

JUDSON HOLCOMB, PROPRIETOR. CHAS. H. ALLEN, Associate Editor.

THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 7, 1882.

Republican State Ticket.

FOR GOVERNOR, Gen. JAMES A. BEAVER, of Centre Co. WILLIAM T. DAYTON, of Bradford Co.

Republican County Ticket.

FOR REPRESENTATIVE, JAMES P. COBURN, of York Co. B. MITCHELL, of York Co.

Public Debt Statement.

The Public Debt Statement, issued Friday, shows the increase of the public debt during the month of August to be $16,128,931.24.

Gov. Hendricks asserted that the Democrats will certainly carry Indiana and elect a majority of the members of the Legislature, and then, says, "the Temperance bill will either be killed or allowed to die a natural death from inertia."

The Towanda Republican says it is unable to see how the reforms proposed aimed at by the "Independents" are to be achieved through the election of the Democratic ticket.

Chauncey F. Black's qualifications for the office of Lieutenant-Governor, summed up from original sources, seem to be that it is an editorial scold on the New York Sun, is a son of Judge Black, is handsome, like General Hancock, weighs two hundred and fifty pounds.

Upon the return of the President, the Assistant Secretary of War, provided for by an act of the last session of Congress, will not be considered by the President, as the impression is that a civilian and not an army officer will be appointed.

The Pittston Gazette says that a gentleman who has been traveling through Franklin county gives it as his opinion that Franklin will not poll over six hundred votes in that county.

The contract for the lease of a portion of the Yellowstone Park, Dakota, to C. T. Hobart, John Douglas, for a period of ten years, was approved Friday by the acting Secretary, Joslyn.

The pressure for the assistant secretaries of the War and Navy departments does not seem to be great.

In no possible way would the election of any candidate for Governor affect the tariff question.

The announcement that a company has been formed for the purpose of sending dressed meat from the western cattle markets to the eastern cities, is a matter of some interest.

From all indications it is not at all probable that Hon. C. S. Judwin's successor in Congress will be disputed.

According to War Department figures says the North American, considerably over five hundred thousand citizens are rated as deserters from the army, being a proportion of about one in four of the total number engaged in the suppression of the rebellion.

REPUBLICAN COUNTY CONVENTION.

On motion nominations for Representative candidate from this County were taken up. Capt. Cole, nominated Col. E. J. Ayers, of Asylum.

On reading of the list of delegates the following named gentlemen answered to their names and took seats in the Convention: Alba—V. M. Wilson, George H. Webb, Albany—H. R. Vanhook, W. H. Rhodes, Armenia—Benj. VanStickle, George L. Conover.

It is probable that many of the proud but deb-burdened nations of the old world will note with amazement that during the summer months of August, when our country is so busy with its crops and recreation, the grand work of wiping out our national debt was going on silently but rapidly at a stupendous pace.

"Train up a child in the way it should go," is a potent suggestion, says the North American, and one which if carefully attended to is likely to be significant in its results.

Bank burglary, says the Philadelphia Bank American, as a fine art, has made rapid strides in the past few years, not only in its methods but in its means.

The Keely motor is coming to the front again. At a meeting of parties interested, held in Philadelphia recently, the inventor announced that he had at last overcome the difficulties of his invention, and that the work on his motor was practically finished.

The Republican County Convention held on Tuesday last passed off, quietly and harmoniously. The candidates are all reputable and good men.

On motion E. M. Tuton was substituted as a delegate from Ridgebury in place of Hector Owen.

On motion D. L. E. Clark, of South Waverly, was empowered to cast the two votes of that district in the absence of Mr. Falkner.

The Convention then proceeded to select the Western nominees for Representative. The names of Capt. B. B. Mitchell of Troy Borough, and LeRoy Holcomb, of LeRoy, were presented.

On motion D. L. E. Clark, of South Waverly, was empowered to cast the two votes of that district in the absence of Mr. Falkner.

REPUBLICAN COUNTY CONVENTION.

On motion nominations for Representative candidate from this County were taken up. Capt. Cole, nominated Col. E. J. Ayers, of Asylum.

On reading of the list of delegates the following named gentlemen answered to their names and took seats in the Convention: Alba—V. M. Wilson, George H. Webb, Albany—H. R. Vanhook, W. H. Rhodes, Armenia—Benj. VanStickle, George L. Conover.

It is probable that many of the proud but deb-burdened nations of the old world will note with amazement that during the summer months of August, when our country is so busy with its crops and recreation, the grand work of wiping out our national debt was going on silently but rapidly at a stupendous pace.

"Train up a child in the way it should go," is a potent suggestion, says the North American, and one which if carefully attended to is likely to be significant in its results.

Bank burglary, says the Philadelphia Bank American, as a fine art, has made rapid strides in the past few years, not only in its methods but in its means.

The Keely motor is coming to the front again. At a meeting of parties interested, held in Philadelphia recently, the inventor announced that he had at last overcome the difficulties of his invention, and that the work on his motor was practically finished.

The Republican County Convention held on Tuesday last passed off, quietly and harmoniously. The candidates are all reputable and good men.

