McKean County Democrat

Saturday, Sept. 14, 1861.

Democratic Nominations.

FOR ASSEMBLY,

DR. C. R. EARLEY.
R. J. NICHOLSON.

Democratic County Convention.

A Democratic County Convention will be held at the Court House, in Smethport, on Monday the 16th day of September next, for the purpose of nominating suitable candidates to be supported at the ensuing election. The several townships will hold their primary meetings on Saturday evening, the 14th day of September, for the purpose of choosing three Delegates to attend said Convention. A general attendance is earnestly requested.

By order of Co. Com.

JOHN C. BACKUS, Chairman.

WM. WILKIN, Sec'y.

We are credibly informed that the "Side-Hill" Tin Store, still continues in full blast, not having "Seceded," or "repudiated." George is about tending to "Biz."

REMOVED.—W. H. Baker, Jeweler has removed his shop to the building next door to the "Miner" office, where he will be found ready to attend to those desiring his services.

We understand D. R. BENNETT is to take charge of the "Bennett House" during the absence of E. S. MASON. Mr. B. has a large experience in hotel keeping, and the reputation of the house will be fully sustained.

DENTISTRY.—Dr. M. A. Sprague has rooms at the Astor House, west end, and is now prepared to perform all operations belonging to Dentistry on the most approved principles.

OFF FOR THE WAR.—E. S. Mason, who is now at home, having obtained a situation as Sutler to the Kane Regiment, contemplates leaving within a few weeks for the "Seat of War." He will take charge of any recruits that may wish to join the regiment. The public will regret his leaving the "Bennett House," which he has made the popular resort of the traveling public for the past year. We wish him abundent success in his new undertaking.

PIC NIC.—On Saturday last the good people of our borough, enjoyed a pleasant gathering at the "Temple" near town. We understand from one who "was present" that the affair was a perfect success in every particular.—Much credit is due the ladies who furnished the refreshments for the occasion.

PROGRESS OF OUR WELL.—Those having our well in charge, have commenced the work in good earnest. A "derick" has been erected; and the well sunk near twenty feet; already the pump shows oil with the water. Experts who have examined the site, have the utmost confidence of the result in finding oil.

REPRESENTATIVE CONVENTION.—R. J. Nicholson, who was nominated as a candidate for Assembly, by the Democracy, having declined, it will be necessary to nominate another person in his place. It is recommended that the delegates meet at St. Mary's on Wednesday, the 25th of September, for that purpose. Our county Convention, which meets on Monday next, will be in time to take action in the matter.

UNION CONVENTION.—A so-called Union Convention was held at Ridgway on the 5th inst. and put in nomination candidates for the Legislature. It seems a convention was held at Ridgway composed of three men from the counties of Jefferson, Clearfield, and Elk, who were once called Democrats, on the same day, which resulted in naming a candidate to run in conjunction with a black-Republican on a "union ticket." The right of these men to call themselves Democrats, or act for the party may well be questioned when it is understood that the Democracy, of every Township within those counties, according to usage, had already selected suitable persons as candidates for those stations. For the credit of the Democracy of McKean county, no person was found to represent her in that convention.—Among the names of delegates attending we notice those of several whom the Democ—cy have heretofore honored with honorable and lucrative offices. Wm. J. Hemphill, of Clearfield, President of the Convention, was elected to the Legislature in 1850, by the Democracy of the district; the editor of this paper had the pleasure of assisting in this.—(his printing bill remaining unpaid to this day) Charles Horton, and Jerome Powell, of Elk, are indebted to the Democracy of that county for all they are, either politically or pecuniarily. Of the other delegates we personally know nothing, but venture the assertion that they are of the same class. A. I. Wilcox, the candidate put forward by that assemblage, has from his boyhood been honored by his party; a little explanation may perhaps throw some light on his present "union" feeling. He was a candidate for the State Senate in his district; failing to get the recommend of his own county he nevertheless attempted to "engineer" his way through the district convention: in this he also failed. The Democracy having failed to recognize his claim to a seat in either branch of the Legislature, he was at once overpowerningly impressed with the conviction that they were traitors, and lost no time in [illegible] self within the embrace of a [illegible] composed of pure patriots [illegible]ing contributed to place [illegible] State Administration, [illegible]ng a com- that he should stri[illegible] ole question. The Elk Advocate appeared, last week, with four mortal pages, and the entire energies of the editorial corps is exerted (except six lines, in which he agrees, for a consideration of $4, to discontinue the paper to a subscriber who has become disgusted with it.) in our behalf. The writer now says he was not present at St. Marys; perhaps he was not, but the reputed editor was, and also heard the candidate he speaks of declarge his endorsement of the resolutions passed. The writer also informs his numerous readers that "one member of the convention did not approve, or vote for the resolutions and will not support them." Of the truth of this we cannot aver. There was no delegate voted against them, which would have been proper if he had disapproved them.

