor, without physical pain. All this represents what is wanted, in the often heard expression, "Oh! I wish I had the strength!" If you are broken down, have not energy, or feel as if life was hardly worth living, you can be relieved and re-energized by taking BROWN'S IRON BITTERS, which is a true tonic—a medicine universally recommended for all wasting diseases.

A PUZZLED BOARD OF EDUCATION.
At an examination of a public school on Staten Island, one of the scholars failed in a problem. The teacher said 'Ladies and gentlemen, I shall write a gentleman of the audience to work out the sum on the board. John Smith upon the book and read that question.' The scholar obeyed and read out: Add fifteen-sixteens and nine-elevens.
