

JEFFERSON REPUBLICAN.

MILFORD, PA. JUNE 20, 1840.

Terms, $3.00 in advance; $2.25 half yearly; and $2.50 if not paid before the end of the year.

POR PRESIDENT:
Gen. William Henry Harrison,
OF OHIO.
FOR VICE PRESIDENT:
John Tyler,
OF VIRGINIA.
FOR SENATOR ELECTORS.
John A. Shulze, of Lycoming,
Joseph Ritner, of Cumberland,

Col. Johnson said (in Congress)—

"Who is General Harrison? The son of one of the signers of the Declaration of Independence; who spent the greater part of his large fortune in redeeming the pledge he then gave, of his fortune, life and sacred honor, to secure the liberties of his country. Of the career of General Harrison I need not speak; the history of the West is his history. For forty years he has been identified with its interests, its perils and its hopes. Universally beloved in the walks of peace, and distinguished by his ability in the councils of his country, he has been yet more illustriously distinguished in the field. During the late war, he was longer in active service than any other general officer; he was, perhaps, often in action than any one of them, and never sustained a defeat."

Both Houses of the Legislature adjourned on Friday the 12th inst. This is good news no doubt to the people of the State.

THE PRESIDENTIAL PROSPECT.—The Albany Evening Journal says: "The general aspect of the whole question is highly flattering. But when we go into details, not a doubt remains for Van Buren 'to hang a hope upon.' In the six New England States, four of which voted for him in 1836, he is only sure of one—he may get two, but four are sure for Harrison. New York, the Empire State, where he had a majority of 28,000, will no doubt give from 12 to 15,000 against him. This result, with the effort made by the Whigs as in 1838 and '39, is as certain that we are to have an election."

LOW WAGES.—Mr. Buchanan wishes to reduce the labor of this country to the "standard throughout the world." Look at the following picture, as exhibited in one of the towns of England:

DEATH OF AN EDITOR.—The New Orleans Bee announces with heart felt sorrow the sudden death of James B. Anderson, editor of the New Orleans Sun. He was seized with a paralytic stroke, while in his office, and died shortly after. Mr. Anderson will be deeply regretted by all who knew him. He was eminently endowed not only with the social virtues, but with those intellectual qualities which give raciness and spirit to public journal. As a writer, he was bold, independent and vigorous. His style was conspicuous for its quaintness, genuine humor, and occasional infusion of keen and biting sarcasm.

MR. ANDERSON was formerly a journeyman printer, and like thousands of others who have graduated in that College of thought, (a printing office)—he was a self-educated man.

The whole amount of tolls collected on the Pennsylvania Canal and Rail Road, this season up to the 4th inst. was $218,350 93 cents. Motive power, $153,895 66. Rail Way $150,326 64. Gross $532,274 23.

A MOVEMENT IN ILLINOIS.—Ten thousand persons are said to have been present at the Convention of Young Men, at Springfield, Ill., on Wednesday week. About two-thirds of them were encamped on the ground.

Watermelons from New Orleans were in the Cincinnati market a few days since.

WHIG TRIUMPH IN NEW LONDON.—At the election for city officers on Monday, the Whigs carried their entire ticket. The whole ticket, composed of Clerk, Aldermen, Common Council, Sheriffs, Treasurers, and all the minor officers were chosen. This is indeed a triumph in a city which has been, until recently, one of the strongest Locofoco towns in the State.
