WORSHIP IN THE WOODS

How rich the embossed carpet spread,

On either side the common way :

Ames and purple, gold and red,

With shades between,

Woven with light in scenes unseen.

The dandelion's disk of gold,

With lustre decks the meadows green,

And the day's light the verdant scene;

The blue mist's plumes

In white to be their perfume.

MALARIA

Malaria is an almost indescribable malady which not even the most talented physicians are able to fathom. Its cause is most frequently ascribed to local surroundings, and there is very little question, but this opinion is substantiated by facts. Malaria does not necessarily mean "chills and fever," while these troubles us-sually accompany it. It often affects the sufferer with general lassitude, accompanied by loss of appetite, sleeplessness, a tired feeling, and feverishness.
