JEFFERSONIAN REPUBLICAN

JEFFERSONIAN REPUBLICAN

Stroudsburg, November 25, 1841.

, $2,00 in advance; $2.25, half yearly; and $2,50 if paid before the end of the year.

Nicholas Reinhardt, tried at Reading, on the 4th instant, for the murder of Conrad Christ, has been found guilty of murder in the first degree, and sentenced to be hung. The time for his execution has not yet been fixed by the Governor.

The Governor of Georgia has appointed the first Monday of January as the day of Special Election it ever since its deposite in September, 1837, place of Messrs. Alford and Nisbet.

Parties in the Legislature of New York will stand as follows :- In Senate, 15 whigs and 17 locofocos; in the house 33 whigs and 95 locos. the checks; which authority was asserted by Locofoco majority on Joint ballot, 64.

From the Rochester Democrat of Nov. 13. Latest from Salt River.

"Up Salt River." --- By recent letters from denied by the prosecutrix. In the course of a this "Saline Elysium," we learn that the Locos long examination of evidence, occupying two have left things in such a horribly bad condition days and a half, the investigation branched off that the Whigs will scarcely be able to inhabit into a variety of matter connected with the it. All the gardens and improvements made by whole transaction in which the accused had the Whigs during their long sojourn there pre- been concerned for her in establishing her vious to 1837 have been suffered to run to claim to a pension as widow of a gunner in waste, the school-houses turned into gambling the naval service of the United States. shops, and the log cabins torn down or blown the " hard cider"-not a drop left. The place to the Court for instructions on the law of will have to undergo considerable repairs before the case, and the Juty shortly returned into the Whigs take possession; but, as they intend Court with verdicts of not guilty in all the to stay but one year, it cannot be expected that cases. We are assured there was not the the improvements will be very extensive. slightest hesitation with any one of the Jury, There have been many distinguished arrivals about their verdict." within the last two months. The place is fast filling up from New York and Michigan. Their voyage has been rough, the wind carrying them much farther up the river than they inwas not credited.

containing the "Political Abolitionists" was legislature much to every body's surprise. The swamped in the Gulf of Forgetfulness," and lady, however, at the first opportunity, married him not to move. Satan commenced swelling, every soul on board perished.

From the National Intelligencer. Interesting Trial.

The attention of the Criminal Court now sitlast three days in trial of William L. Brent, ington. A gentleman of the Bar, engaged in ed fire-arms. the cause, has furnished us with the annexed brief notice of the case.

sed. The main question on which the jury had to pass was the authority of the accused to draw the accused on a written power of attorney, atamined in Court to prove the execution of the instrument; the execution of which power was

"The case was committed to the Jury, with-The Locos have also made clean work of out argument on the evidence, or any motion

Love, Life and Death.

On Monday last was buried at a Quaker burying ground, at the village of Woodbury, (West tended to go. Some of the more malicious of Jersey.) Anna, wife of Lieut. Barton, now at the retreating Locofocos circulated a report sea, and daughter of Hugh Hollingshead, of him again, and has ever since lived with him on the small salary attached to the office of a midshipman, recently advanced to a lieutenancy. The assignces of the Bank, says the Nation- Her father has never since recognized her, and a fever, and she died on the following day. Her mother, who had never ceased to show a fondness for her child, was with her, and a few William S. Mosely, Esq. the Prosecuting hours before she died, her father also visited her chamber .-- Newark Daily Advertiser.

An inquest was held upon the body of the deceased, and the Jury returned a verdict that the

The above adds another to the numerous dread-Esq., a member of the bar of the city of Wash- ful warnings against the careless handling of load-

