

...the Democracy of Pennsylvania are a right in the support of Henry D. Foster. His well known principles relative to the protection of American industry, and his long and urgent advocacy of Washington of the passage of the tariff bill now before the Senate, have endeared him to the hearts of the working men of Pennsylvania. The record of Mr. Foster on the tariff question is clear and abundant. He is now, and always has been, a strong supporter of a tariff. In December of 1814, the halls of Congress rang with his eloquence in defence of Pennsylvania interests. In the course of a speech delivered December 18, of that year, Mr. Foster said:

"He would state it as a reproach to the American character; that, in his own State, foreign railroad iron had been laid down within six inches of the finest beds of iron in the world. Such iron abounded in Pennsylvania, Missouri, Tennessee, and New Jersey; and yet foreign railroad iron had hitherto been imported, and laid down on all our railroads. He wanted to see the time arrive when, by the perfection of machinery, by the increased skill and by the increased capital of Pennsylvania, they would be able to successfully compete with foreigners without any protection at all. He knew that the time would come; but he would tell gentlemen from the South that it never would arrive unless adequate protection was given to our great interests in the beginning."

The same spirit that prompted the utterance of these remarks still exists in the breast of our candidate for the gubernatorial chair. He has been for some time past at Washington using his influence to secure the passage of the Morrill tariff bill. He knows that bill is one that will promote the interests of the State of Pennsylvania, especially of the working man, and therefore it is that he is working. He has had several interviews with Mr. Hunter, the chairman of the Senate finance committee, and has urged him repeatedly to report the bill to the Senate, as passed by the House, and use his influence for its passage there. What is the Black Republican candidate for the same honor doing? Mark the contrast. While General Foster is at Washington advocating the passage of the tariff bill and the interests of the white people of Pennsylvania, Curtis is stumping in Pennsylvania in behalf of niggerism and the "nigger," and advocating doctrines that must bring the different sections of the country in antagonism to each other, and lead to secession and disunion. This is the contrast between the doings of the Democratic and Republican candidates for the highest office in the gift of Pennsylvania. Read and reflect! But not only is the election of Mr. Foster required on the ground of his tariff policy, his qualifications and ability to discharge the duties connected with the administration of our State affairs are undoubted, and are such as to command the support of all who wish to see Pennsylvania's government successful as it has been under its present rule. With such a noble champion of Democracy as our State standard bearer, Pennsylvania will redeem herself next October from the grasp obtained by the Opposition, Black Republican horde, and will again present herself in the lead of the Democratic ranks.—Pottsville Record.

TERRIFIC HURRICANE.

The Clarion Democrat has the following account of a terrific hail-storm, and Hurricane which has laid in ruin the whole valley of Red bank in Clarion Co.:

Never in our history, as an editor, have we been called upon to record so fearful a calamity as that which visited us upon Wednesday last (30th). Along our southern horizon on that morning we saw traveling rapidly from West to East a stupendous storm cloud, accompanied by heets of vivid lightning, and a deep roaring sound. The rich and beautiful valley of the Red Bank is literally a wreck—houses fell, crushing around their inmates before they could escape; burying the dead and mangled and living in one common ruin. To add to the horrors of the scene, many of the ruins took fire and burned to ashes.

The village of Maysville is entirely demolished, not one building remains standing—twenty-five buildings, including the grist and saw-mills of John Hess, dwelling and store of Col. McFarland and Mr. Haw's Hotel composed the village. The bridge across Red Bank at that place was blown down. We knew of about twenty persons being injured—ten of whom fatally.

Some of the wounded are Mrs. Col. McFarland seriously, herself and one of her children have since died. Mr. Hess and family badly injured. D. Baughman slightly. Mr. Catherine Hawes, badly injured, her babe killed. Mr. Mary Farris and two children seriously injured. John Savy, slightly, and Matthias Light badly injured. Mrs. Shingedecker slightly injured. John Shick slightly wounded. Wm. Stoemaker both legs broken. Messrs. Harrieger and Pitts slightly bruised.

