

News Items.

It is supposed that when the Merrimac comes out again to try and run the Monitor... A correspondent to the Chicago Times states that the Government has decided to make Cairo a permanent depot... The capture of Newbern is the most creditable affair of our army of any that has yet taken place...

The Capture of Newbern, N. C.

The capture of Newbern is the most creditable affair of our army of any that has yet taken place. The operations were planned by the Commander-in-Chief, and were executed by the co-operation of the army and navy in the most methodical and brilliantly successful manner...

McKean County Democrat.

Saturday, March 29, 1862.

TAKING CLEVERLY.—A bill has been introduced into the Legislature to tax the clergy. Why not? A part of them take more interest in politics than they do in anything else... INTERESTING EXPERIMENT WITH MCKEAN COUNTY COAL.—We clip the following from the Rochester Democrat of Wednesday...

INTERESTING EXPERIMENT WITH MCKEAN COUNTY COAL.—We clip the following from the Rochester Democrat of Wednesday. An experimental trip was made by several prominent railroad gentlemen yesterday, between this city and Batavia, for the purpose of testing the comparative value of McKean county coal as locomotive fuel... THE BATTLE OF PEAK RIDGE.—The battle of Sugar Creek field was the most brilliant achievement of the war...

THE BATTLE OF PEAK RIDGE.—The battle of Sugar Creek field was the most brilliant achievement of the war. The enemy approached our forces with double our number, and in consequence of this difference were enabled to attack us on all sides... THE BATTLE OF WINCHESTER.—We have this day achieved a glorious victory over the combined forces of the rebel Generals Jackson, Smith and Longstreet...

DESPERATE BATTLE IN NEW MEXICO.—A battle took place near Fort Craig, New Mexico, on the 21st ult., between a force of Texas troops and the Union men under Col. Canby. The former occupies the heights across the Rio Grande, opposite Fort Craig, where they were cut off from the water by a battery and 4000 men... MARRIED.—At the residence of N. R. Randall, in Andover, N. Y., March 18, by Rev. J. Kenyon, Mr. WALLACE W. BROWN, of Williamsville, Pa., and Miss ELLA CRANDALL, of Andover, N. Y.—Minor.