Oh, My Back!

That's a common expression and has a world of meaning. How much suffering is summed up in it.

The singular thing about it is, that pain in the back is occasioned by so many things.

May be caused by kidney disease, liver complaint, consumption, cold, rheumatism, dyspepsia, overwork, nervous debility, &c.

Whatever the cause, don't neglect it. Something is wrong and needs prompt attention.

No medicine has yet been discovered that will so quickly and surely cure such diseases as

Brown's Iron Bitters, and it does this by commencing at the foundation, and making the blood pure and rich.

Logansport, Ind. Dr. J. H. K. For a long time I have been a sufferer from stomach and kidney troubles.

And the very small amount I had used of your medicine cured me.

And, having a deep sigh, Nettie Clare said she had never felt so well.

SELECT POETRY.

BIRTHDAYS. I am content To let the added years

Roll back like the past to you. That memory

Can find about the shores Some perfect shells, and nothing more.

I am content That seaweed, bits of wreck

And pebbles gray, Drift out of sight like you.

I am content For them to stay

Unmoved be the cherub and pain I would not, must not, feel again.

I am content That none of life

Can ever be forgotten. Live! or with self-made throbs and thrills;

No more to me With wrong, but do not to you, Fill the new measure of my joy.

I am content To live all of today;

And when the dream Let fancy revel in the light

That hope has seen. Beyond the sunset, when the stars

Are shining, brightly-beating stars.

I am content— For me upon the heart

And when, at last, in slumber, I am content, in slumber, I am content, in slumber,

I am content, in slumber, I am content, in slumber, I am content, in slumber,

I am content, in slumber, I am content, in slumber, I am content, in slumber,

And as the spook she wove a London paper over her head.

"What do you mean?" said Nettie.

"A chance for you to meet this invincible man, who has been explained to me."

YIELDING TO SCIENCE.

Was a Stockman of Wyoming Territory Quit the Cattle Business?

"I shall never handle cattle any more," said Patrick Healy the other day while talking with a Wyoming stock man.
