The Musical Department of the Ladies' Companion has ever commanded a large share of attention, and has been looked upon with no little interest by its readers, and more especially the Lapervision it is placed, to make that portion of the

Tae Work in General. Of every department an equally careful supervision will be strictly exerof its music, and the unequal splendor of its pic-toral embellishments, and the accuracy of its quarterly fashions. The proprietor pledges himself to use all honorable means to maintain the superiority which the Ladies' Companion has obtained .--For five years he has steadily pursued a course of improvement, and he flatters himself that his present facilities are such as to give the work eminent advantages over all other publications

From the foregoing it will be perceived that the Ladies' Companion embraces every department within the range of Belles-Lettres and the Fine-Arts: and no exactions or expense will be deemed too great to render the work equal to any other extant. The flattering and general testimonials of nearly every contemporary journal in the United States, and in fact, many on the other side of the Atlantic, have strongly asserted the undeniable claims of the Ladies' Companion to the support of the public generally. There is no work that rive its readers such a great return for their money. Terms-Three Dollars a year in advance, or For

Dollars during the year. No subscription received for less than a year. Letters must be post pand, otherwise the postart is deducted, and credit given only for the balance. WM. SNOWDEN, 109 Fulton street, New York.
