

JAMES K. KEAN, Esq.—The election is over, and our nominee for Congress, like Gen. Foster, is included in the general defeat. If he did not win success he did better, for no more gallant fight was made anywhere in the State than by our talented candidate in the twenty-fourth district. In point of oratorical ability, he is without a peer in the district, and had he been elected he would not only have done honor to himself, but reflected credit upon the constituency who sent him to the Hall of the National Legislature.—In this canvass he made many warm and zealous friends, who admire his brilliant talent, untiring energy and steadfast courage. These qualifications combined in one so young, ensures for him a promising future. He is one of the "coming men" of the country, and will, like the Democratic party survive the disaster of the present.—Clarion Democrat.

A CALL TO ARMS.—The Governor of Arkansas, Elias N. Conway, has issued a proclamation to the militia of the State, directing them "to prepare for trouble and danger." Governor Conway expresses the singular belief that the peril of the South comes, not from the North, but from the machinations of Great Britain.—He says:

It is my opinion that the British government is the real author and instigator of the mischiefs and outrages against the slave States, and that it is the duty of the federal government, and of the patriotic people of the United States, to hold the British government responsible for disturbing the domestic tranquility of the United States.

HIS PRINCIPLES.—Abraham Lincoln, the Republican candidate for President, contributed fifty dollars to the fund for purchasing Sharp's Rifles for Jim Lane and Joe Brown of Kansas. This sum would buy two rifles. It was the aid and countenance given Brown by such men as Greeley, Lincoln and Beecher, that impelled him on that career which led to the Harper's Ferry outrage.—Ch. Eng.

INPECTINE, The Persian Fever Charm.

For the prevention and cure of Fever and Ague and Bilious Fevers. This wonderful remedy was brought to the knowledge of the present proprietors by a friend who has been a great traveler in Persia and the Holy Land.

While going down the river Euphrates, he experienced a severe attack of Fever and Ague. On discovering his condition, one of the Boatmen took from his person an Amulet, saying, "Wear this and no Fever will touch you." Although incredulous as to its virtues; he complied, and experienced immediate relief, and has since always found it an effectual protection from all malarious complaints.

On further investigation he found that the boatman attributed to it miraculous powers, and said it could only be obtained from the Priests of the Sun. Sometimes afterwards, the gentleman in conversing with a Priest obtained from him the secret of its preparation, and ascertained where the medicinal herbs were found, of which it was compounded. The wonderful virtues of this article have induced a full belief in the minds of the natives in the miraculous healing powers of their Priests.

Since his return to America, it has been tried with the happiest effect by several Ladies and Gentlemen of high character, who have given it the most unqualified praise. This remedy having been a specific in Prussia for hundreds of years, for the prevention and cure of Fever and Ague and Bilious Fevers—is now offered to the American people.

It will be sent by mail, prepaid, with full directions for use, on receipt of one dollar.