GREAT REJOICING AMONG THE ABOLITION-"The charge against the accused as set forth isrs .- A very curious event occurred at Townin five several indictments, was forging five sev- send, Middlesex Co., Mass .- one perhaps bneral checks on the bank of Washington, in the paraleled in this country, and which has caus- lots were sold in New York, and even the felon. name of one Eleanor Corrier, on whose com- ed much rejoicing in the colored circles, and plaint the prosecution was set on foot. The not a little amazement among the politicians. checks were dated and the money drawn on The three political parties-Whigs, Locofocos them from the bank in the course of the months and Abolitionists -- were equally divided in that first freshet submerged the whole of of September and October, 1837, and amount- town, and neither party could elect a Represen- it. The bubble exploded, and what ed in all to $500. This was part of a sum of tative to the Legislature without the aid of an-Was designed to eclipse Washington, money received by the accused, as attorney other party. The Whigs and Localdcos by and agent of the prosecutrix, from the Navy turns courted the favor of the Abolitionists, and is only known as a quagmire, in the Department, on the 2d of September, 1837, proposed to unite with them upon a man who centre of which is the corner stone! and that day deposited in the bank to her cred- should represent either Whig and Abolition prin- The auctioneer, in describing the ferit. The complaint was that she had supposed ciples, or Abolitionism and Locofocoism. The this money had been lying in bank to her cred- Abolitionists refused to have any other than their own man. The others getting vexed at their in that State, for two Members of Congress in till the 3d of May last, when she for the first obstinacy, had an understanding between them- Frogs to the acre!" This spot, as a time discovered it had been drawn out of bank, selves, and resolved to give their Abolition town, was to outrun Washington, but in September and October 1837, by the accu- friends a real Abolition representative. Accordingly they nominated a very dark but respectable old colored man, and as both Whigs and the 'regularly nominated' Abolition candidate by tested by a subscribing witness, who was ex- ten to one. The respectable old colored Re- fulness and oblivion .- North Amer. presentative agreed to take his seat as a member, if elected .-- there being no disqualification on account of color. But it seems that an informality in keeping the polls open beyond the legal time has rendered his election null. Another meeting is to be called immediately, and if the Abolitionists still hold out, the colored

> The Raleigh (N. C.) Rasp, gives the fullowing account of a fellow being shot in Georgia lately in the disguise of a devil.

The fellow disguised himself with a club foot went to the house of an old lady, a rich widow, called himself the devil, and frightened the family off the premises, took the old lady's money, and eloped. In the act of retreating, he was met a mile or two from the house by a man with a gun, who had been to attend a muster, and was then returning home, who, too, had taken a little too much of the "critter." 'The man upon meeting him, tetreated levelled his gun, and demanded who comes there ? "I am just before leaving, that Honest John Davis, of Philadelphia. This we learn by a Philadelpeia the Prince of darkness, but it is not thee I am Massachusetts, would be there shortly. This paper, is the same lady who a few years ago, after, Jesse Bradlock, I had but one or two submarried Lieut. Barton against the wishes of jects and them I have despatched to the lower P. S. We have just learned that the vessel her parents. A divorce was obtained from the regions." Jesse not being disposed to let his jump dodder vay, den I pulls him dodder vay. upon the whole as yet, that silver and gold are devilship pass, presented his gun and ordered emitting smoke at the same time, and burning sulphur. Jesse not liking the scent of the sulphur, fired and laid the Satamic Majesty a corpse very mad. at his feet. He then made his way to the house al Gazette, have commenced suits against Mr. she has but once been in his house .- On the of the old lady, where he found the family in the greatest distress. Upon inquiry he was told that the devil had been there, and they were compelled to fly to the woods for protection, or be carried off by him alive. Jesse informed them that he had just killed the devil. They immediately took the road, and tracked him by the track of the club foot, until they came up with his body when they disrobed him of his garments, took off the club foot, recovered the money which he had stolen, washed his face, and recognized him as a man who had lived a neighbor to them for many years.

"JACKSON."-It may have been for- We perceive that a man tried for deceased came to her death by the accidental dis- gotten by most of our readers, that bigamy, in North Carolina, has been ting in this city, has been occupied during the charge of a loaded pistol in the hands of her fa- when Gen. Jackson was at the top sentenced to be branded with the loaded wit of the ladder of his Executive popu- ter B on the left cheek, to be imprislarity, some political parasites, as oned three years, and receive thirtywell as speculators, founded a town nine lashes at three several times beopposite "Washington," and called fore the expiration of the term of imit "Jackson." It was laid out in prisonment. This branding and whipstreets and squares upon paper; and ing is more atrocious than the act of the General aided in laying the corner stone of this mimic city. But the tility of the soil, said it was so rich, that it "produced sixty bushels of like the fame of these two distin- good double handfull of solid clear corn left. guished men, one will ever live in the Locofocos voted for him, he was elected, over "hearts of his countrymen," while the other is gradully sinking into forget-

HARD FIGHT .--- A few days since, as a farmer was returning home from town after disposing of his load of marketing, he had passed the bridge this side of Floriasant and entered the woods on the opposite side, when he heard something cry like a child, and stopped his team to see what it could be. It was about 9 o'clock | can say to all creation-all the fields are plantin the evening.

