LINCOLN READS A POEM. Honest Old Abe Entertains his Cabinet with a Little

Quotation. "Now gentlemen, you all have more or less poetry in your souls; listen to this," and Abraham Lincoln, then President, rose from his chair, in his office in the White House, and read in trembling tones, which indicated his own profound appreciation of it, Dr. O. W. Holmes "Last Leaf," of which the following are two verses:

"They say that in his prime, Fre the praying buile of time. Curying down; Not a better man was found By the crier in his round Through the town. Now the mossy marbles rest
On the lips that he had pressed
In their bloom;
And the names he loved to hear
Have been carved for many a year
On the tomb."

On the tomb."

Mr. Michael Guilfoyle, of Binghamton, N. Y., is not as old as the venerable Boston citizen of whom the poet wrots with such tender pathos, yet he is more than three score and ten. "For the past eight of those years." he writes, "I have been a perfect cripple from rheumatism, hobbling about as best I could with my cane. I took Panken's Ginger Toxic, and am now supple and strong as a symmat. There is no trace of the disease left about me.

Mr. R. W. Mosher, wholesale druggist, of Binghamton, writes Messrs. Hiscox & Co., of New York—Proprietors of the Tonic—certifying to Mr. Guilfoyle's declaration.

Having all the properties of any preparation of ginger, Parker's Ginger Tonic is a remedy of infinitely greater range and power. It cures all diseases arising from an impure state of the blood or imperfect digestion: "Dyspepsis (and all its consequences), Malarial Fevere, Bick Headache, Kidney troubles, Bronchitis, and common Coughs and Colds, vanish at its touch. Prices, 50 cents and $1 a bottle. Larger size the cheaper.
