CURING PRACTICE.

The principle of purifying the body by purgg with vegetable physic is becoming more and the understood as the only sensible method by which sound health can be established. Hundreds of individuals have become convinced of this doctrine, and are dai y acknowledging the practice to be the best ever discovered. Now is the unhealthy season when our bodies are liable to be affected with disease; and now is the time the state of the stomach and bowels should be attended to, because on the healthy state of those organs depends the healthy state opened the first office for the exclusive sale of this of the general system; and every one will see at medicine in New York; yet, in that time I have once, if the general health be bad while that re- sold over twelve millions of boxes, and have now mains, local disease cannot be cured.
