He may also order an increase of speed, allowing, within the restric-tions of the law, a pro rate increase of pay for the additional stock or carriers, if any. The contractor may, however, in the case of in-crease of speed relinquish the contract, by giving prompt notice to the department that he prefers doing so to carrying the orderinto effect The Postmaster General may also curtail or discontinue the service, in whole or in part, a pro rata decrease of pay, allowing one month's extra compensation on the amount dispensed with, whenever, in his opinion, the public in terests require the change, or in case he desires to supersede it by a different grade of transpor

0. Payments will be made by collections from or drafts on postmasters, or otherwise after the expiration of each quarter-say in February, May, August, and November.

10. The distances are given according to he best information; but no increased pay will e allowed should they be greater than advertised, if the points to be supplied be correctly stated. Bidders must inform themselves on this point, and also in reference to the weight of the mail, the condition of roads, hills, streams, &c. and all toll-bridges, ferries, or obstructions of any kind by which expense may be incurred. No claim for additional pay, based on such ground, can be considered; nor for alledged mistakes or misapprehinsion as to the degree of service; nor for bridges destroyed, ferries discontinued, or other obstructions increasing distances, occurring during the contract term. Offices established after this advertisement is ssued, and also during the contract term, are to be visited without extra pay, if the distance be not increased.

11. A bid received after the last day and hour named, or without the guaranty required by: law and a certificate as to the sufficiency of such guaranty, cannot be considered in competion with a regular proposal reasonable in

12. Bidders should first propose for service strictly according to the advertisement, and bers &c. then, if they desire, separately for different ser-

tions may be considered. 13. There should be but one route bid for in proposal. Consolidated or combination bids, against Frost. ("proposing one sum for two or more routes,") are forbidden by law, and cannot be considered.
