Einer der dem Sultan Abdul Hamid $100,000 vermacht.
 Aus Beirut wird berichtet: Ein alter Sultan, der Rentner Sari Nihilim Külli, in Kottbus, hatte dem Sultan Abdul Hamid 190,000 Mark vermacht, damit er in Rom ein Denkmal errichte und dadurch den armen Frieden fördere. Seine Nichte Frauclien Clara K., Garlottenburg, die das Geld hätte gut gebrauchen können, ludte die Auszahlung an dem Sultan zu verhindern, sie wurde aber schließlich vom Kaisergericht beurteilt, in die Auszahlung zu willigen. Ihre Revision, in der sie geltend machte, daß der Erblasser geistig nicht normal gewesen sei und daß er in einem (leider für unglücklich erklärten) Kodizill sein Testament selbst unaufrichtig gemacht habe, wurde jetzt vom deutschen Reichsgericht als unbegründet zurückgewiesen.

Es macht uns nicht immer glücklich, wenn dasjenige nicht erfüllt wird, was uns bestimmt unglücklich gemacht hätte.
 Reichlich ist es, die Kunst vieler - als das Netz eines Einzelnen zu gemessen.

Die Thraneninsel als Musterbeispiel.
 Daß das Erben auf Ellis Island denn doch etwas mehr taugen muß, als es eigentlich scheint, geht aus der Tatsache hervor, daß sogar weibliche Polizisten von Kalifornien hinfommen, um sich die Gesichtsmalchen einmal ansehen. Keine Zufälle, sondern eine reguläre weibliche Polizei, und noch dazu die erste in den Vereinigten Staaten.

Arau Alice Stebbin Wells, die sich auf einer Vorreise durch die Staaten befindet, und vor kurzer Zeit auch in New York schon einen Vorlauf hielt, machte eine Inspektionsreise durch die Einwanderungsgebäude, um die Dame, die eine fahmde Whore zum leuchtenden Polizeibeamten des Departements von Los Angeles trägt, zu treffen, hat man sie ausgeführt um Studien zu machen, da man erwartet, daß nach der Eröffnung des Panama-Pazifischen Eisenbahnsich zu einem starken Einwanderungsland herausbilden wird.
