New Life
is given by using Brown's Iron Bitters. In the Winter it strengthens and warms the system; in the Spring it cures the blood and conquers disease; in the Summer it gives tone to the nerves and digestive organs; in the Fall it digests the system to stand the shock of sudden changes.

SELECT POETRY.
THE SPIDER WEB.
Who but a fairy
Ever lived in a house so airy?
And from the finest gossamer,
A wonderful, shining, airy house,
Swung here in a sweet-lair bough,
Sprung some kind, queen of the air,
Must needs be the queen of some fair.

MISCELLANEOUS.
THE INVALID CLERK.
It was the twilight of a crisp, cold winter day. Outside, the cawing of a flock of belated crows made sorrowful music, as their wings were outlined against the deepening evening sky.

DEPRIVED LITERATURE.
Few people in circulation have any idea of the tremendous circulation of his sensational literature. There never was a time when there was so much good juvenile reading, but it is far exceeded in amount by that which is now being published.

AN ARTILLERYMAN'S ANECDOTE.
After we had been driven away from about Newberne, N. C., by the Federal gendarmes, we fell back to a point near Tarboro, N. C., where we had not long been encamped before the boats followed, causing the general to countermand the order to the inhabitants of the region.
