PETERS PILLS

Doct. Joseph Priestly Peters'

CELEBRATED VEGETABLE ANTIBILIOUS PILLS,

Are daily effecting some of the most astonishing and wonderful cures that ever was known.

Mrs. E. Ward of New York was troubled with Dyspepsia and Liver Complaint for upwards of fifteen years; her symptoms were as follows. Frequent pulse—turred tongue—bowels irregular, mostly costive, yet sometimes relaxed with a bilious discharge—urine saffron colored—skin dry—thirst—bad taste in the mouth, particularly in the morning—pain in the right side, in the region of the liver, sometimes in the right shoulder; cough; expectoration of offensive matter; nausea or sickness of the stomach; yellowness of the skin and eyes, loss of appetite; lowness of spirits; broken sleep and unpleasant dreams; easily fatigued; loss of flesh; unhappy and evil forebodings, &c. By using these valuable pills a short time was entirely restored.

Miss Clark, daughter of Col. Clark, was affected with irregularities and obstructions, attended by the following symptoms: Languor; disturbed sleep; pale face; cold feet; nostrils dry, urine pale, sometimes a distressing cough like a hasty consumption, sweating of the feet towards night, and of the face and eyes in the morning, general debility, lassitude, &c. By using these pills according to directions, was entirely restored.

Rev. J. B. Whitefield had been several years subjected to severe headache, but by the use of three boxes, he has been entirely cured.

Hon. E. D. Davis was so afflicted with Rheumatism as to be unable to dress himself. By the use of three boxes was entirely restored.

Professor Armstrong says he has used them in his practice for the last five years, and his opinion is that nothing can compare with them in cases of Nervous Debility, Head Ache, Nausea, and all cases of Bilious Affections.

Drs. Mott, Nelson, Rogers, Smith, Harris, Vanderburgh, Hobson, Williams, Emmerson, (of New York) Waines, (of Philadelphia) Scott, (of Baltimore) and hundreds of the most eminent physicians throughout the United States, recommend these pills as decidedly superior to all others in use.

These Valuable Pills can be obtained of Doct. Samuel Stokes and J. D. & C. Malvin's, Stroudsburg, only agents for Monroe county.

The family Newspaper.

THE PHILADELPHIA SATURDAY COURIER WITH THE Largest Circulation in the World!

The publishers of this old established and universally popular Family Journal, would deem it superogatory to say a word in commendation of its past or present excellence & usefulness. Its unrivalled and increasing circulation, (over 35,000,) is its best recommendation. For the future, however, a determination to be first in the van of the American Newspaper Weekly Press, will call for increased expenditures and renewed attractions for the coming year, 1842, not the least of which will be an improvement in the quality of the paper, and an addition of popular contributors, embracing, we fully believe the best list to any similar Journal in the world.

The Courier is independent in its character, fearlessly pursuing a straightforward course, and supporting the best interests of the public. It is strictly neutral in Politics and Religion. It will maintain a high tone of morals, and not an article will appear in its pages which should not find a place at every fireside. It has more than double the number of constant readers, to that of any other paper published in the country, embracing the best families of our republic.

THE MARKETS.

Particular care is taken to procure the earliest advices in reference to the prices of all kinds of Grain, Provision, Produce, &c., the state of Stocks, Banks, Money and Lands, and our extensive arrangements will hereafter render our PRICES CURRENT of inestimable interest to the traveller, the farmer, and all business classes whatsoever.

The general character of the Courier is well known. BENJAMIN TOCK.
Stroudsburg, Oct. 18, 1841.

American Ladies' National Magazine GODEY'S LADY'S BOOK FOR 1842.

The most splendid and valuable Magazine ever published.

The only Magazine devoted to the Ladies, and conducted by members of their own sex. Composed entirely of original articles, by the most eminent writers of the age; and embellished with a larger number and greater variety of costly, elegant, and attractive Pictorial illustrations, than any similar publication.