Matthew Stewart's wife and child instantly killed. Families of Messrs. Dougherty, Henry Smith, McMiller, and Stewart injured. Wife and daughter of Jos. Aknan, fatally injured. Wife of Sam'l McCartney badly hurt. Adam Bart badly injured. We have not space to give the full particulars of the damage done. The storm was most undoubtedly one of the most terrific ever experienced in the State.—Hail stones measuring from 7 to 9 inches in circumference were picked up after the storm had passed.

OVERGROWN HAILSTORMS.—A correspondent of the Chicago Press & Tribune, writing from Campaign county, Ill., tells the following touching story:—"The spring has been fruitful in hail-storms. The hail which fell from the storms of the 15th of April, came down almost perpendicularly, and did little damage; yet the stones were large enough to kill the common Mallard duck, and the wild geese in the sloughs, in numbers, and left their marks on newly plowed ground, like the feet of a tom-cat on a recently prepared onion bed."

A letter from New-Haven, Addison County, Vt., dated May 29, says:—"A severe black frost is upon the ground this morning. Fruit, I think must be ruined, for the ice is an eighth of an inch thick."

Whenever you are in doubt which of two things to do, let your decision be for that which is right. Don't hesitate, but square up to the mark, and do the right thing.

Hon. EDWARD EVERETT, has written a letter accepting the nomination of Vice President by the National party.

The Senate has concurred in the House resolution to adjourn on the 18th June.

The reply of the Chinese to the ultimatum of the English, has been published; it rejects all the propositions.

The Massachusetts Legislature has endorsed Sumner's late speech in the Senate, by a vote of 80 to 44.

A meeting of the citizens will be held at the Court House, in Smithport, on Tuesday evening next, for the purpose of making proper arrangements for celebrating the fourth of July. We expect to see a full house.

GARRIBDI is in Palermo, having taken that city, after a desperate struggle. The Royal palace was burned by the populace, after the rebellion will ultimately lead to a general European war.

New altered notes, fives, on the Bank of Northumberland, Pennsylvania, are in circulation. Annexed is the description: 5's, viz: a farmer kneeling and binding sheaves, a female carrying a sheaf, men reaping, and house in the distance; dogs, head on left end.

The pay Assistant Marshals are to receive for taking the census, is two cents per head, for the population enumerated; the same for each death; fifteen cents for each industrial establishment; and ten cents for each farm of which they report the statistics. They also receive a travelling fee necessary to the discharge of their duties.

Our exchanges are already mentioning the appearance of locusts. In some places the trees are completely covered by the masses that cling to them. The destruction of thousands, seems to not diminish the number.

We have been favored by the publisher, with an elegant colored diagram of the great eclipse of the sun, which will take place on the 18th proximo. It shows the exact appearance the sun will have, at the time of its greatest obscuration; noting the variation in time, in the different latitudes. It also contains a good chapter in Astronomy, in which is a history of this eclipse, &c. Send 13 cents to ASA H. SMURR, Post Office Station E, 5th Avenue N. Y.

Mr. WILKIN is now engaged taking the census of this County. The statistics gathered by the Marshal is of vast importance, and answers should be prepared with care and given without hesitation. A refusal to answer the questions in the schedule, subjects the person so refusing to a fine of $30, which can be sued and collected, for the U. S.

ADVERTISEMENTS.—We often hear people say they don't read the advertisements in a newspaper. If they tell the truth, all we have to say is, they lose half the value of the paper thereby. There is nothing in any paper—not even the best conducted local columns—that so truthfully reflects the business, character and population of a city or county as the advertisements in the newspapers. Show us a paper well filled with business advertisements, and we will show you a town prospering in all its relations, surrounded by a community intelligent, enterprising and prosperous.

It is not strange, says the Erie Observer, that a politician who, while his own countrymen were sweltering on the bloody fields of a foreign country, refused to vote them needed supplies, should be the author of a doctrine involving an irrepressible conflict in the heart of his own land. This is the "record" of Mr. Abraham Lincoln. He voted along with Corwin to withhold supplies from our suffering soldiers in Mexico, and he announced the "irrepressible conflict" six months before Mr. Sevier repeated it at Rochester.

