Discovery of a Cave in Florida.

The following account of the discovery of a remarkable cave in Florida, is from a correspondent of the New York Journal of Commerce, and comes with such appearance of circumstantiality that we copy it entire.

Talleyrand and Arnold.

There was a day when Talleyrand arrived in Harve on foot from Paris. It was the darkest hour of the Revolution. Pursued by the bloodhounds of the Reign of Terror, stripped of every wreck of property, Talleyrand secured a passage to America in a ship about to sail.

FRANCE UNDER NAPOLEON III.

The Philadelphia Bulletin has a well-illustrated article about the remarkable growth of French power and prosperity, and the influence of French political influence, under the Emperor Napoleon.

Useful Medical Hints.

We find the following remarks (by the editor of the Cincinnati, a scientific and agricultural journal, published at Cincinnati, Ohio.)

Don't Stay Long.

"Don't stay long, husband," said a young wife tenderly, in his presence, one evening, as her husband was preparing to go out.

How Much Pork will a Bushel of Corn Make?

The following valuable facts are from the Valley Farmer, upon the question of "how much pork will a bushel of corn make?"

Old Battles Ships.

The commission appointed under Senator Mallory's resolution for an examination of the sailing vessels of war belonging to the United States navy, have completed their survey of the ships at the navy yards, and are now deliberating on the subject.
