THURSDAY, AUGUST 31, 1882.

Republican State Ticket.

GOVERNOR. JAMES A. BEAVER, of Centre Co. LIEUTENANT-GOVERNOR. WILLIAM T. DAVIES, of Bradford Co.

REPUBLICAN COUNTY CONVENTION.

Pursuant to a resolution of the Republican Standing Committee, of the County of Bradford, a Convention of the Republican party will convene at the Borough of Towanda on TUESDAY, the FIFTH DAY OF SEPTEMBER next, at one o'clock p. m., to nominate candidates to be voted for at the next general election to be held on TUESDAY, the 7th day of NOVEMBER next.

The Vigilance Committees of the several election districts will call primary meetings at the usual places holding notices of election for their respective districts on SATURDAY, the 2nd day of SEPTEMBER, 1882, to elect by ballot two delegates to represent each district in said Convention.

The Delegate elections in the several Boroughs, and in Barclay and Ulster Townships will be opened at 10 o'clock p. m. in Adhous Township, third district, at 5 o'clock p. m., to close at 7 o'clock p. m. in North Towanda Township at 5 o'clock p. m. to close at 8 o'clock p. m., and in all other Townships at three o'clock p. m., to close at 5 o'clock p. m.

The Committee of Vigilance are requested to give written notices of election to the primary election and to carefully observe the above rules in conducting the same. Every Republican elector in the county is urgently requested to attend the primary meetings and take part in said election.

W. J. YORCO, Chairman.

ment has hardly gone so far that it is considered any credit to a man to be an atheist. In this country there is a dependent class, a class that is not self-sufficient, a class that is not self-reliant, a class that is not self-sustaining.

Says the Philadelphia North American: "The Democratic practice of rejecting in advance our partisan victories that are expected to happen is a very curious thing. It is a thing that has not been done by a President of the United States for twenty-six years past since if the party did not rejoice in advance, it would in all probability have no opportunity at all for exultation and shouting."

Don't forget to have yourself assessed sixty days before the election. If you are twenty-two years old on the day of election you can't vote unless you have been assessed and paid a county tax. The assessment must have been made sixty days and the tax paid thirty days before the election and within thirty days after the election.

The Mexican government appears to have made up its mind that a dead Indian is far less troublesome than a live one, and has consequently determined upon a policy of extermination to stop the repeated raids. This will probably be a distressing news for the People's Committee, but over the long run of compensations it will possibly be accepted as a welcome relief by the long harassed border settlers.

If you wish to go back to the good time reality of the Democratic party, they will give you a good time. They will give you a good time. They will give you a good time. They will give you a good time.

The Bureau of Statistics of the Treasury Department furnishes the following immigration statement: During the month of July, 1882, there arrived in the various customs districts of the United States 70,639 passengers, of whom 65,010 were immigrants, 3,827 citizens of the United States, and 1,799 aliens.

Now that all the arctic exploring expeditions have either got lost or got back, we propose that the next adventurous party to give written notices of election to the primary election and to carefully observe the above rules in conducting the same.

In the announcement of candidates for nomination by the Republican County Convention for the legislature last week, we are informed since of one other, which we omitted, and whose name we add to the list. The list thus corrected, is, as far as we have been able to ascertain, as follows:

The soldiers of the Confederate army are at work with the aid of popular approval and contributions from various sources, securing a fund to pay a certain amount to the widows and orphans of their fallen comrades. From the statistics of the fund, it is seen that the work is being done in a most successful manner.

The Republican delegate elections for the respective districts of this county will be held in accordance with rules prescribed by the County Committee and laid down in their published call, on Saturday next, September 23. It is to be hoped that the voters will be present in large numbers.

The registration of medical practitioners in Pennsylvania is nearly completed. The Pennsylvania Medical Society, Philadelphia, has been notified that the registration is nearly completed.

Two of the strongest advocates of free trade are the Philadelphia Record and the New York World, and both journals have articles on Friday about the proposed subject. To the seeker after the truth who reads both articles there must have come a deep conviction.

The Democrats of the York and Adams district are having a lively contest over the congressional nomination, in which Congressman Belthover, of York is likely to come out second best and the nomination will be accorded to an Adams county man.

There should be but one governing motive with the delegates who will compose the Republican County Convention on Tuesday next, and that is to make a ticket of the best men before the Convention, having due regard for the wishes of the Republicans of their respective districts.

The Democratic papers that are publishing a comparison of the appropriations of the several Congresses for the past ten years to specify one item of $100,000,000 in last year's appropriation make necessary to pay pensions to maimed soldiers in the late rebellion which was waged by Democrats, South, and encouraged by Democrats, North.

Of course there is no reason in this country why infidels and atheists should assemble in convention if they so mind, but here or elsewhere it is hard to discover any sufficient reason why they should. Even in this nineteenth century march of what is sometimes miscalled enlightenment.

blo for it. He is charged by his opponent with an intention, if defeated in the nomination, to run a dependent class, a class that is not self-sufficient, a class that is not self-reliant, a class that is not self-sustaining.

The Republicans of Lehigh County held their annual county meeting at Trichersville, on Saturday last. General Beaver, Senator Davis and Grier, of the Republican State ticket were present and addressed the people. The attendance was large, and the meeting highly enthusiastic.

Some of our Republican friends find fault with us for using the terms "political bosses" and "party bosses." We would be glad if there was no occasion for using them. But in treating of the past and present history of politics, national, State and county, we can find no words that better convey a correct idea of the situation, especially so in reference to the State Conventions of 1880 and the National Convention of 1880. If they would fold hands off and permit a fair expression of the popular will there would be no occasion for the use of the terms. But bossism is not confined entirely to the Republican party.

We learn that through an amicable understanding between Col. Overton and Mr. Jadin and their friends, there will be no contest between them in the convention of this county, for the nomination for Congress, leaving the question to be settled by the conference of the District. In such case, Col. Overton will without doubt, be conceded the conference of Bradford County, and there will be harmony in our convention on this question.

There must however, as a basis of such action, be a manifest disposition of honesty and fairness both in the selection of conferees, and also on the part of the conferees in the conference. As an earnest of such a disposition, the conferees selected should not be prominently identified with any faction of the party, but men who have at heart more than any other motive, the harmony, strength, and success of the ticket as represented by the candidates.

The candidates before the conference, should themselves confer together in the utmost good faith, and so treat each other as that there will be no ground for charges of scheming, trickery, or deceit after the nomination is made. We entertain the kindest regard, personally, toward all the candidates. They are all good men, but there are reasons affecting the interests of the party, that the candidates should not, and the party will not overlook.

The newspapers and periodicals can do a good work here and are doing much, for many of them have adopted new spellings; but it is a matter for every writer and reader to see to it that they do not do more harm than good. The time for argument is past. We must illustrate and use. We must actually write and read words well.