WASHINGTON NATIONAL MONUMENT.—C. N. TENNY advertises to receive subscriptions for a steel engraving of WASHINGTON'S TOMB, and Portraits of the Presidents. The purchaser of this engraving, not only gets the worth of his money, but has the gratification of having contributed toward the completion of the Monument.

COL. PATRICK KERR.

The nomination of this gentleman for a Congressman is strongly urged by the Democracy of Clarion County. A letter signed by upwards of sixty prominent Democrats has recently addressed to Col. Kerr, requesting permission to use his name in connection with that office at the ensuing Convention.

The papers of the district all unite in pronouncing Mr. Kerr as, in every respect, worthy the support of the citizens of this district.

Although we hope the claims of our own County may be considered in the Convention, and she be allowed the candidature; it does not prevent the acknowledgment that Clarion has waited long and generally, patiently for the time when one of her own citizens should be selected as Representative in Congress. We copy the remarks of the Clarion Democrat:

"The Democracy of Clarion, the Banner County of this district, have this early expressed their preference for the man whom they desire shall represent them in the next Congress. They have taken this step under conviction of right and with a view to secure the services of one who will be faithful to his constituency and to the country. It is due to this county that her claims be respected. She has never been honored with a representative in the national councils. She has faithfully respected and supported the claims and candidates of other counties. Her democracy is as reliable and as respectable as any in the Union. They work together for the districts, the State and the nation."

Now that one of her most true and faithful citizens has consented to the use of his name as a candidate—used as it is at the urgent request of a large number of the most influential and respected citizens, and upon the assurance that he will be the unanimous choice of the Democratic convention of this county, we look forward to his triumphant nomination, in which event Clarion will ratify her pledges to the party by giving him fifteen hundred of a majority. The personal popularity of the man will win hundreds to his support in this county, that few men can carry. Give Clarion the candidate—let the man be P. KERR, Esq., and victory will perch upon the banner that now drags its ample folds in the dust of defeat—leaving the party without an ensign to direct them.

At the request of several friends who have been annoyed in having their fences destroyed and the rails and boards used for boats and light-wood, by fishing parties, we publish the penalty the law provides for such lawlessness. This action does not prevent the sufferer from recovering the damages sustained. Section third of the Fence Law, provides that;

"If any person or person, from and after the passage of this Act, shall maliciously or voluntarily break down any post and rail or other fence, carry away or destroy any post, rail, or other material of which such fence was built, within this Commonwealth, every person or persons so offending, and being legally thereof convicted before any Justice of the Peace or Alderman within this Commonwealth, shall for every such offence, forfeit and pay the sum of ten dollars, one half thereof to be paid to the informer, and the other half to the support of the poor of such County, Township, Borough or ward where the offence has been committed, together with cost of prosecution; and in default of payment, such person or persons shall be imprisoned in the County Jail, not exceeding thirty days for the first offence, and sixty days for the second."

In mentioning the improvements Mr. HASKELL was making at the "Astor House," we omitted one important item—that he has manufactured an apparatus for generating gas from coal, with which to light his house. He informs us that twenty pounds of coal will produce sufficient gas to supply four burners during three evenings.

The Richmond Convention met on the 11th inst., and resolved, first, that they reassemble at Baltimore, on the 18th inst., second, that the delegates will claim seats in the National Convention to be held there, and thirdly, that it is legitimate to be delegates at both, and that the National Convention have no authority to know officially what has been their action during the session, or what is proposed to do at their reassembling.

BUFFALO, BRADFORD & PITTSBURG R. R.—We learn from the Bradford Miner that the contractors on this road commenced laying the superstructure last Thursday.

WOOL CARDING.—Mr. PEET, of Port Allegany, notifies the public that he is prepared to card their wool on short notice, and in the best manner.

Read GEORGE MASON'S advertisement in this paper. We have met George, at Asa, and can testify that he performs all that he advertises. Among the luxuries served at the "saloon," will be found Ice Cream and fresh Strawberries.