After stopping a few minutes and hearing nothing he again started, when the same noise and crying was again repeated, apparently neater than before, and he again stopped and got out of the wagon. He had no sooner got out than a large panther sprang at him from the Capting, which is not the case with most folks limb of a tree near the road, but missed him. being possessed of great presence of mind he caught the panther by the tail, and having but a wagon-whip in his hand, his only chance was to prevent the "varmint" from turning on him. We must give his own account as near as we can and you will perceive from his lingo that he was a Dutchman, 'Vell,' he said, 'ven I gets him by the tail, he tries to jump dis vay, and den I pulls him dis vay; and gives him a brass and copper money, and now in England, little dump mit my vagon vip; den he dries to even silver morrey, as a "legal tender," but and gives him one more little dump mit my vip; at the present day money,-but there is no tel-

A Letter from Major Downing. From the New York Express. WASHINGTON, 15th Nov. 1811

To the Editors of the New York Express, the same paper my old friend Mr. Dwight printed a spell ago.

MR. EDITORS :---

I tell'd you in my last letter that Capting Tyler had gone to Virginny-and that whilst he was gone, I was to put all the Bank plans into my fanning mill and blow the chaff off the clean corn. Well, this has been no fool of a job I can tell you, for out of more than a two bushel basket of plans, there aint more than about a Captain Tyler has now got back from Virginny, and when I showed him my siftings-"well says he "Major your mill has made a small matter on't any how-but there is eauf left for seed?"

"Jest etacily," says I, "and if we can't raise enul from this small parcel for all our purposes then I'm mistaken." "Now Major," says Canting Tyler, "I should like to know your notions about this fliatter, for we have got all other things in a good train except this plagy matter -if we can only get that going right then we ed and if Providence smiles on us-we shall have good crops." "That is a fact," says], "and if you'll listen I'll tell you a story in as short order as I can." The Capting took his seat and pinted his nose right at me, and there is one thing I have particularly noticed in the -afid that is, whichever way his nose pints it is a sartin sign that he looks that way, so there, is no mistake about it.

"Well, in the first place, we settled the business about the origin of money-how and why it was invetted --- first iron money, next brass and coper money---next silver and gold money, and how in the process of time and digging and mining, iron money, got out of fashion next,

gentleman will be elected, sure as fate. The Devil Killed.

United States Bank.

Cowperthwaite, ex-Cashier, for the balance of 4th she gave birth to a third child; on the 5th his indebtedness ; also against the Directors of she received a letter from her husband stating 1839, for declaring a dividend in that year, that he was about to be transferred from his when the Bank was in no condition to pay one then station, and would be placed in a situation -for which the chatter of the Bank makes all that she would not hear from him for perhaps consenting thereto personally liable for the a- six months. The excitement threw her into mount of the dividend .- Tribune.

Murder on the Highway.

Auorney for the Helena (Arkansas) District, was assasinated on the highway in St. Francis County, Arkansas, on the 23d ult. He was at the time on the road to church, alone. The assassin or asssassins had erected a blind, from I chind which they shot him, several buckshot assing through his head and shoulders,--- Ib.

The Emperor of China has offered a reward of to the Presidential Chair. a hundred thousand dollars, and promotion to the fourth rank, to any one who shall send him for array of the aspirant, and agreed to leave the preservation in the Imperial Museum at Pekin the whole question to the decision of a convention. Lead of Captain Elliot.

the United States thirty-four million sheep. These are worth, at a fair valuation, seventy millions of dollars. At three sheep to the acre, it would require eleven million acres of land for new government was organized on the Sunday their keeping, worth twelve dollars per acre-mak- previous when the following persons were naing the amount of one hundred and thirty-two mil- med for the ministry; Gen. Tornell minister, lions of dollars invested in lands.