EDITED BY—Mrs. Sarah J. Hale, Mrs. L. H. Sigourney, Morton M'Michael, L. A. Godey.

CONTRIBUTORS TO EACH NUMBER.—Miss C. M. Sedgwick, Miss E. Leslie, Mrs. E. C. Embury, Theo. S. Fay, N. P. Willis, Mrs. C. Lee Hentz, T. S. Arthur, Mrs. E. F. Ellet.

In announcing to his numerous patrons and the public at large his arrangements for the year 1842, the proprietor of Godey's Lady's Book takes occasion to acknowledge the unparalleled and triumphant success of his Magazine, which has now reached the extraordinary number of 40,000 Copies Monthly, being a larger edition than has ever been printed of any other work, of any description, in America. This success he is aware has been attained by the vast superiority which the Lady's Book has always maintained over the various contemporary magazines which have attempted to rival its merits, a superiority which he is still determined to preserve, by keeping it, in all its departments, Literary, Intellectual and Moral, as well as Pictorial, Emblematic, Artistic and Mechanical.

That this is no idle boast, he appeals to the experience of the past twelve years, in which time he has made no promise to the public that he has not fully performed, nor undertaken any thing which his means did not enable him to accomplish to the uttermost.

Entering, as he is about to do, on the 24th volume of the Lady's Book with increased energy and accumulated resources: with an ample knowledge of the business in which he is engaged, acquired by long years of unremitting application; with a subscription list unparalleled in the annals of literature; with numerous facilities not possessed by any other publisher; with well-digested and wide-extended arrangements; and above all, with a steadfast purpose of maintaining the lofty elevation it has reached, the proprietor has not hesitated to incur expenses which under other circumstances might well prove startling, but by means of which he will be enabled to make the Lady's Book the richest, the rarest, the most attractive, and the most valuable periodical, intrinsically and extrinsically, ever offered to the public.

LITERARY DEPARTMENT.

Mrs. S. J. Hale, Mrs. L. H. Sigourney, Miss E. Leslie, Miss C. M. Sedgwick, Mrs. Emma C. Embury, Mrs. F. S. Osgood, Mrs. A. M. F. Annan, Mrs. E. F. Ellet, Miss Dupuy, Mrs. Volney E. Howard, Mrs. E. Allen, Mrs. S. E. Farley, Mrs. H. B. Stowe, Mrs. Seba Smith, Mrs. J. Thayer, Mrs. C. Lee Hentz, Mrs. E. C. Stedman, Miss Meeta M. Duncan, Mrs. C. H. W. Esling, Mrs. M. St. Leon Loud, Miss M. B. Snow, Kate Franklin.

He will be enabled to furnish occasional articles from Maria Edgeworth, Mary Russel Mitford, Mrs. Cornwell Baron Wilson, Mrs. S. C. Hall, Mrs. Holland, Mary Howitt, and other English lady-writers of distinction, some of whom have already published in the Lady's Book the first original contributions they have ever made to American Literature.

Nor has he omitted to procure the services of eminent writers of the opposite sex. Aware of the universal and well-deserved popularity of N. P. Willis, Esq. and confident that the productions of his graceful and eloquent pen will be highly acceptable to the readers of the Lady's Book, the proprietor has entered into an arrangement by which he will be enabled to give in each number of the work, an exclusive article from that gentleman; and he has also retained all the contributors whose writings have heretofore given such general satisfaction, including W. G. Simms, Esq., Professor Ingraham, Professor Dimity, Professor Frost, Professor Walter, Park Benjamin, Esq., R. S. Mackenzie, LL. D., T. S. Arthur, Esq., H. W. Herbert, Joseph C. Neal, Hon. R. T. Conrad, Dr. J. K. Mitchell, Epes Sargent, G. P. Morris, Joseph R. Chandler, Robert Morris, P. Earle, M. D., N. C. Brooks, A. M., E. Holden, A. M'Makin, L. F. Tasistro, Rufus Dawes, E. D. Squier, J. M'Lehlan, Jr., Jas. Aldrich.

