Republican State Ticket.

GOVERNOR: GEORGE BEAVER, of Centre Co. LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR: WILLIAM T. DAVIES, of Bradford Co.

Republican County Ticket.

FOR CONGRESS: EDWARD OVERTON, JR. FOR REPRESENTATIVE: JAMES F. COOPER, JOHN E. JAYERS, B. B. MITCHELL.

FOR SENATOR: NELSON E. GILBERT.

The Albany Times says that Col. McClure is now endeavoring to discover how two men who do not belong to the land league could manage to sell that organization to the Republican party.

A resolution introduced at the meeting of the Roman Catholic Central Society at Mill-wook last week, was certainly a peculiar one for such a gathering.

There is no person who pretends should become a much larger article of export than they have ever been.

The Troy Gazette, of last week, gets down to the bed-rock of truth when it says: "There is one only issue in the triangular fight going on in Pennsylvania, and that is the issue between the Democrats and the Republicans."

The effort to represent independent candidates on the train of opposition to republicanism in great numbers, leads some parties to quote from their hopes rather than from facts.

The Treasury Department has prepared a statement of the reduction of the public debt since its maximum date, which was August 31, 1865.

On the other hand, the gentlemen who are pushing the fortunes of Mr. Stewart seem rather too confident under all the circumstances.

The Republican party is not perfect — no party ever has been or ever will be — but it is not a rash assertion to make that it has done a grander work for the welfare of the country than any party that has ever existed.

It has been so grandly pursuing since the Republicans came into power in 1860. There is no sense in Republicans pulling each other to pieces for the gratification and benefit of their common political enemy.

The solicitude of the Democratic press for the welfare of the Independent is beautiful to behold. The idol of Damon and Pythias is frigid in comparison.

The following, which we copy from the North American, goes directly to the important points to be considered in the present campaign.

The gentlemen who are pushing Mr. Patton begin to realize that an inquiring public may want to know why, if that gentleman has such a keen sense for morality, he never unearthed the Almshouse crookedness until somebody else had run the quarry to his hole.

A copy of the following letter has been addressed to the several candidates for the legislature.

Dear Sir:—You are, I learn, a candidate for the Legislature—the law-making branch of our government.

The Bradford Armys prints a wood-cut of the Democratic candidate for Secretary of Internal Affairs of the State, J. Simpson Africa.
