

FROM FREDERICKSBURG—ADVANCE OF THE ENEMY FIGHTING COMMENCED. The news from Fredericksburg is exciting. The long silence is broken, and fighting probably the prelude to the great battle—has commenced again between the two armies. Early yesterday morning the enemy in large force effected a crossing of the Rappahannock at a point known as Deep run, a few miles below Fredericksburg. It is also reported that the enemy crossed at Ferry's Ford and other points, but we have no confirmation of this. On crossing to this side of the river, at Deep run, the enemy engaged the Thirteenth Georgia and the Sixth of Louisiana—it is not certain which—and severe skirmishing ensued. Loud and continued, the firing was heard from other points along the line, and the belief at Fredericksburg was confident that the enemy was advancing in strength, and that the movement would lead to a general action.

It is not known in what force the enemy has crossed, but it is believed by those most competent to judge that Hooker has thrown over the river the whole strength of his army, and that he intends to give us battle in earnest. It is thought that he has been encouraged, to this by the rumor which has reached the North respecting the defeat of our army had been with the army from Fredericksburg and sent to Suffolk and South Carolina. It is thought that he has made this advance thinking that he would strike us when we were weakest and when his chances were most favorable.

As the time of the cars leaving Guiny's Station yesterday, about one P. M.—the train was not allowed to go beyond—P. M.—and continued firing was distinctly heard, and it was supposed that the enemy was still crossing. A thousand rumors were flying, but we are not disposed to tax the credulity of our readers by their repetition.

All indications point to a battle to-day. Movements are going on which we cannot not be prudent to tell our readers. The telegraph line was last night under the exclusive control of the government, and there were other signs that our authorities are looking for a great battle.

We inquired last night at the War Department, but we got our usual greeting—they had got nothing. What a wonderful government, that it never receives any despatches from its armies. Gathering news, under such embarrassment, is an arduous and ungracious task, and most be our excuse for the scant and unsatisfactory outline we have given of what is probably the prelude to a grand and terrible battle in Virginia.—N. Y. Herald.

A LAMENTABLE MISTAKE—Many people appear to think that the human stomach has a power for digestion greater than that of a fish, and so they throw into it a compound of caustic, crude, indigestible substances, mixed with flour and then called bread. Such is the nature of much of the stuff produced by the use of common Saleratus. We advise all who have any regard for health, and who would preserve their digestive powers unimpaired to a reasonable old age, to use DeLand & Co.'s Chemical Saleratus, the pure article sold by most dealers, and at wholesale by the manufacturers at Fairport, Monroe Co., New York.

CINCINNATI, May 6. Great excitement existed at Dayton, Ohio, yesterday, in regard to the arrest of Hon. Clement L. Vallandigham by order of the military authorities.

At dark a crowd of five to six hundred proceeded to the Journal office, took possession of it, completely gutted the building, set it on fire and burned it to the ground.

The fire communicated to the adjoining buildings and all the property from the south end of the Phillips House to the middle of the square was destroyed.

All the telegraph lines in the city were cut down and destroyed.