Safety Pocket .- Mr. D. Harrington of this city has invented a pocket for coats, vests or pantaloons, which seems to bid defiance to the assaults of the light fingered gentry. A pliable small brass chain is thrown around the pocket in large reticulations, and the mouth is fastened had become quieted .- N. O. Bulletin, Nov. 10. in such a way that it would be difficult for any other to open it without the aid of the wearer. Mr. John Ashton, No. 30 Market street, has made some garments with this patent addition, provided he could contrive to keep possession says of the garment in which the patent pocket was placed .- U. S. Gaz.

of this State has formed a Constitution which cor- event. Yesterday morning some friends called rects some of the defects of the old charter by to see him, and these pistols were lying on a chair, which that State has been governed. The repre- and one of the gentlemen without perceiving them sentation is more equally apportioned between the sat upon them; but at the request of Mr. Noble, several towns; no change with regard to the Sen- who said they were loaded, immediately got up, ate. Public Schools are to be established. The and Mr, N. took one of them up to shew it and too much rum, lost his ballance and Elective Franchise is only extended to holders of raised the hammer. While in this position his fell on the pavement in Marsh Markrersonal property to the value of $500, who shall finger slipped, and the hammer coming down upon

The Mexican Revolution.

The Water-Witch, from Vera Cruz, brings accounts three weeks later than before received. We take from the Courier, news as given in letters which announces the end of the new Revolution, and the accession of Santa Anna

-This consisted mainly of Santa Anna's followers, and it was readily decided that their According to the best calculations, there are in chief should rule, and that Bustamente should abdicate and leave the country.

> A letter of the 14th from this city, says the fairs ; C. Castillion, minister of industry ; Francis Garcia, minister of finance.

On the 27th business was said to be entirely at a stand in Vera Cruz, except the forward-

A Daughter Shot by Her Father.

choly nature, causing the death of a young and and, so far as we can see, a man would be safe beautiful female, occured in the upper part of New in a crowd with his pocket book well lined, York, on Monday morning. The N. Y. Courier ed away from the spot, but could dis-

> Mr. Noble, a master mason on the Croton Works, residing in Eighty-sixth street, liaving house, has recently been in the habit of keeping life."

Rhode Island .- The Constitutional Convention loaded pistols in readiness in case of such an have paid taxes on the same for two years, and ta-ken away from sons of freeholders, as such, ex-rept those already admitted. Of course this will not satisfy the non-freeholders.—Tribune. Hinger supped, and the hammer coming down upon the cap, which remained in the socket, the charge exploded, and horrible to state, the ball with which the pistol was loaded struck his daughter, Jane Noble, who was standing two or three yards off in the right side of the head required to a state. off, in the right side of the head, passing through strong lesson."

Folly and Rescue from Death.

On Wednesday evening last, a young couple, respectably dressed, were seen to throw themselves into the river from Arch street wharf. Bustamente was intimidated by the formidable They were promptly and humanely rescued by some ferrymen, and handed over to the guardians of the night. Pa. Inquirer.

Attempted Assassination!

The Newtown (Pa.) Chronicle of the 17th says,-"On Wednesday or Thursday evening of last week, as a of war; Gomez Pedraza, minister of foreign af- Mr. Hergesheimer, a resident of Nicetown, was on his way home from Frankford, carrying with him some ascertained, passed through the cuff > was alarmed at the time, and hastentinctly see the daring assassin run off over a corn field. Mr. H. unable to heard that persons had threatened to attack his account for the design made upon his Løsson on Drunkenness.

The Baltimore Patriot says=" On Sunday last, a man who had taken den he jumps right up and I pulls him right ling how soon, by science and digging that down, and every time I gives him a little dump; even one or both these metals may not be found den I kick him behind a little bit and he gets so abundant as to make them too common for frihtened he would have run off into the woods.' have become. Well, that being settled, we O de tivil---no, no ! if I had let go his dail it next examined into paper money, how that would be bad business.' Well what did you was invented-being a representative of money do with him ? 'Vell, I says go along to mine -that is, a kind of money--that not only rephorses, and I drives him home, and my son Jac resents gold and silver, but houses and farms, takes up de axe and knocks him on de head.' and wheat, and pork, and beef, and ships and The distance he drove the 'varmint' was over merchandise, and every thing else in creation, three miles. Duting the fight he belabored the called property. animal so unmercifully with his cart whip that to turn upon the wagoner in the whole distance. ting's nose carries both his eyes and ears along

