of the Disease. This is a remedy so universally known to sarpass any other for the cure of threat and lung complaints, that if, is useless here to publish the evidence of its virtnes. Its unrivaled excellence for coughs and colds, and its truly wonderful cures of pulmonary disease, have made it known throughout the civilized nations of the earth. Few are the communities, or oven families, among them, who have not some personal experience of its effects — some living trophy in their midst of its victory over the subtle and dangerous disorders of the threat and lunga. As all know, two, the effects of this remedy, we need not do more than to assure them that it has now all the vir-tues that it did have when making the cures which have won as bringly upon the confidence of mankind.