With such aid, it is not too much to say, that the Literary Department of the Lady's Book will surpass any thing that has ever been or can be attempted.

ORNAMENTAL DEPARTMENT

It is a source of no little pride to the proprietor of the Lady's Book, that he first introduced into the country the plan of furnishing, along with a monthly periodical of elegant literature, embellishments of an attractive and costly character. The first steel engravings accompanying such a work were given by him; the first mezzotint engraving was given by him; the first patterns of lace work and embroidery were given by him; the first colored plates of fashions were given by him; the first music was given by him. These are things to which he would not refer, if some of those who have essayed to follow in his footsteps, not content with imitating all he designs, even to the form of his book, the size of his type, and the color of his cover, had not foolishly put forward claims to originality, and attempted to found a right to an exclusive merit on doing that which they had borrowed from his example. But what he has done heretofore in the way of embellishment to his book, though it far exceeded any effort of those who strove to copy his movements, cannot compare with what he now means to do. His arrangements for this department of his work have been projected on the most liberal scale of expenditure, involving such an extent of outlay as has never before been dreamed of in any periodical, European or American. As an evidence of his intentions he now states that each number of the Lady's Book for the ensuing year, will contain at least Three Splendid Engravings, embracing in the series every possible variety of subject, Historical, Landscape, Picturesque, Portraiture, Imaginative, Emblematical, and executed in every possible variety of the art—Mezzotint, Line and Mezzotint, Stipple, Medallion, and that most chaste and expressive manner, the Line and Dot combined, which has given such world-wide celebrity to the works of modern artists.

The American Guide Plates of Fashions, colored, will be given every month.
In order to give the greatest attractiveness to the subjects of his embellishments, the proprietor has given orders to various American Painters, of established reputation, who are now engaged in preparing, expressly for the Lady's Book, numerous original pictures on National and Historical events, some of which are nearly completed, and will soon be in the hands of the engraver. Among the painters thus engaged, he may enumerate—J. G. Chapman, painter of the national picture of the Baptism of Pocahontas; P. F. Rothermel, S. S. Osgood of Boston, J. P. Frankenstein, I. Williams, &c. &c.

He has also established a correspondence in London, through which he will receive early proof impressions of the finest prints executed in that Metropolis, and will thus be constantly supplied with an immense variety, from which to make suitable selections. In addition to this, he will receive the only copies of the celebrated prize Engravings of the Edinburg Apollo Gallery sent to this country: one of which, the Examination of Shakspeare before Sir Thomas Lacy, he has already given to his patrons, and another of which, The Stray Children, he has now in preparation, as well as a series of pictorial illustrations of Shakspeare.

Determined to satisfy every variety of taste, the proprietor has also made arrangements for a series of the most superb Mezzotints ever executed in this country, several of which are already engraved, and will be given to his subscribers as a sufficient number of impressions can be taken to supply his immense edition. Besides the services of H. S. Sudd, of New York, who has now in hand a number of plates, the proprietor has secured the invaluable aid of Mr. Humphreys, of London, who is universally conceded to stand in the foremost rank of English Engravers, and whose splendid efforts in Mezzotint have commanded the admiration of the most distinguished amateurs and critics. This eminent artist is now engaged in preparing, expressly for the Lady's Book, a number of Mezzotint Pictures, which the proprietor pledges himself will be of an unsurpassed excellence, and of the most interesting and attractive subjects. To guard against all possibility of difficulty hereafter, he has ordered from England a complete Mezzotint Establishment, and immediately on its arrival, Mr. Wm. E. Tucker of this city will commence operations in that department of art.

In order to procure the various embellishments in season, the proprietor has made permanent arrangements with the following eminent engravers, all of whom are now engaged in executing steel plates for the Lady's Book.