On motion E. M. Tuton was substituted as a delegate from Ridgebury in place of Hector Owen.

On motion D. L. E. Clark, of South Waverly, was empowered to cast the two votes of that district in the absence of Mr. Falkner.

The Convention then proceeded to select the Western nominees for Representative. The names of Capt. B. B. Mitchell of Troy Borough, and LeRoy Holcomb, of LeRoy, were presented.

On motion D. L. E. Clark, of South Waverly, was empowered to cast the two votes of that district in the absence of Mr. Falkner.

REPUBLICAN COUNTY CONVENTION.

On motion nominations for Representative candidate from this County were taken up. Capt. Cole, nominated Col. E. J. Ayers, of Asylum.

On reading of the list of delegates the following named gentlemen answered to their names and took seats in the Convention: Alba—V. M. Wilson, George H. Webb, Albany—H. R. Vanhook, W. H. Rhodes, Armenia—Benj. VanStickle, George L. Conover.

It is probable that many of the proud but deb-burdened nations of the old world will note with amazement that during the summer months of August, when our country is so busy with its crops and recreation, the grand work of wiping out our national debt was going on silently but rapidly at a stupendous pace.

"Train up a child in the way it should go," is a potent suggestion, says the North American, and one which if carefully attended to is likely to be significant in its results.

Bank burglary, says the Philadelphia Bank American, as a fine art, has made rapid strides in the past few years, not only in its methods but in its means.

The Keely motor is coming to the front again. At a meeting of parties interested, held in Philadelphia recently, the inventor announced that he had at last overcome the difficulties of his invention, and that the work on his motor was practically finished.

The Republican County Convention held on Tuesday last passed off, quietly and harmoniously. The candidates are all reputable and good men.

On motion E. M. Tuton was substituted as a delegate from Ridgebury in place of Hector Owen.

On motion D. L. E. Clark, of South Waverly, was empowered to cast the two votes of that district in the absence of Mr. Falkner.

The Convention then proceeded to select the Western nominees for Representative. The names of Capt. B. B. Mitchell of Troy Borough, and LeRoy Holcomb, of LeRoy, were presented.

On motion D. L. E. Clark, of South Waverly, was empowered to cast the two votes of that district in the absence of Mr. Falkner.

REPUBLICAN COUNTY CONVENTION.

On motion nominations for Representative candidate from this County were taken up. Capt. Cole, nominated Col. E. J. Ayers, of Asylum.

On reading of the list of delegates the following named gentlemen answered to their names and took seats in the Convention: Alba—V. M. Wilson, George H. Webb, Albany—H. R. Vanhook, W. H. Rhodes, Armenia—Benj. VanStickle, George L. Conover.

It is probable that many of the proud but deb-burdened nations of the old world will note with amazement that during the summer months of August, when our country is so busy with its crops and recreation, the grand work of wiping out our national debt was going on silently but rapidly at a stupendous pace.

"Train up a child in the way it should go," is a potent suggestion, says the North American, and one which if carefully attended to is likely to be significant in its results.

Bank burglary, says the Philadelphia Bank American, as a fine art, has made rapid strides in the past few years, not only in its methods but in its means.

The Keely motor is coming to the front again. At a meeting of parties interested, held in Philadelphia recently, the inventor announced that he had at last overcome the difficulties of his invention, and that the work on his motor was practically finished.

The Republican County Convention held on Tuesday last passed off, quietly and harmoniously. The candidates are all reputable and good men.

On motion E. M. Tuton was substituted as a delegate from Ridgebury in place of Hector Owen.

On motion D. L. E. Clark, of South Waverly, was empowered to cast the two votes of that district in the absence of Mr. Falkner.

The Convention then proceeded to select the Western nominees for Representative. The names of Capt. B. B. Mitchell of Troy Borough, and LeRoy Holcomb, of LeRoy, were presented.

On motion D. L. E. Clark, of South Waverly, was empowered to cast the two votes of that district in the absence of Mr. Falkner.

REPUBLICAN COUNTY CONVENTION.

On motion nominations for Representative candidate from this County were taken up. Capt. Cole, nominated Col. E. J. Ayers, of Asylum.

On reading of the list of delegates the following named gentlemen answered to their names and took seats in the Convention: Alba—V. M. Wilson, George H. Webb, Albany—H. R. Vanhook, W. H. Rhodes, Armenia—Benj. VanStickle, George L. Conover.

It is probable that many of the proud but deb-burdened nations of the old world will note with amazement that during the summer months of August, when our country is so busy with its crops and recreation, the grand work of wiping out our national debt was going on silently but rapidly at a stupendous pace.

"Train up a child in the way it should go," is a potent suggestion, says the North American, and one which if carefully attended to is likely to be significant in its results.

Bank burglary, says the Philadelphia Bank American, as a fine art, has made rapid strides in the past few years, not only in its methods but in its means.

The Keely motor is coming to the front again. At a meeting of parties interested, held in Philadelphia recently, the inventor announced that he had at last overcome the difficulties of his invention, and that the work on his motor was practically finished.

The Republican County Convention held on Tuesday last passed off, quietly and harmoniously. The candidates are all reputable and good men.

