Another opportunity to Enlist for the Bucktail Regiment.

HAVING been authorized to establish a Recruiting Station at Williamsville, Pa., under General Order No. 105, Head Quarters Army—Dec 31, 1861—I am now prepared to recruit all good able-bodied men, over 18 and under 45 years of age, either for the

or for any Volunteer Regiment, (either Cavalry Infantry or Artilery) now in the field.

Those desirous of serving their country, of fighting under and for the old starred and striped banner, have now the very best opportunity offered them. Men! Patriots! come forward! Lend us your shoulders to the wheel, and let us drive the wicked Rebellion to the wall. Your brothers in the field have met and defeated the enemy at every point within the last three months they have made you proud of their courage and valor; but if we expect new victories, we must make new efforts and more generous sacrifices. Though Pennsylvania has armed and equipped and sent into the field more men than any other State, she has yet much to do if she would win new laurels and cover herself with fresh glory. In order to fill Regiments already in the field to the maximum standard, we must have 1000 recruits. Then rally, freemen! your country calls you to arms and who would not be an American soldier and fight for the Union? Those desirous to enlist can do so by calling upon C. CORNFORTH, now at Smethport, Pa., or at this rendezvous. Board and lodgings are furnished for recruits from the day of enlistment. Transportation will be furnished from the place of enlistment to the General Depot in Harrisburg, where all recruits are uniformed and forwarded to the Regiment for which they enlisted without delay. All communications from adjoining counties promptly attended to. Address

HENRY R. COSTAR:—All the summer I have been troubled with Roaches and Mice. I was actually ashamed of the house, for the Roaches were everywhere. I purchased a box of your Extirminator and tried it, and in one week there was not a Roach or Mouse in the House. JOHN B. GIVENS, No. 94 Elm St.

HOUSEKEEPERS—troubled with vermin, need be so no longer, if they use "COSTAR'S" Extirminators. We have used it to our satisfaction, and if a box cost $5, we would have it. We had tried poisons, but they effected nothing; but COSTAR'S article knocks the breath out of Rats, Mice and Bed Bugs, quicker than we can write it. It is in great demand all over the country.—Medina (O.) Gazette.
