the hero of one of the most gallant episodes of the late war. He bore the colors of his egiment at Ball's Bluff, and when, during esperate charge, his Colonel was shot, he bore him from the field, and then re-turned, amid a hail of bullets, to rescue the flag. Five times was it captured by the rebels and regained by Vansant in a handto-hand struggle. At last he broke away with the flag and reached the river. His enemies were at his very heels, but he blunged into the water. dived to the botom, placed the flag there under a stone, and then swam to the other shore and escaped. Afterward he revisited the spot and succeeded in finding and restoring to

"Female Complaints." Dr. R. V. PIERCE, Buffalo, N. Y.: Dea Sir-I was sick for six years, and cou scarcely walk about the house. My breath was short and I suffered from pain in my breast and stomach all the time; also from palpitation and an internal fever, or burn ing sensation, and experienced frequent smothering or choking sensations. I also affered from pain low down across my bowels and in my back, and was much reduced in flesh. I have used your "Golden Medical Discovery" and "Favorite Prescription," and feel that I am well.

Cabinet with a Little Quotation. "Now, gentlemen, you s'il have more or less postry in your souls; liston to this," and Abraham Lincoln, then President, rose from his chair, in his office in the White House, and read in trembling tones, which indicated his own profound appreciation of it, Dr. O. W. Holmes." Last Lesi," of which the following are two verses:

They say that in his prime.
Ere the pruning knife of time
Cut him down;
Not a better man was found
By the crier in his round
Through the town. Now the mossy marbles rest On the lips that he had pressed In their bloom: Have been carved for many a year On the tomb."

IN POLITICS the Advertiser will be unswervingly Republican, and, while it maintains its featty to all the time-honored printiples of the party, it will continue to critically cise in a direct, honest and conscientions cise in a direct, honest and conscientions. nanner, whatever it sees in memor measures, in its judgment, adverse to the best interests of the country and the promotion of the public good. Recent events have of the public good. Recent events have shown that the masses of the republicans, series of eight lette a from ina ion, are heartily opposed to machine politics, and are desirous of restoring the scepter of power to the hands which the founders of the party declared to be the proper, ones to the hands which the proper, ones to the hands which the proper, ones to the hands which the founders of the party declared to be the proper, ones to the hands which the founders of the party declared to be the proper, ones to the hands which the founders of the party declared to be the proper. the party declared to be the proper, ones to wield it—the hands of the sovereign people.

Upon that idea, upon the doctrine that in this God-founded untion the will of the majority should be the respected law of the land, the Advartiser lages its political faith.

The New Era in American H jority should be the respected law of the land, the Advertiser bases its political faith. Upon that doctrine it supported the ticket nominated at Saratoga, though denouncing, from the outset, whatever of trickery and administrative interference there was in the composition of that convention. Upon the composition of that convention. Upon that doctrine, also, it opposes those men who, because they hold certain reins of the Zuni tribe of Indians. If the power, are attempting to over-ride the will of the many in the interests of the factional "The Whits House," etc. ew. The Advertiser represents no faction; it represents the principles of the republican party, the interests of the whole country. And it will continue to do so fearlessly, unlinchingly and with all its strength.

The Advertiser believes in givil service reform and will advocate the passage of such laws as will secure it. It believes that such laws as will secure it. It believes that ures of The Century, as heretood magazine will continue its advantage of steellence. office should be such as to prevent removals at the whim or caprice of the appointing power. It is opposed to the spoils system and will do what it may to destroy it. That system has wrought untold evil in public affairs and the time has come when it should be swept away.
IN NEWS—The Advertiser will keep equal pace with the best papers of the state. It will publish the complete Associated Press reports and supplement them with special telegrams from a large corps of cor-paper will contain more telegraphic matter than ever before—a fact which will be greatly appreciated by distant subscribers.

CORRESPONDENCE—It has a represenative in every village and town in its territory, and is thus enabled to give all items of interest and importance as they occur. This feature of the Advertiser renders it intier counties of New York and the northern tier counties of the Keystone state.
THE LOCAL DEPARTMENT is in the ands of a careful, wide-awake editor who fresh interest; brilliant roman or s assisted by energetic reporters and correspondents. No item of legitimate news will be over looked but a complete summary of each day's happenings will be given. The Advertiser will, however, refrain from invading individual, corporate or family rights and exclude, so far as possible, all detailed reports of disgusting crimes, vulgar and profane testimony, and other matters which are not of a character fit for freshest matters of interest in ti general reading nor safe to place in the and in Europe—the whole completely hands of the young.
