BY THE STREAM.

Sweet tangled popples...

Once more I see the flash of splendid wings...

Once more I feel the simple, fresh content...

When golden summers slowly crest and wreat...

I find amid the honeycuckoo flowers...

Old broods nestle in lonely hours...

O God of nature, how thy kindness keeps...

Some changes things on earth!

And to who roam far off and tell me things...

Come home to learn their way.

Gay visions vanish, worldly schemes may fail...

But stay my native stream, and pale...

Besto my native stream.