On motion E. M. Tuton was substituted as a delegate from Ridgebury in place of Hector Owen.

On motion D. L. E. Clark, of South Waverly, was empowered to cast the two votes of that district in the absence of Mr. Falkner.

The Convention then proceeded to select the Western nominees for Representative. The names of Capt. B. B. Mitchell of Troy Borough, and LeRoy Holcomb, of LeRoy, were presented.

On motion D. L. E. Clark, of South Waverly, was empowered to cast the two votes of that district in the absence of Mr. Falkner.

REPUBLICAN COUNTY CONVENTION.

On motion nominations for Representative candidate from this County were taken up. Capt. Cole, nominated Col. E. J. Ayers, of Asylum.

On reading of the list of delegates the following named gentlemen answered to their names and took seats in the Convention: Alba—V. M. Wilson, George H. Webb, Albany—H. R. Vanhook, W. H. Rhodes, Armenia—Benj. VanStickle, George L. Conover.

It is probable that many of the proud but deb-burdened nations of the old world will note with amazement that during the summer months of August, when our country is so busy with its crops and recreation, the grand work of wiping out our national debt was going on silently but rapidly at a stupendous pace.

"Train up a child in the way it should go," is a potent suggestion, says the North American, and one which if carefully attended to is likely to be significant in its results.

Bank burglary, says the Philadelphia Bank American, as a fine art, has made rapid strides in the past few years, not only in its methods but in its means.

The Keely motor is coming to the front again. At a meeting of parties interested, held in Philadelphia recently, the inventor announced that he had at last overcome the difficulties of his invention, and that the work on his motor was practically finished.

The Republican County Convention held on Tuesday last passed off, quietly and harmoniously. The candidates are all reputable and good men.

On motion E. M. Tuton was substituted as a delegate from Ridgebury in place of Hector Owen.

On motion D. L. E. Clark, of South Waverly, was empowered to cast the two votes of that district in the absence of Mr. Falkner.

The Convention then proceeded to select the Western nominees for Representative. The names of Capt. B. B. Mitchell of Troy Borough, and LeRoy Holcomb, of LeRoy, were presented.

On motion D. L. E. Clark, of South Waverly, was empowered to cast the two votes of that district in the absence of Mr. Falkner.

REPUBLICAN COUNTY CONVENTION.

On motion nominations for Representative candidate from this County were taken up. Capt. Cole, nominated Col. E. J. Ayers, of Asylum.

On reading of the list of delegates the following named gentlemen answered to their names and took seats in the Convention: Alba—V. M. Wilson, George H. Webb, Albany—H. R. Vanhook, W. H. Rhodes, Armenia—Benj. VanStickle, George L. Conover.

It is probable that many of the proud but deb-burdened nations of the old world will note with amazement that during the summer months of August, when our country is so busy with its crops and recreation, the grand work of wiping out our national debt was going on silently but rapidly at a stupendous pace.

"Train up a child in the way it should go," is a potent suggestion, says the North American, and one which if carefully attended to is likely to be significant in its results.

Bank burglary, says the Philadelphia Bank American, as a fine art, has made rapid strides in the past few years, not only in its methods but in its means.

The Keely motor is coming to the front again. At a meeting of parties interested, held in Philadelphia recently, the inventor announced that he had at last overcome the difficulties of his invention, and that the work on his motor was practically finished.

The Republican County Convention held on Tuesday last passed off, quietly and harmoniously. The candidates are all reputable and good men.

On motion E. M. Tuton was substituted as a delegate from Ridgebury in place of Hector Owen.

On motion D. L. E. Clark, of South Waverly, was empowered to cast the two votes of that district in the absence of Mr. Falkner.

The Convention then proceeded to select the Western nominees for Representative. The names of Capt. B. B. Mitchell of Troy Borough, and LeRoy Holcomb, of LeRoy, were presented.

On motion D. L. E. Clark, of South Waverly, was empowered to cast the two votes of that district in the absence of Mr. Falkner.

RAILROAD TIME-TABLE.

Table with columns for Station, Time, and Direction. Includes routes like Towanda, LeRoy, and Asylum.

LEHIGH VALLEY & PENNA. N.Y. RAILROADS.

Table with columns for Station, Time, and Direction. Includes routes like Lehigh Valley and Pennsylvania.

WESTWARD.

Table with columns for Station, Time, and Direction. Includes routes like Westward and Lehigh Valley.

WESTWARD.

Table with columns for Station, Time, and Direction. Includes routes like Westward and Lehigh Valley.

WESTWARD.

Table with columns for Station, Time, and Direction. Includes routes like Westward and Lehigh Valley.

WESTWARD.

Table with columns for Station, Time, and Direction. Includes routes like Westward and Lehigh Valley.

WESTWARD.

Table with columns for Station, Time, and Direction. Includes routes like Westward and Lehigh Valley.

WESTWARD.

Table with columns for Station, Time, and Direction. Includes routes like Westward and Lehigh Valley.

WESTWARD.

Table with columns for Station, Time, and Direction. Includes routes like Westward and Lehigh Valley.