By referring to N. S. BUTLER & Co's. column it will be seen that this firm advertise the second arrival of new Goods at their Store.

F. P. BLAIR, of Missouri, has been admitted to the seat in Congress, occupied by Mr. BARRETT.

They Won't Go Abolitionist.—The New York Express, the organ of the Americans and Old Line Whigs in that State says:

For every Fillmore man going, or gone over to Lincoln, such speeches as Sumner's will knock two back out of the old Fremont ranks. Lincoln will lose hundreds of votes Fremont got. Mauling rails is not up to sleeping with grizzly bears on Rocky Mountains. The "American organs" that go over to Abolitionism now, will have just as much effect as in 1859; no more. The solid 100,000 Old Line Whigs and Americans, in this New York State, are never to be taken over by any newspaper editors, into the bosom of the Abolition party.

We have been obliged to discontinue the Democrat to several subscribers who have not paid. After Court week, we shall cut off all from our list who have not paid, or made satisfactory arrangement, at that time.

WILCOX & PATON are just receiving another supply of new goods, purchased last week by Mr. Wilcox in the greatest quantities. W & P. are both "five men" and they afford their customers all the facilities for buying goods, at cheap rates, that can be obtained at any other establishment in this region. Go in and see for yourselves.—Olean Advertiser.

IN TOWNS—M. A. SPRAGUE, the Dentist.—Mr. S. proposes to remain in Smithport a short time. He will soon be prepared to do plate work.

FACTS TO REMEMBER.—In Pennsylvania the Republicans pretend to be the special friends of a protective tariff, and they abhor the act of 1817. Hannibal Hamlin voted for the tariff of 1846, and is now an ultra free-trader!

The United States government owns 1,000,000,000 acres of land, sufficient to give a home-stead to every inhabitant in the country, man, woman and child. To give homes to the homeless and keep these lands from being the prey of speculators, Congress, at the present session, passed the Homestead Bill. Hannibal Hamlin voted against the bill granting 160 acres of land to our volunteers in the Mexican War.—The soldier and the soldier's friends will remember Mr. Lincoln.

In Cleveland the Republican leaders carry out the principles they profess. They allow negro children to sit side by side with white children in their schools. Upon objection being made to this condition of things, one of the members of the Board of Education said:

"I would rather my little girl should sit BESIDE A COLORED CHILD, than by a FRIZZLY HEADED IRISH, or BARE HEELED DUTCH ONE!"

That is what we call showing their faith by their works—but when election time draws nigh, these same Republican leaders will profess to be the only true friends of the frizzly headed Irish and bare heeled Dutch."

SUPERINTENDENT OF COMMON SCHOOLS.—The duties of Hon. Henry C. Hickok, as Superintendent of Common Schools, terminate today. We feel it to be a duty to bear our humble testimony to the ability and fidelity with which he, and those prominently associated with him, have performed their official labor. Since the organization of the School Department, the Commonwealth never has had an able Superintendent than Mr. Hickok, nor one who took a deeper interest in the cause of popular education. To his efficient management and wise administration of the affairs of the department; we are now indebted for the most perfect system of Common-School Education to be found in any State of this Union.—Harrisburg Telegraph.

Enthusiastic young Lincolnites—if there are any—who intend to take the stamp will take notice that their favorite possesses the following qualifications for President, which they will do well to keep prominently before their audiences when they let by the dogs of Democracy. We call them from the Chicago Press and Tribune: First, he can "split rails and man Democrats." He is "six feet four inches, has a large mouth, and is a great eater." He is "clean and not slovenly." He is "no elaborate politeness, and consequently his politeness is never offensive." He is "not handsome, but his grey eyes are sometimes lighted up with very remarkable light." He "shakes hands very warmly with his friends." His hair is black and wavy, and his general appearance such as women love." "He never drinks," and, amiable and good man that he is, "he never swears but once, and then he said, "G—d—m—em" they shan't do it." But "the never indulged in anything of the kind beyond some similar expression." We now see how it came that Mr. Lincoln was nominated instead of Mr. SEWARD.—Erie Observer.