Died, in this village, on the 6th inst. Thomas was invented by the great democratic party of MATTHEWS, at the advanced age of 93 years creation, who insisted that industry and prop and 6 months. He was a native of Connecti- erty was as good, and should be represented as cut, and at the commencement of the struggle well, as mere gold and silver---they begun a between this Country and Great Britain, sided new war between money on one side, and pro with his oppressed countrymen, and entered the perty and industry on the other -- that is, more American Army, being attached to the regiment wanted to get hold of as much property an of Col. Campbell. He was in many a hard industry as possible, and property and industry fought battle, and had many hairbreadth escapes. wanted to get hold of as much money as possi Five years of the strength of his manhood were ble---each of course tryin to depreciate th expended in his country's service. Many an other." interesting tale has he told to the third generation of Old Put, Mad Anthony, as he used to and is the true duty of Government, whose decall Gen. Wayne, and of Washington, whose ty it is to protect alike the owners of mon lives have become a part of our national histo- and the owners of property and industry -- (pr ry.-Jamestown Journal.

HO FOR TEXAS DEBTORS !-- The gentlement debtors of all nations who are now snug in Texas are about to be rid of their debts altogether, if not looked after. The Congress of Texas at tools-he was fired upon by some its Session in February last, passed a Limitaing of goods to the interior. Santa Anna was miscreant who lay concealed beside tion act, by which it is required that all actions making great reforms. The country generally the road. The ball, as he afterwards of debt, grounded upon any contract in writing, shall be sued within four years after the maturity of the contract; and that in every claim of one of the sleeves of his coat, and for money whether foreign or domestic, which An accident of the most deplorable and melan- also thro' the lappel of the same. He has been due for more than five years, and less than ten years, an action shall be commenced thereon within one year of the passage of this act, and not thereafter.

> An honest Quaker was asked his opinion, whether Lunardi would as- ty got --- for land and wheat and pork and " cend in his balloon. Friend, says ges and all, will and must rise in price justs Obadiah, I do not meddle with flying far as you cheapen money by making it

V. E. Piolett, Esq ; of Bradford keep the run of things were like a man wh constitutional money, or what folks call meas-"Why didn't you let him go? he was so ures of value-just as iron, or brass, or copper

"Now," says I, Capting Tyler, keeping your he became conquered, and only attempted once nose to this pint (for as I said afore, the Cap-St. Louis Pennant. with it, and the Capting's nose is an almighty nose, and the Duke of Wellington's is but a pug ANOTHER REVOLUTIONARY SOLDIER GONE .--- to it,) "now," says I, "ever since paper money

> "In this state of things," says I, "what was perty and industry being one and the same thing, for industry creates property."

> Here we broke off, as it was getting late, and went to sleep upon it, and I would advise folk generally to do the same thingy providing the think well over the matter, and understand well before reading further.

> Well the next day we turned to again an went over the whole matter. As history a facts tell us how at one time when all was sou and all branches of industry was working all smoothly, Government took a notion to let fels manage their now paper money, and broke " the old balance wheel-and then how State Banks, and States themselves all went to we making an extra batch of Bills and Bonds and all kinds of promise to pay--- and all consider as money --- and then of course how high prop plenty --- and then how Government got alarm and issued Specie Circulars, and wouldn't mil any kind of money but hard money, and smass away against all banks and paper mon makers, bills, bonds, notes and mortgages in brought a bushel measure right down 10 quart pot---calling every man a rascally spec tor who got caught on the wrong side of fence. So that a good many folks who did reports.

county, has been appointed by the borrowed ice in January and agreed to pa the brain and causing instant death. A shower of fishes, some of them 31.2 Governor, appraiser of damages caus- back in August---but government folks w The unfortunate young lady was about twenty inches long, fell the other day, in a thunder It is said that the flocks of wild ducks, gerse, as her untimely end will be deplored. The wretched father is in a state of frenzy, and it is It is said that the flocks of wild ducks, gerse storm, at Dunfermline, Scotland. A great numter were alive, and jumped about on the grass efter their aerial voyage. deceased. very questionable if he ever recovers his reasons. last ten years. Why, save I, Capting Tyler, if you bring