Then follows a pathetic strain about "patriotism," "our glorious flag," "traitors," &c. This is all proper enough, and costs but little. Did it never occur to the writer that the members of that convention have the maintenance of the constitution and government really at heart, rnd are striving to restore the Union which such disunionists as himself and Jeff Davis would destroy, forever. While Democrats have attempted to preserve a union of the States in the spirit in which the Union was formed, the writer and his class were stigmatising them as "union savers," and striving to create a a sectional union, and implant a deadly hostility between the citizens of different States. Let the present deplorable state of affairs witness what success has attended their efforts. Democrats, while sacrificing their lives and property to sustain the government, do not believe an exterminating civil war between the States the best plan for "forming a more perfect Union;" but hope to restore and perpetuate it only by putting down disunionists both North and South.

SUPPOSE YOU GO TO WAR, YOU CANNOT FIGHT ALWAYS, AND WHEN AFTER MUCH LOSS ON BOTH SIDES AND NO GAIN ON EITHER, YOU CEASE FIGHTING, THE IDENTICAL QUESTIONS AS TO TERMS OF INTERCOURSE ARE AGAIN UPON YOU.—President Lincoln in his Inaugural.

A TOUCHING INCIDENT OF THE BATTLE FIELD:—A letter received from Atlanta, Georgia, gives this incident of the battle at Stone Bridge:

"A staff officer from Charleston, engaged in the battle of the 21st of July says:

"I rode out the day after the battle to view the ground, and passed piles of the dead in various positions. Under a large tree I saw a body lying very handsomely dressed, with a fancy sword, and a handkerchief over the face. It attracted my attention. I stopped, removed the handkerchief, and saw one of the handsomest faces I ever met with, of a boy not more than twelve or fourteen years old. His appearance and dress indicated high social position; probably he was a temporary aid to some general officer. To ascertain who he was, I examined his pocket and found a Testament, in which was written:

"James Simmons, New York. From his loving mother. My son remember thy Creator in the days of thy youth."

"I wished very much to take the body away, but I was six miles from quarters, on horseback, and it was impossible.

IMPORTANT TO STATE VOLUNTEERS.—The act of 15th of May, 1861, section 13th, expressly forbids any volunteer leaving the State except he shall be excepted by the Governor of the State under a requisition from the President:—It has therefore been decided by the State authorities that persons enlisting in independent regiment accepted by the War Department are not entitled to commissions from the State; their families are not to receive the benefits of the funds raised by respective counties, and in case of their death the pension of $8 a month for five years, allowed by the State, will not be made to their widows and minor children.

Important from Kentucky.

CAIRO, Friday, September 6, 1861.

This morning at 11 o'clock, Gen. Grant, with two regiments of infantry, one company of light artillery, and two gunboats, took possession of Paducha, Ky. He found secession flags flying in different parts of the city, in expectation of greeting the arrival of the Southern Army, which was reported as 3,800 strong and fifteen miles distant. The loyal citizens tore down the secession flags on the arrival of our troops.

Gen. Grant took possession of the telegraph office, railroad depot, and the marine hospital. He found large quantities of complete rations and leather for the Southern Army.

The following proclamation has been issued:

"I have come among you not as an enemy, but as your fellow citizen. Not to maltreat or annoy you, but to respect and enforce the rights of all loyal citizens.

"An enemy in rebellion against our common Government has taken possession of and planted its guns on the soil of Kentucky and fired upon you. Columbus and Hickman are in his hands. He is moving upon your city. I am here to defend you against this enemy, to assist the authority and sovereignty of your Government.

"I have nothing to do with opinions and shall deal only with armed rebellion and its aiders and abettors. You can pursue your usual avocations without fear. The strong arm of the Government is here to protect its friends and punish its enemies.

"Whenever it is manifest that you are able to defend yourselves and maintain the authority of the Government and protect the rights of loyal citizens, I shall withdraw the force under my command." N. S. GRANT,
Brigadier-General Commanding.
