Christmas Day the Rifle team shot for three medals a silver cup presented by H. Baldwin, a gold pen and pencil and a silver napkin ring presented by the Club...

The first prize was awarded to A. C. Fanning whose score was 44; the second prize to Dr. G. W. Gregory, whose score was 44; and the third to J. H. Baldwin whose score was 42. It was a rather dark day, with a head wind—Troy Gazette.

At a recent meeting of the Sullivan County Agricultural Society the following officers were chosen: President—Edward Bergan; Vice-Presidents—John G. Wright, Benjamin Vaught; Treasurer—Hon. M. A. Rogers; Rec. Secretary—N. Martin; Cor. Secretary—E. A. Strong; Ex. Com.—F. Hunsinger, J. W. Rogers, David McHenry, Lyman Baker, Warren H. Edkins, And. Coon, J. G. Wright, J. H. Lawrence, G. C. Jackson.

It is impolite to say "check," says "Anchorage,"—Bradford Republican. That settles it for the editor of that paper is authority on all matters of check—Waverly Advertiser. Correct. We know every one of the Waverly editors personally.

The Troy Gazette says that W. C. Pearce, of Alba, of the Troy Farmers' Club, from six cows whose average a trifle under four years old, Durham and grade Jerseys, made 1834 lbs of butter, not making allowance for the amount used in the family.

In answer to an anxious correspondent we state that the Adam monument project is by no means dead—Troy Advertiser. We Adam himself died—Waverly Advertiser. Certainly Adam is dead. Has not Mark Twain stood beside his grave and wept?

The lot corner of Main and Bridge streets, formerly occupied by the Means House, has been sold by Col. Means, to J. P. Kirby and J. H. Clark, of Chemping. It is rumored that a first-class hotel building will be erected thereon during the coming summer.

A book bindery is soon to be started at Waverly. The man about to engage in that enterprise has faith enough to move to Waverly, and the building of a mill to be run by water on a mountain, and what's the use of a book bindery where there are no books!

The following is a list of officers elected by the Baptist Sunday School of Troy, for the ensuing year: Supt.—Rev. J. B. French; Asst. Supt.—Mr. Geo. Beardsley; Secretary—W. E. Chilson; Treasurer—Mary Williams; Organist—Edith French; Musical Director—P. N. Barker.

It is reported that the building on Main street formerly occupied by Coddling & Russell as a hardware store, is to be made into a book store, and the building owned by J. F. Corser, who will take into partnership in the shoe trade Mr. Frank Smith, and the new firm will be known as Corser & Smith.

The employees of Humphrey Bros. & Tracy, made that firm a present a few days since of a beautiful gift chandelier to be hung up in the office of their new building that they are moving into this week. The incident would indicate the existence of a mutual good feeling, creditable alike to employers and employed.

As follows are the officers for the present term of the Troy Graded School: W. M. C. H. Warner, S. W.—Fay H. Pierce, J. W.—Franklin Bricker, Secretary—E. H. Stevens, Treasurer—Wm. B. Stevens.

Says the Athens Gazette of last week: "Miss Elsie has broken ground in the 'meadow' for a two story building 23x70 ft. He intends living up stairs, and the first floor will contain some light wood working machinery, planers, scroll saws, etc., which will be run by water from the creek at an adjacent location. So that business, we would think."

An observing exchange says: "It is a pity how inclined some people are to take lines never intended for them, while those who are really aimed at never feel hit in the least. Newspaper publishers particularly find this true. When a dun is put in it is taken by those who always pay promptly, while the delinquents never think it means them."

The question, "How long is it necessary to keep children away from school after an infectious disease?" was answered some time since by the Academy of Medicine, Paris. With scarlet fever, diphtheria, measles and small-pox, isolation is to be maintained for forty days. Chicken-pox and mumps lose their contagious power after twenty days.

The Cayuga wheel and foundry company should thank their generosity and appreciation of their workmen, by making every man in their employ, a New Year present. The single men each received a pair of nice gloves, while the married men and their families returned thanks for the fine turkey, which graced their tables that day.—Waverly Free Press.

The supreme court has decided that a street is an unjustifiable encroachment on the public highway, prejudicial to the interest of the community and the right of individual property owners in the neighborhood, and that it is a public nuisance, the continuance of which the courts of equity in this State have power to restrain.

Mr. J. S. Chaffee, of Rome, recently bought an exceedingly fat roset of A. G. Frisbie, from which 30 lbs. of tallow was tried. The live weight was 233 lbs. The roset was a "cornet sheet" or a cornet sheep either—Waverly Advertiser. Probably something after the style of the "waxed carpet" the Reporter said was used at the Naad Reception.

The February number of the North American Review is to contain an article on "The Experiment of Universal Suffrage," by Prof. Alexander Winchell; a discussion of "The Revision of the Constitution," by a group of distinguished writers; a paper entitled "The Decay of Protestantism," by Bishop McQuoid; and a defense of the Standard Oil monopoly, by Senator Camden.

A Towanda maiden hung up her stockings for Santa Claus, and her brother coming home later, mistook it for a new striped blouse blanket and taking it to the barn covered his wife with it. And the other brother, who was doomed to disappointment—Waverly Advertiser. The above is true. The young maiden and her brother moved from Waverly to this place a few months ago.

The young lady arising in the morning and instead of returning thanks for her preservation during the night, she hastened into the mirror to see if her curls were being blown to her by the dancing herons of the Presbyterian church, at their church parlors, on Wednesday evening of last week, were $85.70.

The first annual reception of Division No. 1, A. O. H., of Waverly will be given Wednesday evening, Jan. 24th. The Advertiser says a grand time is anticipated.

At the 64th meeting of the Western Branch, New Year Eve, Rev. Smith, who organized the church 40 years ago, was present and addressed the people.

C. M. Hall, Esq., removed his office from the Mercantile block to the rooms corner of Main and Pine street, Noble block, immediately under the REPUBLICAN office.

Nov. 28, Ed. Whitaker, drunk; arrested by Stevens; fine and costs, $2.70; committed.

Nov. 30, Jerry Whalon, drunk and disorderly; arrested by Dimmock; fine and costs, $4.70; committed.

Of the above fines the Treasurer acknowledges the receipt of one dollar and thirty cents (1.30) from Burgess Ayer, for, Rosendahl, Walker, Alger, Burgess.

By a notice by the Burgess and Town Council of the Borough of Towanda, and it is hereby enacted by authority of the same:

That the public alley 25 feet in width, along the line of land in possession of Wm. Walnut Leaf Hair Restorer. It is entirely different from all others. It is a clear safe restorer, and its name indicates, it is a perfect Vegetable Hair Restorer. It will immediately free the head from all dandruff, restore gray hair to its natural color, and produce new hair where hair has fallen out. It does not in any manner affect the health, which Sulphur, Sugar of Lead and Nitric Acid preparations have done. It will change light or faded hair in a few days to a beautiful glossy color. Ask your druggist for it. Each bottle is warranted. SUTTS, KLEBE & CO., Wholesale Agents, Philadelphia, and HALL & RUCKEN, New York.
